*'How lovely is your dwelling place,
Lord, God of hosts.' (Psalm 83)*

Buckfast Abbey

God calls to us constantly, longing to guide those who yearn for life and desire to see good days into the way of peace. The Rule of Saint Benedict helps us to hear God's voice, in the Holy Scriptures, in the sacred liturgy and in our brothers in community. If you are a single man longing to live your Catholic faith in a way which brings great joy as it demands the best of you, consider whether God is calling you to be a Benedictine monk at Buckfast Abbey. Please reach out to us, and we will do all we can to help you.

FOREWORD

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

During the autumn weeks, many parish communities were catching up with events which had been delayed because of the pandemic restrictions. There were sacramental initiation celebrations, marriages, and the general business of life edging towards getting back to normal. We need to have done this. There is also a sense of anxiety still about the virus. The fourth wave is sweeping across Europe and there are rumours of new variants of concern. This apocalyptic language is still very new to us. And there is an understandable fear about the days ahead.

There was also something else for me to ponder. Last November, seventy people gathered in our Cathedral Centre for a Mission Conference. It was both visionary and practical. There was hope in the air! The following week, a bishop was telling me of how many Catholic families were moving from London to the Luton and Bedford areas. In the language of some, this is surely "low-lying fruit"! What are we doing to welcome these families and to help them make a home in our communities of faith?

I am very pleased to introduce our new diocesan directory for 2022. My thanks to Neil Roseman and those who have worked with him to produce this. In the way of these things, some of the data will be outdated by the end of this year! We are beginning to move things around, to plan for the future, to look at how we can be a more effective missionary diocese.

The process involved in the journey towards the 2023 Synod of Bishops, For a Synodal Church: communion, participation and mission certainly picks up on some of these themes. Indeed, to my mind, the journey does not end when we submit our diocesan report to the Bishops' Conference. We need to make this process of gracious listening and gracious speaking a part of our way of doing what we do as the local church here in the Northampton Diocese.

And so back to the data. You will notice there is now a resident priest in Thrapston again. More schools are joining the Multi-Academy Trusts. Mission Northampton and Caritas Northampton are opening up avenues of support and encouragement across the Diocese. There is a lot to celebrate! My sincere gratitude to the many across our Diocese who do so much and so generously give of themselves in service of others.

Yours devotedly in Christ,

✠ David

THE DIOCESE – A BRIEF HISTORY

The Catholic Faith first came to Britain in Roman times. St Alban, our first martyr, probably suffered in the year A.D. 209. Three bishops from Britain attended the Council at Arles in A.D. 314. In 597 St Augustine came from Rome to convert the pagan Angles, Saxons and Jutes who had invaded and settled in Britain after the departure of the Romans. His work of conversion was concentrated largely in the kingdoms of Kent and Essex. It was not until some thirty-eight years later that the area covered by our present diocese received the Christian message, with the arrival of the missionary St Birinus and the foundation of his see at Dorchester on Thames in 636. But the real evangelization of the people who dwelt in our district, the Middle Angles, was achieved through the labours of missionaries from the isle of Lindisfarne, off the Northumbrian coast. Notable among them was St Chad, whose see, established at Lichfield in 669, included the present diocese of Northampton.

A few years later, to meet local needs, Archbishop Theodore of Canterbury divided the Mercian see of Lichfield and founded the diocese of Leicester for the Middle Angles. There it remained until the ninth century when the disruption of the Scandinavian invasions necessitated its transference to the safer original site at Dorchester on Thames. With a major reorganisation of the diocesan system in the Norman period, the ancient see of Dorchester was brought to an end. In 1072, Remigius, its last bishop, was translated to Lincoln, in which jurisdiction the territory of the present diocese remained for many centuries.

From the time of the Reformation until 1850, Catholic Dioceses ceased to exist in Britain. As a result of heroic sacrifice by clergy and laity alike the Faith remained alive and from 1685 to 1850 was governed by Vicars Apostolic, who reported to the Cardinal Prefect of the Roman Congregation of Propaganda Fidei.

On 29 September 1850 by Letters Apostolic, issued by Pope Pius IX, the English Hierarchy was restored, and the diocese of Northampton came into being.

On 13 March 1976, by the decree Quod Ecumenicum, Pope Paul VI formed the diocese of East Anglia for the Counties of Cambridge, Norfolk and Suffolk. The territory left to the diocese of Northampton covers Bedfordshire, the old county of Buckinghamshire including the Slough area, and Northamptonshire.

BISHOPS COUNCIL

VICAR GENERAL: Rev Canon Michael Harrison

Episcopal Vicar for the Servant King Vicariate: Rev Christopher Perry

Episcopal Vicar for the Prophet Vicariate: Rev Simon Penhalagan

Episcopal Vicar for the Priest Vicariate: Rev Andrew Richardson

CURIAL STRUCTURE

We believe that Christ was sent by the Father to establish the Kingdom of God. The Church exists to continue this divine work in our world today and the Bishop exercises the threefold offices of Christ as Priest, Prophet and Servant-King.

The following structure has been introduced as an episcopal structure to enable our Christ-centred work to be clearly seen as directed towards mission, as a sign of the office that has been entrusted to Bishop David.

Our curial agencies and departments work in collaboration with the bishop, and carry out their work in such a way as it clearly observes that we are mission-conscious in everything we do.

In order to be effective in our mission, Bishop David has divided our diocesan curia into three groupings or vicariates; priest, prophet and servant-king. These vicariates are led by three episcopal vicars; Frs Andrew Richardson, Simon Penhalagan and Christopher Perry. The episcopal vicars as the bishops council will support the bishop and vicar general, Canon Michael Harrison in keeping the focus on the need to build a mission-conscious vision for our diocese.

To articulate this vision, we go back to the source, to do what we are called to do,

To proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and build the Kingdom of God in Northamptonshire, Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire and Slough.

JUSTICE AND PEACE COMMISSION

The principal role of the Justice & Peace Commission is to advise and inform the Bishop, and to help him promote prayer and action for Justice and Peace in the Diocese.

The aims of the Commission are:

- to support the work of the diocesan Co-ordinator
- to encourage and support groups
- to plan programmes and strategy

The Commission seeks to be a visible sign for Justice and Peace in the Diocese and wider community. Our work is based on Gospel Values and Catholic Social Teaching. We are currently promoting Fairtrade, with the aim of becoming a Fairtrade Diocese. 42 Parishes are registered as Fairtrade Parishes in our Diocese.

The Commission is made up of members from Parishes all over the Diocese. Anyone is welcome to join. We meet approximately three times a year at St Mary's Church, Dunstable to discuss Diocesan Justice and Peace issues, swap ideas and knowledge. We hold regular events including a Diocesan Conference. For all other information please contact the Diocesan Co-ordinator:

The mission of the Society of the Little Flower is to promote devotion to St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, Carmelite Nun and Doctor of the Church. Through prayers and donations, friends of St. Thérèse enable Carmelites to continue her "Shower of Roses" in their ministries throughout the world and in the education of young Carmelites.

The generous donations raised by members of the Society and distributed through the Carmelite Curia in Rome have supported projects in countries such as Kenya, Cameroon, the Philippines, Indonesia, China, East Timor, Mozambique, Peru, Brazil and Vietnam.

School and College Chaplaincies

Coordinator: Alex Heath. Email: alex.mission@northamptondiocese.org

Chaplaincy Provision in schools is diverse throughout the Diocese and local clergy provide essential pastoral support. Some schools have appointed Chaplaincy Coordinators who work in schools and with local clergy to coordinate Chaplaincy provision.

A Mass Sheet for everyone

redemptorist
publications

Every week, in parishes throughout the UK, people are reading one of our weekly sheets. Some of these have been published for over thirty years, and we're very proud that Catholics and other Christians find they are a very easy way to make a meaningful connection with the Lord.

Many parishes buy them and print their own local news on the reverse, so you have information and inspiration in your hand, every week.

OBITUARY

Canon Dan Kiely

Daniel Joseph Kiely was born on 25th May 1943 in Ballydaly, Millstreet, Co. Cork. He was one of six children born to Katty and Denis Kiely.

Dan studied for the priesthood at All Hallows, Dublin and was ordained in 1967.

After joining our diocese he was sent to be assistant priest at Sacred Heart parish in Leighton Buzzard and subsequently at the Cathedral in Northampton. Later he became parish priest of St. Bede's in Newport Pagnell. From there he served in two parishes in Luton; St. Martin's and St. Joseph's. In 1988 Bishop Francis Thomas appointed Fr Dan as vicar general, a role he held until the death of Bishop Thomas.

In 1994 Father Dan was sent to be parish priest of St. Bernardine's Buckingham and St. Martin's Brackley. It didn't take long for his parishioners to warm to his relaxed ways, his gentleness and his ability to see the goodness in people. If he couldn't see a resolution when one was needed, he was prepared to wait until one came along. Dan had his own time zone, known in the parish as "Dan Time" because he rarely consulted his watch. The advertised Mass times published in the directory should have been prefaced with the word "approximately".

Dan enjoyed playing golf; and he was part of a group of golfers from St. Thomas Aquinas and All Saints, Bletchley who had an annual golfing trip to Ireland. He kept in touch with his fellow priests, and he enjoyed going on holiday with Canon Kevin O'Driscoll and his close family

Dan's family in Ireland was hugely important to him and he was refreshed by his regular holidays "home". On his return, his parishioners relished the stories of another Kiely wedding, Baptism or family barbeque which he managed somehow to relate to the Sunday Gospel.

Dan placed no value on material things; he valued people, he was relaxed in company and he always managed to say the right words when they were needed. As his health began to deteriorate and he became less able to fulfil his duties, he reluctantly left Buckingham and went home to be cared for by his family. He had been parish priest in Buckingham and Brackley for twenty two years.

Dan had a short time with his sister, Catherine, then when it became apparent that his health was further deteriorating, his niece Katie was tireless in her search for the right treatment and care for him. In order to receive specialist nursing he moved to St. Joseph's care home in Cork City where he was well looked after and comfortable. Sadly he contracted Covid and died on Sunday 24th January 2021

He is remembered with love and we recall his gentle, faithful ministry, with thanks.

ORDINATION

Rev Andrew Coy

Fr Andrew Coy was ordained on 25th March 2021. Due to covid restrictions only a handful of friends and family were able to attend his ordination at Northampton Cathedral. Here Fr Andrew writes:

I was born in Luton in May 1994, and am one of four. I went to St Margaret's Catholic Primary School in Luton and then to John F Kennedy Catholic School in Hemel Hempstead, where my two brothers had gone before me. It was towards the end of my time in secondary school that I began seriously to consider the priesthood, but decided to go to university to give myself more time. I read history at Durham University, during which I also became active in the Catholic Chaplaincy there. The chaplaincy was run by Dominicans, and I briefly considered a vocation to religious life along those lines. In my final year, however, I contacted the diocese and applied to begin formation as a seminarian.

Bishop Peter accepted me for priestly formation, and asked me to go to the Venerable English College in Rome. Along with the usual programme of studies, I also became heavily involved in the musical scene, as organist and Schola Master. Five years into formation, the Coronavirus pandemic struck, and we were evacuated from Italy in March 2020. Although I didn't know it at the time, this marked the end of my seminary formation, and the beginning of parish ministry, after ordination to the diaconate in July 2020. After eight months as a deacon, I was ordained to the priesthood in March 2021, on the beautiful feast of the Annunciation. It has certainly been an interesting time to start parish ministry, but one full of opportunity, and I have found it both joyful and rewarding. I spent my time as a deacon at the Cathedral, and continue to minister in the Cathedral & St Aidan's as a priest.

The Shrine of the Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe

The Shrine was established on 29th September 2012 by Bishop Peter Doyle in the Church of the Holy Child and St Joseph, Bedford. The Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, one of only 220 in the world commissioned by Pope Saint John Paul II, had travelled on pilgrimage throughout England. The enthusiasm and devotion shown by the Northampton Diocese led Archbishop Vincent Nichols to ask Bishop Peter Doyle to provide a permanent home for the Relic Image.

The Archbishop requested that the Relic Image would continue to visit parish churches, cathedrals, religious institutions and Catholic schools. To that end there is an annual programme of Pilgrimage each year and a Shrine programme. Our aim is to share the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe, to promote prayer and to witness to the truth of the Gospel and the sanctity of life.

The Knights of St Columba have also partnered with the Guardians in a national agreement to offer invaluable support in assisting with pilgrims and visits all over the country.

The Shrine can be visited currently every day between 10.00am-5.00pm but please check with the website www.relicourladyofguadalupe.co.uk as the Relic Image may be away on pilgrimage. The Shrine Rector is Canon Seamus Keenan. The Shrine Coordinator, Mrs Donna Gardner, can be contacted on 07940 228227.

‘The Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be the centre from which the light of the gospel of Christ will illuminate the entire world by the means of distribution of the miraculous image of His mother.’

Pope Saint John Paul II – Guadalupe 1979

Season of Advent

During Advent and Christmastide we are asked to pray for these intentions:

MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

- especially on 3rd December

THE BISHOP, CLERGY & PEOPLE OF THE DIOCESE

- especially on 8th December

EXPECTANT MOTHERS

- especially on 19th December

Advent

Advent has a twofold character: as a season when we are called to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time; as a season to prepare for Christmas, when Christ's first coming to us is remembered. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation.

Advent - Part 1: up to 16th December

- 1] On weekdays of Advent on which an optional memorial is observed, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the Saint whose memorial occurs.
- 2] Only when some serious need or pastoral advantage requires it may an appropriate Mass for various needs and intentions or a votive Mass be celebrated. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.
- 3] In the weekday Office, the Invitatory Antiphon, Hymns and the Antiphon of the Middle Hour are taken from those prescribed for the Season.
- 4] The playing of the organ and other musical instruments, and the decoration of the altar with flowers should be done in a moderate manner, as is consonant with the character of the Season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord.

The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony.

Advent - Part 2: December 17-24

- 1] Weekdays take precedence over memorials of Saints.
- 2] Votive Masses and Daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited.
- 3] Proper readings are given in the Lectionary for these days, rather than those for Advent Week 3 or 4.
- 4] In the Office the Propers are similarly followed.

Sunday 10+	PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD Pf of Palm Sunday. Not EP IV Psalter Week 2	(red)

Before Principal Mass only: Blessing and Procession of Palms. The Palms (or other branches) are blessed and carried in procession, but should also be devoutly kept in the home so as to call to mind Christ's Victory celebrated in the procession.

For the procession a cope is to be preferred to a chasuble.

Before other well-attended Masses: Blessing of Palms and Solemn Entrance.

At other Masses: Simple Entrance.

Liturgy of the Word It is recommended that all readings for the Sunday be used. For pastoral reasons the priest may choose to read only one of the readings before the Gospel. He may, if necessary, read only the narrative of the Passion, even in its shorter form. This may be done only at Masses celebrated with a congregation.

Narrative of the Passion The Passion is narrated without candles or incense, and without the minister signing the book or greeting the people. It is narrated by deacons or, in their absence, priests. Lay readers may be used, but the part of Christ is reserved for the priest or deacon. After the verse telling of the Lord's death all kneel and a pause is observed. At the end, the words 'The Gospel of the Lord' are said, but the book is not kissed.

At all Masses announce:

- 1] The time of the Chrism Mass, explaining its significance and inviting those who can to attend.
- 2] Times to be announced for the Triduum Celebrations.
- 3] The Sacred Paschal Fast requires fasting and abstinence on Good Friday, and it is recommended that fasting should continue, if possible, into Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil (GNLY n.20)
- 4] Good Friday collection for the Holy Land Shrines.

MAUNDY THURSDAY – during the day
Violet for the Liturgy of the Hours, White for the Chrism Mass.

No Masses without a congregation may be celebrated. No Mass other than the Chrism Mass and the Mass of the Lord's Supper may be celebrated without the Bishop's permission. Funeral Liturgies may be celebrated, but not with Mass. Holy Communion may only be received during Mass, except for the sick and the housebound.

Chrism Mass 11.00am in the Cathedral. All clergy should attend, and the faithful should be encouraged to take part.

The Season of Lent ends

EASTER TRIDUUM

When the Sacred Oils arrive in Parish Churches, they should be welcomed with due honour. The old oils should be burned or (where appropriate) poured into the Blessed Sacrament Lamp. It is recommended that the Sacred Oils should be received before the Mass of the Lord's Supper, or at another suitable moment. The faithful should, however, be instructed on the use of the Sacred Oils and their efficacy in the Christian life.

The celebrations of the Sacred Triduum should be held only where they may be enacted with dignity and decorum. The faithful from a number of lesser parishes in the care of a single priest should, if possible, gather in the main church of an area to take part in the sacred rites. Where, however, two or more parishes are entrusted to the care of a single priest, each parish having a considerable congregation and the possibility of performing the celebrations with due dignity and solemnity, the parish priest has the faculty to repeat the celebrations of the Easter Triduum. By the celebration of the Easter Triduum: that is, of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Spouse, the Church means to make present and to fulfil the mystery of the Passover, the passing over of the Lord from this world to the Father.

In accordance with the tradition of the early Church, the sacred Fast should be celebrated on Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and even, as suitable, extended to Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Lord's Resurrection may be arrived at with alert and open mind. (Sacrosanctum Concilium 110)

Thursday

Maundy Thursday

EVENING MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

(white)

The Church inaugurates the Sacred Triduum, recalling that last supper, when the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, loving those who were His own in the world right to the very end, offered His Body and Blood under the species of bread and wine to God and under these symbols, gave them to His Apostles that they might consume them, and ordered them and their successors in the priestly office to offer them. Especially in the homily, attention at this Mass should be focussed upon the mysteries commemorated in it – the institution of the Eucharist and of the Priestly Order, together with the Lord's Commandment (mandatum, whence 'Maundy') of fraternal love

The Mass of the Lord's Supper is celebrated in the evening, at a convenient hour, with the full participation of the whole local community. priests and faithful, who have already celebrated Mass or received Holy Communion in the morning may celebrate again at the Evening Mass.

Before the Evening Mass begins the Tabernacle should be entirely emptied and any Hosts consumed. A sufficient amount of bread should be consecrated for the communion of clergy and laity today and tomorrow, and also for viaticum. A place for the Reservation of the Sacrament should be prepared and appropriately decorated (keeping in mind the austerity proper to the season). If the Tabernacle normally used is in a chapel distinct from the main body of the church, it may be used for the Reservation and Watching.

During the Entrance Procession the priest or another minister may carry into the church the Holy Oils. At the altar the priest places the oils on a table or pedestal near the altar so that they are incensed with the altar itself. Then, after the greeting and before introducing the liturgy of the evening, the priest should say a few words about the blessing of the Oils and their significance. He then takes them to the place used for their reservation. The Mass then continues as usual, noting the following points

- a) During the Gloria the church bells are rung, subsequently falling silent until the Easter Vigil.
- b) The tradition of the Washing of the Feet after the homily is encouraged, as is an explanation of its meaning. The washing of feet is done for a select number of the faithful, showing forth the service and love of Christ, Who came not to be served but to serve.
- c) The Creed is omitted.
- d) During the procession of the Gifts, it is appropriate to bring to the altar alms collected during Lent for the poor.
- e) Pf of the Holy Eucharist I. Not EP IV. Where EP I is used, note Proper Communicantes and Hanc igitur, and special form of the Words of Institution to be found in the Missal.
- f) Procession to place of Repose. The Sacrament is reserved in a closed Tabernacle, never exposed in a Monstrance. The faithful are encouraged to continue Watching for a suitable period of time during the night, but there must be no Solemn Watching after midnight. The procession and repossession should only take places in churches where it is intended to celebrate the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.
- g) After Mass the altar is stripped without ceremony, and crosses are removed from the Church or, if immovable, veiled.
- h) Office of Readings for Good Friday, with the Vigil may be celebrated during the time of Adoration. (cf GILH 71& 73)

VESPERS is omitted by those at the Evening Mass.

Friday

GOOD FRIDAY

(red for LH and for Passion Liturgy)

15

- 1] Following ancient tradition the Church does not celebrate the Eucharist on this day. Holy Communion may be given to the faithful only during the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord, but to the sick and housebound, who cannot take part in this celebration, at any time of the day.
- 2] The celebration of the Sacraments, with the exception of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, is forbidden on this day. Funeral liturgies, but not Mass, may be celebrated, though with no singing or ringing of bells.
- 3] It is desirable that MORNING PRAYER should be celebrated with the people. Where the Vigil has not been celebrated before midnight the Office of Readings is, if possible, to be celebrated united with Morning Prayer.

SOLEMN LITURGY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Unless pastoral reasons suggest otherwise, this should be celebrated at around 3.00pm. However, it may not take place before noon, nor after 9.00pm. From the start of the liturgy clergy wear red Mass vestments. The altar should be bare – no cloths, cross or candlesticks.

Narrative of the Passion – see notes for Palm Sunday.

From the uncovering of the Cross today until the start of the Easter Vigil, all genuflect to the Cross. At the end of the Liturgy the ministers genuflect to the Cross and all depart in silence.

It is fitting to prepare a place suitable for prayer and meditation – perhaps the place used for Reposition the previous evening – and that the Cross be placed there to be adored by the faithful. Of great significance are other devotional exercises that are of pastoral importance, such as the Stations of the Cross, processions of the Lord's Passion, the commemoration of the Sorrows of Our Lady etc.

COLLECTION for the Holy Land Shrines.

VESPERS is omitted by those participating in this Liturgy.

*Fr Donald Heptonstall 1954 (Hunstanton)

After nightfall on Friday the VIGIL OFFICE of Holy Saturday may be celebrated.

Saturday

HOLY SATURDAY

16

On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb, meditating upon His Passion, death and descent into hell, awaiting in prayer and fasting His Resurrection.

No Mass may be celebrated until the Easter Vigil. The Celebration of Matrimony and the other Sacraments, except for Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, is forbidden on this day. Holy Communion may only be given as Viatikum.

LITURGY OF THE HOURS

If the Vigil has not been celebrated on Friday night, the OFFICE OF READINGS is, if possible, to be celebrated publicly united with MORNING PRAYER, with the people taking part. (GILH 210) If this is not possible, there should be a celebration of the Word of God, or some devotional exercise appropriate to today's mystery, especially one that honours the Blessed Virgin Mary for her sharing in the Passion of her Son.

An image of Christ entombed may be set up in the church for the veneration of the faithful, or a portrayal of His descent into hell, or else an image of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Compline is omitted by those participating in the Easter Vigil

The Vigil may not commence before nightfall, and must be completed by dawn. It should be celebrated in accordance with the 2010 edition of the Roman Missal, and where there is a celebration of Baptism, Confirmation or Reception into full Communion refer to RCIA pp.117-144 & 238-257

The fifty days from Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection until Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one single feast day, a 'Great Sunday.' It is on these days in particular that the Alleluia is sung.

EASTER VIGIL OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION –

(GNLY22

Solemnity, with Octave

- 1] By ancient tradition this night is dedicated to the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, commemorating that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the 'Mother of all holy vigils.' For in this night the Church awaits in vigil the Resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates it with the Sacraments of Christian Initiation. Our expectation of the Lord's coming has always been an important part of our tradition, and this night we wait in hope and expectation.
- 2] The whole celebration of the Vigil should take place by night, in such a way that it does not begin before the onset of night, and concludes by first light on Sunday. It should not simply be celebrated at the usual time of the Sunday Vigil Mass.
- 3] The Easter Vigil may take place even in churches where the Triduum has not been celebrated. Wherever there is a fixed baptismal font in a church it must, however, take place there.
- 4] The Vigil should be so arranged that after the brief lucernarium (the first part of the Vigil) the Church meditates on the marvels the Lord God has wrought for His people from the very beginning, and strengthens by His Word and His Promise (the Liturgy of the Word, the second part) until the moment when with the approaching Day of Resurrection, together with her new members reborn in baptism (third part) she is called to the table which the Lord spread out for His people by means of His Death and Resurrection (fourth part). The whole Vigil proceeds by means of symbols and rites which call for a certain grandeur and dignity, in order that the faithful may grasp their meaning, prompted even by the words of the commentaries, invitations and prayers. It is fitting in particular that the faithful be introduced by means of a Brief introduction to the understanding of the typological meaning of the OT readings proclaimed during the Vigil.
- 5] So far as possible a large fire should be prepared outside the church, such that its flames may scatter the darkness and light up the night.
- 6] The Paschal Candle should be made of wax, of one piece, and should be renewed each year.
- 7] Where necessary the Exsultet may be sung even by a cantor who is not a deacon, though he does not ask the celebrant for a blessing, nor does he include the invitations and greetings, such as 'The Lord be with you.'
- 8] At least three of the OT Readings are to be proclaimed (even in urgent circumstances, at least two). The Reading from the Book of Exodus is never omitted, nor its Psalm. Other Psalms may be omitted, if not sung.
- 9] At the proclamation of the Gospel incense may be used, but lights are not carried.
- 10] The Baptismal Liturgy of the Vigil is most complete where there are Baptisms to take place. Even if there are no Baptisms the baptismal water should be blessed in parish churches. Where there is neither Baptism nor blessing of the font, the Sacrament of Baptism should be recalled by the blessing of holy water, with which the faithful can be sprinkled, having renewed their baptismal promises.

 Followed by the greeting.

So Eastertide ends

The Paschal Candle is placed in the baptistery so candles of the newly-baptised may be lit from it. Where the font is near the altar, the Paschal Candle should be kept in the sacristy and brought out on each occasion for Baptism, lest the paschal nature of the candle be lost by over-exposure.

We are a community of faith gathered together in worship across our diocese. Everyone is invited to remember in prayer the rest of our diocesan family throughout the weeks of Ordinary Time each year. We do this to support each other in our mission and witness and to strengthen our sense of belonging to each other in the Church of Northampton.

1. Patronal Festivals of Parishes – these are recorded in the Ordo. It would be good to include them in the Intercessions on the previous Sunday. A form like this may be useful:

*Let us pray for the clergy, (religious) and people of St N's parish in _____.
May God bless them as they celebrate their patronal feast.*

2. Diocesan Cycle of Prayer –intentions for the diocesan agencies and the parishes are recorded for each week of Ordinary Time. They could be printed in the newsletter, announced at daily mass or liturgy, included in intercessions. They could all be used each day, or one intention for two days, or in any way spread across the week. A form like this may be useful:

*Today/this week we remember the work of/the clergy and people of _____.
May they be strengthened as they work to build up the Church in our diocese.*
