FOREWORD

There has been a great deal to celebrate from our mission in 2022. In society, life has crept back to normal; work, family, holidays, school. Much of this has brought joy to our lives following the restrictions of previous years. Of course, alongside this joy is some anxiety, nervousness and stress which a lack of stability or certainty can often bring. Our mission this year has been to reach out to those who are suffering or in need with the love that only Christ Jesus can bring.

You will notice in these pages that a great deal has changed. As we plan for the future we recognise the challenges ahead; a drop in numbers of those attending Mass, lower number of priests and tighter financial restraints. All these lead to a need for us to be active as the living stones of our Church.

I have been heartened as I listen to stories of people returning to Church after many years away and those who have never thought of the love of God, asking thought provoking questions as they genuinely seek solace in His loving embrace. The ministry of Caritas Northampton and Mission Northampton has reached many people outside of our own walls and invited them into a loving relationship with Jesus Christ. I know many parishes have organised foodbanks, warm places for the elderly and supported evangelistic projects.

This year we have lost some faithful disciples as they have been called back to the Father in Heaven; Fr Patrick Bailey, Fr Edmund Worthy, Fr Bernard Hughes, Fr Brian Leatherland, Fr John Fowler, Fr Ken Payne and Mgr Tony McDermott. The town of Corby mourned the loss of Sr Stephanie Davidson who had been in the north of our diocese since 1986. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

Gracious listening has been a theme of our year. As I have said it has been an important aspect of my own ministry as I walk alongside each person in our diocese. It has been important for us a diocesan family. Living as a synodal family, growing together as we listen to the Holy Spirit guiding our way. As we move into the next phase of our diocesan synodal pathway we pray that through prayer and discernment, each of us will be open to the will of our Father.

As we enter 2023, my prayer is that we will continue to grow in the love of the Holy Spirit, listening to each other and discerning with the Spirit as we walk together as the Body of Christ.

Every week, in parishes throughout the UK, people are reading one of our weekly sheets. Some of these have been published for over thirty years, and we're very proud that Catholics and other Christians find they are a very easy way to make a meaningful connection with the Lord.

Many parishes buy them and print their own local news on the reverse, so you have information and inspiration in your hand, every week.

THE DIOCESE - A BREIF HISTORY

The Catholic Faith first came to Britain in Roman times. St Alban, our first martyr, probably suffered in the year A.D. 209. Three bishops from Britain attended the Council at Arles in A.D. 314. In 597 St Augustine came from Rome to convert the pagan Angles, Saxons and Jutes who had invaded and settled in Britain after the departure of the Romans. His work of conversion was concentrated largely in the kingdoms of Kent and Essex. It was not until some thirty-eight years later that the area covered by our present diocese received the Christian message, with the arrival of the missionary St Birinus and the foundation of his see at Dorchester on Thames in 636. But the real evangelization of the people who dwelt in our district, the Middle Angles, was achieved through the labours of missionaries from the isle of Lindisfarne, off the Northumbrian coast. Notable among them was St Chad, whose see, established at Lichfield in 669, included the present diocese of Northampton.

A few years later, to meet local needs, Archbishop Theodore of Canterbury divided the Mercian see of Lichfield and founded the diocese of Leicester for the Middle Angles. There it remained until the ninth century when the disruption of the Scandinavian invasions necessitated its transference to the safer original site at Dorchester on Thames. With a major reorganisation of the diocesan system in the Norman period, the ancient see of Dorchester was brought to an end. In 1072, Remigius, its last bishop, was translated to Lincoln, in which jurisdiction the territory of the present diocese remained for many centuries.

From the time of the Reformation until 1850, Catholic Dioceses ceased to exist in Britain. As a result of heroic sacrifice by clergy and laity alike the Faith remained alive and from 1685 to 1850 was governed by Vicars Apostolic, who reported to the Cardinal Prefect of the Roman Congregation of Propaganda Fidei.

On 29 September 1850 by Letters Apostolic, issued by Pope Pius IX, the English Hierarchy was restored, and the diocese of Northampton came into being.

On 13 March 1976, by the decree Quod Ecumenicum, Pope Paul VI formed the diocese of East Anglia for the Counties of Cambridge, Norfolk and Suffolk. The territory left to the diocese of Northampton covers Bedfordshire, the old county of Buckinghamshire including the Slough area, and Northamptonshire.

Good health and safety practice is the responsibility of us all.

The Health and Safety Policy and Manual issued by the Diocese has been approved by the Diocesan Trustees. It has been created in line with current legislation and regulations, guidance from the Diocesan subcommittee and advice from external experts. At parish level the priest holds responsibility for Health and Safety, but in many cases will call upon the assistance of volunteer(s) to help achieve practical implementation.

The Diocesan Health and Safety Consultants are Mentor Services and they can be contacted on 0800 634 7000. Our client number is 56690 (this number would need to be quoted in any enquiry)

ORDINATIONS

Deacon Liam Castle was ordained priest on 25th March 2022, the solemnity of the Annunciation, at Northampton Cathedral. Deacon Liam was ordained on a sunny day by Bishop David Oakley and in the presence of emeritus bishop of Northampton Peter Doyle. Bishop David announced that Fr Liam will undertake his priestly ministry in the parish of St Martin De Porres, Luton. At the end of the ordination Bishop David and Bishop Peter led those present in an act of consecration to the immaculate heart of Mary for Russia and Ukraine.

Deacon Jithu James was ordained priest on 27th June 2022 at Northampton Cathedral. He was ordained having spent six years at St Mary's College Oscott in training. Bishop David announced that Fr Jithu's first priestly appointment would be in the parish of St Thomas Aquinas and All Sants, Bletchley.

The Shrine of the Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe

The Shrine was established on 29th September 2012 by Bishop Peter Doyle in the Church of the Holy Child and St Joseph, Bedford. The Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, one of only 220 in the world commissioned by Pope Saint John Paul II, had travelled on pilgrimage throughout England. The enthusiasm and devotion shown by the Northampton Diocese led Archbishop Vincent Nichols to ask Bishop Peter Doyle to provide a permanent home for the Relic Image.

The Archbishop requested that the Relic Image would continue to visit parish churches, cathedrals, religious institutions and Catholic schools. To that end there is an annual programme of Pilgrimage each year and a Shrine programme. Our aim is to share the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe, to promote prayer and to witness to the truth of the Gospel and the sanctity of life.

The Knights of St Columba have also partnered with the Guardians in a national agreement to offer invaluable support in assisting with pilgrims and visits all over the country.

The Shrine can be visited currently every day between 10.00am-5.00pm but please check with the website www.relicourladyofguadalupe.co.uk as the Relic Image may be away on pilgrimage. The Shrine Rector is Canon Seamus Keenan. The Shrine Coordinator, Mrs Donna Gardner, can be contacted on 07940 228227.

‘The Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be the centre from which the light of the gospel of Christ will illuminate the entire world by the means of distribution of the miraculous image of His mother.’

Pope Saint John Paul II – Guadalupe 1979

Season of Advent

During Advent and Christmastide we are asked to pray for these intentions:

MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

- especially on 3 December

THE BISHOP, CLERGY & PEOPLE OF THE DIOCESE

- especially on 8 December

EXPECTANT MOTHERS

- especially on 18 December

Advent

Advent has a twofold character: as a season to prepare for Christmas, when Christ's first coming to us is remembered; as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation.

Advent - Part 1: up to 16 December

- 1] On weekdays of Advent on which an optional memorial is observed, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the Saint whose memorial occurs.
- 2] Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it may an appropriate Mass for various needs and intentions or a votive Mass be celebrated. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.
- 3] In the weekday Office, the Invitatory Antiphon, Hymns and the Antiphon of the Middle Hour are taken from those prescribed for the Season.
- 4] The playing of the organ and other musical instruments, and the decoration of the altar with flowers should be done in a moderate manner, as is consonant with the character of the Season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord.
The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony.

Advent - Part 2: December 17-24

- 1] Weekdays take precedence over memorials of Saints.
- 2] Votive Masses and Masses for the Dead are prohibited.
- 3] Proper readings are given in the Lectionary for these days, rather than those for Advent Week 3 or 4.
- 4] In the Office the Propers are similarly followed.

Sunday 2+	PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION Pf of Palm Sunday. Not EP IV Psalter Week 2	(red)
--------------	--	-------

Before Principal Mass only: Blessing and Procession of Palms. The Palms (or other branches) are blessed and carried in procession, but should also be devoutly kept in the home so as to call to mind Christ's Victory celebrated in the procession.

For the procession a cope is to be preferred to a chasuble.

Before other well-attended Masses: Blessing of Palms and Solemn Entrance.

At other Masses: Simple Entrance.

Liturgy of the Word It is recommended that all readings for the Sunday be used. For pastoral reasons the priest may choose to read only one of the readings before the Gospel. He may, if necessary, read only the narrative of the Passion, even in its shorter form. This may be done only at Masses celebrated with a congregation.

Narrative of the Passion The Passion is narrated without candles or incense, and without the minister signing the book or greeting the people. It is narrated by deacons or, in their absence, priests. Lay readers may be used, but the part of Christ is reserved for the priest. Before the narrative only the deacons ask the priest for a blessing. After the verse telling of the Lord's death all kneel and a pause is observed. At the end, the words 'The Gospel of the Lord' are said, but the book is not kissed.

At all Masses announce:

- 1] The time of the Chrism Mass, explaining its significance and inviting those who can to attend.
- 2] Times to be announced for the Triduum Celebrations.
- 3] The Sacred Paschal Fast requires fasting and abstinence on Good Friday, and it is recommended that fasting should continue, if possible, into Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil (GNLY n.20)
- 4] Good Friday collection for the Holy Land Shrines.

Thursday 6	MAUNDY THURSDAY – during the day violet for Liturgy of the Hours, white for the Chrism Mass
---------------	---	--

No Masses without a congregation may be celebrated. No Mass other than the Chrism Mass and the Mass of the Lord's Supper may be celebrated without the Bishop's permission. Funeral Liturgies may be celebrated, but not with Mass. Holy Communion may only be received during Mass, except for the sick and the housebound.

Chrism Mass 11.00am in the Cathedral. All clergy should attend, and the faithful should be encouraged to take part.

The Season of Lent ends

When the Sacred Oils arrive in Parish Churches, they should be welcomed with due honour. The old oils should be burned or (where appropriate) poured into the Blessed Sacrament Lamp. It is recommended that the Sacred Oils should be received before the Mass of the Lord's Supper, or at another suitable moment. The faithful should, however, be instructed on the use of the Sacred Oils and their efficaciousness in Christian life.

The celebrations of the Sacred Triduum should be held only where they may be enacted with dignity and decorum. The faithful from a number of lesser parishes in the care of a single priest should, if possible, gather in the main church of an area to take part in the sacred rites. Where, however, two or more parishes are entrusted to the care of a single priest, each parish having a considerable congregation and the possibility of performing the celebrations with due dignity and solemnity, the parish priest has the faculty to repeat the celebrations of the Easter Triduum.

By the celebration of the Easter Triduum: that is, of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Spouse, the Church means to make present and to fulfil the mystery of the Passover, the passing over of the Lord from this world to the Father.

In accordance with the tradition of the early Church, the sacred Fast should be celebrated on Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and even, as suitable, extended to Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Lord's Resurrection may be arrived at with alert and open mind. (Sacrosanctum Concilium 110)

6 EVENING MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER (white)

1] The Church inaugurates the Sacred Triduum, recalling that last supper, when the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, loving those who were His own in the world right to the very end, offered His Body and Blood under the species of bread and wine to God and under these symbols, gave them to His Apostles that they might consume them, and ordered them and their successors in the priestly office to offer them.

Especially in the homily, attention at this Mass should be focussed upon the mysteries commemorated in it – the institution of the Eucharist and of the Priestly Order, together with the Lord's Commandment (mandatum, whence 'Maunder') of brotherly love

2] The Mass of the Lord's Supper is celebrated in the evening, at a convenient hour, with the full participation of the whole local community. Priests and faithful, who have already celebrated Mass or received Holy Communion in the morning may also celebrate or receive at the Evening Mass

Before the Evening Mass begins the Tabernacle should be entirely emptied and any Hosts consumed. A sufficient amount of bread should be consecrated for the communion of clergy and laity today and tomorrow, and also for viaticum. A place for the Reservation of the Sacrament should be prepared and appropriately decorated (keeping in mind the austerity proper to the season). If the Tabernacle normally used is in a chapel distinct from the main body of the church, it may be used for the Reservation and Adoration.

4] During the Entrance Procession the priest or another minister may carry into the church the Holy Oils. At the altar the priest places the oils on a table or pedestal near the altar so that they are incensed with the altar itself. Then, after the greeting and before introducing the liturgy of the evening, the priest should say a few words about the blessing of the Oils and their significance. He then takes them to the place used for their reservation. The Mass then continues as usual, noting the following points

a) During the Gloria the church bells are rung, subsequently falling silent until the Easter Vigil.

b) The tradition of the Washing of the Feet after the homily is encouraged, as is an explanation of its meaning. The washing of feet is done for a select number of the faithful, showing forth the service and love of Christ, Who came not to be served but to serve.

c) The Creed is omitted.

d) During the procession of the Gifts, it is appropriate to bring to the altar alms collected during Lent for the poor.

e) Pf of the Holy Eucharist I. Not EP IV. Where EP I is used, note Proper Communicantes and Hanc Igitur, and special form of the Words of Institution to be found in the Missal.

f) Procession to place of Repose. The Sacrament is reserved in a closed Tabernacle, never exposed in a Monstrance. The faithful are encouraged to continue Adoration for a suitable period of time during the night, but there must be no solemn adoration after midnight. The procession and reposition should only take places in churches where it is intended to celebrate the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.

g) After Mass the altar is stripped without ceremony, and crosses are removed from the Church or, if immovable, veiled.

h) Office of Readings for Good Friday, with the Vigil may be celebrated during the time of Adoration. (cf GILH 71& 73)

VESPERS is omitted by those at the Evening Mass.

GOOD FRIDAY – violet for LH, red for Passion Liturgy

The memoria of St John Baptiste de la Salle is not observed

- 1] Following ancient tradition the Church does not celebrate the Eucharist on this day. Holy Communion may be given to the faithful only during the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord, but to the sick and housebound, who cannot take part in this celebration, at any time of the day.
- 2] The celebration of the Sacraments, with the exception of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, is forbidden on this day. Funeral liturgies, but not Mass, may be celebrated, though with no singing or ringing of bells.
- 3] It is desirable that MORNING PRAYER should be celebrated with the people. Where the Vigil has not been celebrated before midnight the Office of Readings is, if possible, to be celebrated publicly before Morning Prayer.

SOLEMN LITURGY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Unless pastoral reasons suggest otherwise, this should be celebrated at around 3.00pm. However, it may not take place before noon, nor after 9.00pm. From the start of the liturgy clergy wear red Mass vestments. The altar should be bare – no cloths, cross or candlesticks.

Narrative of the Passion – see notes for Palm Sunday.

From the uncovering of the Cross today until the start of the Easter Vigil, all genuflect to the Cross. At the end of the Liturgy the ministers genuflect to the Cross and all depart in silence.

It is fitting to prepare a place suitable for prayer and meditation – perhaps the place used for Reposition the previous evening – and that the Cross be placed there to be adored by the faithful. Of great significance are other devotional exercises that are of pastoral importance, such as the Stations of the Cross, processions of the Lord's Passion, the commemoration of the Sorrows of Our Lady etc.

COLLECTION for the Holy Land Shrines.

VESPERS is omitted by those participating in this Liturgy.

After nightfall on Friday the VIGIL OFFICE of Holy Saturday may be celebrated.

Saturday
8

HOLY SATURDAY

(violet)

On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb, meditating upon His Passion, death and descent into hell, awaiting in prayer and fasting His Resurrection.

No Mass may be celebrated until the Easter Vigil. The Celebration of Matrimony and the other Sacraments, except for Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, is forbidden on this day. Holy Communion may only be given as Viaticum.

LITURGY OF THE HOURS

If the Vigil has not been celebrated on Friday night, the OFFICE OF READINGS is, if possible, to be celebrated publicly before MORNING PRAYER, with the people taking part. (GILH 210) If this is not possible, there should be a celebration of the Word of God, or some devotional exercise appropriate to today's mystery, especially one that honours the Blessed Virgin Mary for her sharing in the Passion of her Son.

An image of Christ entombed may be set up in the church for the veneration of the faithful, or a portrayal of His descent into hell, or else an image of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Compline is omitted by those participating in the Easter Vigil

The fifty days from Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection until Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one single feast day, a 'Great Sunday.' It is on these days in particular that the Alleluia is sung.

(GNLY22)

EASTER VIGIL OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION –

Solemnity, with Octave

- 1] By ancient tradition this night is dedicated to the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, commemorating that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the 'Mother of all holy vigils.' For in this night the Church awaits in vigil the Resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates it with the Sacraments of Christian Initiation. Our expectation of the Lord's coming has always been an important part of our tradition, and this night we wait in hope and expectation.
- 2] The whole celebration of the Vigil should take place by night, in such a way that it does not begin before the onset of night, and concludes by first light on Sunday. It should not simply be celebrated at the usual time of the Sunday Vigil Mass.
- 3] The Easter Vigil may take place even in churches where the Triduum has not been celebrated. Wherever there is a fixed, baptismal font in a church it must, however, take place there.
- 4] The Vigil should be so arranged that after the brief lucernarium (the first part of the Vigil) the Church meditates on the marvels the Lord God has wrought for His people from the very beginning, and strengthens by His Word and His Promise (the Liturgy of the Word, the second part) until the moment when with the approaching Day of Resurrection, together with her new members reborn in baptism (third part) she is called to the table which the Lord spread out for His people by means of His Death and Resurrection (fourth part).
The whole Vigil proceeds by means of symbols and rites which call for a certain grandeur and dignity, in order that the faithful may grasp their meaning, prompted even by the words of the commentaries, invitations and prayers. It is fitting in particular that the faithful be introduced by means of a Brief introduction to the understanding of the typological meaning of the OT readings proclaimed during the Vigil.

- 5] So far as possible a large fire should be prepared outside the church, such that its flames may scatter the darkness and light up the night.
- 6] The Paschal Candle should be made of wax, of one piece, and should be renewed each year.
- 7] Where necessary the Exsultet may be sung even by a cantor who is not a deacon, though he does not ask the celebrant for a blessing, nor does he include the invitations and greetings, such as 'The Lord be with you.'
- 8] At least three of the OT Readings are to be proclaimed (even in urgent circumstances, at least two). The Reading from the Book of Exodus is never omitted, nor its Psalm. Other Psalms may be omitted, if not sung.
- 9] At the proclamation of the Gospel incense may be used, but lights are not carried.
- 10] The Baptismal Liturgy of the Vigil is most complete where there are Baptisms to take place. Even if there are no Baptisms the baptismal water should be blessed in parish churches. Where there is neither Baptism nor blessing of the font, the Sacrament of Baptism should be recalled by the blessing of holy water, with which the faithful can be sprinkled, having renewed their baptismal promises.

The Liturgy begins 'In the Name of the Father....' Followed by the greeting.

So Eastertide ends

The Paschal Candle is placed in the baptistery so candles of the newly-baptised may be lit from it. Where the font is near the altar, the Paschal Candle should be kept in the sacristy and brought out on each occasion for Baptism, lest the paschal nature of the candle be lost by over-exposure.

DIOCESE OF NORTHAMPTON - CALENDAR OF PRAYER 2023

As a community of faith we gather together in worship across our diocese. Everyone is invited to pray for the rest of our diocesan family throughout the weeks of Ordinary Time each year. We do this to support each other in our mission and witness and to strengthen our sense of belonging to each other in the Diocese.

1. Patronal Festivals and the Dedication dates of Parishes – these are noted in the Ordo. It would be good to include them in the Intercessions on the previous Sunday. A form like this may be useful:

Let us pray for the clergy, (religious) and people of St N's parish in _____. May God bless them as they celebrate their patronal feast/the feast of the dedication.

2. Diocesan Cycle of Prayer –intentions for the diocesan agencies and parishes are noted for each week of Ordinary Time. They could be printed in the newsletter, announced at daily mass or liturgy, included in intercessions. They could all be used each day, or one intention for two days, or in any way spread across the week. A form like this may be useful:

*Today/this week we remember the work of/the clergy and people of _____.
May they be strengthened as they work to build up the Church in our diocese.*

Thornton College, Thornton, Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire, MK17 OHJ

Thornton College exists to provide quality education. Registered charity no. 247358

This is Dristy, 12, with her mother, Rupali, in southern Bangladesh. Dristy loves gardening and growing fruits and vegetables.

Rupali learnt eco-friendly farming skills with help from CAFOD's local experts, and Dristy learnt by watching her.

Dristy is now passing these techniques on to her friends, who have now begun gardens of their own.

"What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?"

Pope Francis, Laudato Si (#160)

FAMILY FAST DAYS

LENT: FRIDAY 3 MARCH 2023

HARVEST: FRIDAY 6 OCTOBER 2023

CAFOD is the overseas aid agency for the Catholic Church in England and Wales. We help people to live with dignity, support their families and flourish. Through our Church network we reach people and places others can't, helping those who need help most. We believe everyone must have the opportunity to thrive.
