CELEBRATING THE 175TH ANNIVERSARY of the DIOCESE

Homily by Mgr Sean Healy Given at Northampton Cathedral 29th September 2025

Some of the older clergy here today will remember that in times past when we visited Bishop's House and were taken up to the first floor to go into the Bishop's Chapel, at the top of the stairs was a large map of the original Diocese of Northampton, created as we're celebrating today, on the 29th of September, 1850, exactly 175 years ago.

And that large map showed the seven counties that comprise the diocese at its inception. And it was peppered with crosses, sometimes just thumbtacks, that denoted the parishes and mass centres that grew in the diocese as it developed and matured. I was always reassured that those recent bishops who've lived in Bishop's House, as they went to the chapel to pray, were reminded of the many priests, deacons, religious and laity that populated those places. Reminded, and I also hope that they prayed for those people.

I don't know exactly when the map was placed in Bishop's House, but I think it was taken down around the year 2005, 20 years or so ago. By then it was looking a little worse for wear. Some of the Mass centres had already closed, new developments hadn't been registered. And I don't even think the map reflected the fact that in 1976 the diocese was split into two with the creation of the Diocese of East Anglia.

Time, of course, moves on, and maps and geography alone can never reflect the true story of a diocese. That story is told through its people, its desire to proclaim the message of Christ and to be faithful to the rhythms of our Catholic way of life.

Today's Feast of the Archangels Michael, Raphael and Gabriel also give us pointers as to how we can reflect on that story. And they also give us encouragement as we grasp the new opportunities that are given to us as God's people in our world today.

Scripture and tradition tells us that the angel is a creature who stands before God, one whose whole being is orientated towards God. And Jesus tells Nathanael and us in the Gospel today that the angels are always ascending and descending. All three names end with the word El, which means God. So Michael is like God. Gabriel is the strength of God, especially through proclamation, and Raphael is the healing of God.

How much must those chosen to be bishops of Northampton relied on those qualities of the archangels? When Bishop Waring became the first bishop of Northampton in 1850 he looked out over those seven counties that could muster just 10,000 Catholics, he had 30 priests and just one convent. And he and those who followed him knew that only with the strength of God that the Archangel Gabriel stands for. Could they begin to lay the foundations of today's thriving diocese, slowly building parishes and schools that would proclaim and live the Catholic faith. And of course, things move on. A few years ago, we established Mission Northampton. And that reminds us of how in our present day, so many people have turned away from the church. The things of faith are pushed to the periphery. Ours is a time of new evangelization and Mission Northampton is for us a focus for those attempts to become a more missionary diocese.

The healing of God reflected in the Archangel Gabriel, that also was needed even from its beginnings. The restoration of the hierarchy, strange as it may seem, produced social unrest. Government leaders and ordinary people somehow felt threatened by the presence of Catholic bishops and new dioceses created in these countries. Only with patience and example could these fears be overcome. I think today particularly of Provost John Priestley Wormoll. He is sometimes called the Apostle of Bedford.

He was sent in the 1860s to become the first parish priest in Bedford. And Bedford at that time was a very non conformist town. And when he went to the town, he met with hostility and open opposition. But when he died some 20 years later, dignitaries and clergy of other traditions attended his funeral. And when eventually they found their way up to the cemetery, 3,000 people gathered there to see this man buried. His ministry of compassion and love to all had changed attitudes and begun to heal old wounds. And that healing, too, has many other directions. Think of the ways how in recent decades we've grown much closer to our brothers and sisters in other Christian denominations.

Ecumenism is also a way of healing. It's a way of tearing down some of those things that separate us, finding the things that fix us together and living those things as together we proclaim our faith in Christ. And just outside the cathedral, of course, is the healing garden. Just this morning, I noticed one or two people coming quietly to pray in that garden. A place where those who've been hurt or let down by the church can feel wholeness and find peace of mind.

And Michael, the likeness of God reflecting God's love and compassion towards all. That surely has been one of the hallmarks of the life of our diocese over these last 175 years. We think of the witness of someone like Caroline Chisholm. Born at the beginning of the 19th century at Wootton, just outside Northampton, she was a convert to Catholicism who devoted so much of her energies to helping destitute immigrant families in Australia. Before her body, before her burial, her body lay here in this cathedral.

And over its long history, of course, the diocese has welcomed People from diverse backgrounds from every part of the world, initially from Ireland and Europe and now from Africa, from many regions of India, from the Philippines and Vietnam, and indeed from all over the world. We hope and pray that our love and welcome make them feel part of the rich history of the Diocese of Northampton. And again in recent years, we've seen established Caritas Northampton, a focus for all that charitable work which takes place up and down and across the diocese. Just at the end of this week, we're celebrating CAFOD Family Fast Day. In every parish, there will be a collection to support the work of CAFOD, who work in our name to help those who are so disadvantaged, the underprivileged across the world. And we can also remember that CAFOD was begun through the work of one of our own bishops, Bishop Charles Grant, one of those leading figures as CAFOD was established so yes, today, we give thanks for the 175 years of our Diocese of Northampton. So much has changed and moved on and developed. But we look to the future with hope and confidence, playing our part in building God's kingdom here, in being his people.

Today we ask for the intercession of our diocesan patrons, Mary Immaculate and Thomas Becket, that we will be guided and strengthened by the Lord and always ready to respond to the promptings that come our way. And may the archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael teach us to live in the strength of God, to be bearers of his healing and reflect in word and deed his love and compassion.

THE DIOCESE – A BRIEF HISTORY

The Catholic Faith first came to Britain in Roman times. St Alban, our first martyr, probably suffered in the year A.D. 209. Three bishops from Britain attended the Council at Arles in 314. In 597 St Augustine was sent by pope St Gregory the Great to help in the evangelisation of Britain after the pagan Angles, Saxons and Jutes had invaded and settled in Britain following the fall of the Western Roman Empire in 476. His work of conversion was concentrated largely in the kingdoms of Kent and Essex. It was not until some thirty-eight years later that the area covered by our present diocese received the Christian message, with the arrival of the missionary St Birinus and the foundation of his see at Dorchester on Thames in 636. But the real evangelization of the people who dwelt in our district, the Middle Angles, was achieved through the labours of missionaries from the isle of Lindisfarne, off the Northumbrian coast.

Notable among them was St Chad, whose see, established at Lichfield in 669, included the present diocese of Northampton.

A few years later, to meet local needs, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Saint Theodore of Tarsus divided the Mercian see of Lichfield and founded the diocese of Leicester for the Middle Angles. There it remained until the ninth century when the disruption of the Scandinavian invasions necessitated its transference to the safer original site at Dorchester on Thames. One of the first bishops of the diocese of Leicester and major contributor to the Synod of Whitby (664), St Wilfrid must have preached in the northern parts of the diocese, as he eventually died in Oundle in 709, while he was visiting the monks at the monastery, he had founded there.

With a major reorganisation of the diocesan system in the Norman period, the ancient see of Dorchester was brought to an end. In 1072, Remigius, its last bishop, was translated to Lincoln, in which jurisdiction the territory of the present diocese remained for many centuries.

The great Franciscan philosopher and theologian, Blessed John Duns Scotus, received his priestly ordination in the town of Northampton at the Cluniac Priory of St Andrew on 17th March 1291.

From the time of the Reformation until 1850, Catholic dioceses ceased to exist in Britain. As a result of heroic sacrifice by clergy and laity alike the Faith remained alive and from 1623 to 1850 was governed by Vicars Apostolic, who reported to the Cardinal Prefect of the Roman Congregation of Propaganda Fidei. On 23rd March 1623, with the Apostolic Letter Ecclesia Romana, Pope Gregory XV established the Apostolic Vicariate of England with the appointment of Fr William Bishop as its first Vicar Apostolic. Bishop received his episcopal consecration in Paris on 4th June 1623 and landed at Dover on 31st July 1623. In just over eight months, as he died the following April, Bishop organised the 'Old Chapter', a non-canonical chapter formed by twenty-four members with Fr John Colleton as dean. This Chapter would cease to exist with the advent of the re-inauguration of the hierarchy in 1850. After Bishop's death the Chapter sent a list of candidates for his succession to the Vatican. The first name on that list was chosen, it was that of Fr Richard Smith, a Lincolnshire convert who studied first at the English College in Rome under St Robert Bellarmine, and then in Valladolid, Spain. He was appointed Vicar Apostolic on 29th November 1624 and was consecrated Titular Bishop of Chalcedon, in January 1625. He arrived in England in April 1625, and shortly lived in Turvey, Bedfordshire, at the house of Lord Montagu. Smith was very unpopular with the recusant gentry especially for the restrictions he had forced upon the ministry of regular clergy in England, to the point that the Pope Urban VIII had to remind him that he was appointed as Bishop of Chalcedon not as Bishop of England.

In August 1631, while Smith lived in London two warrants were issued for his arrest. The warrants and the troubles caused among the Catholics in England led him to leave for France and tender his resignations, which were quickly accepted.

The Old Chapter lead the Catholics in England for the next 54 years, when the next Vicar Apostolic would be appointed by the Holy See in 1685.

With the beginning of the reign of King James II, Catholics lived a more favourable time in England and Pope Innocent XI profited at once by the circumstance. Fr John Leyburn, a former president of the English College in Douai, was chosen as the new Vicar Apostolic. On 6th August 1685, the Propaganda Fide elected Leyburn Vicar Apostolic of all England, and the pope gave his approval the same day. He was consecrated in Rome on 9th September, with the title of Bishop of Adramyttium. In October he arrived in London, and lodged in St. James's Palace, as per request of King James II. Leyburn was also given a pension of £1,000 a year by the king.

On 30th January 1688, by the apostolic letter Super Cathedram, Pope Innocent XI divided England into four apostolic vicariates called districts: the London, the Midland, the Northern, and the Western. Leyburn was named Vicar Apostolic of the London District, the senior position. So the number of bishops in England went from one to four.

The land of the modern diocese of Northampton was within the Midland District which consisted of the historic counties of Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, Derbyshire, Huntingdonshire, Leicestershire, Lincolnshire, Norfolk, Northamptonshire, Nottinghamshire, Oxfordshire, Rutland, Shropshire, Staffordshire, Suffolk, Warwickshire, and Worcestershire.

The Vicars Apostolic of the Midland District were: Bonaventure Giffard (1688-1702), George Witham (1702-1716), John Talbot Stonor (1716-1756), John Joseph Hornyold (1756-1778), Thomas Joseph Talbot (1778-1795), Charles Berington (1795-1798), Gregory Stapleton (1800-1802), John Milner (1803-1826), Thomas Walsh (1826-1840).

On 3rd July 1840, Gregory XVI, in his apostolic letter Muneris Apostolici, considering the increase of the Catholic population in England, doubled the number of districts and the Midland district was split into two: the Central district and the Eastern district. Bishop William Wearing was appointed as Vicar Apostolic of the newly established Eastern District, which covered the nine counties of Lincolnshire, Rutland, Huntingdonshire, Northamptonshire, Cambridgeshire, Norfolk, Suffolk, Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire. He selected Northampton as the seat of the Vicar Apostolic.

On 29th September 1850 with the papal bull Universalis Ecclesiae, pope Blessed Pius IX restored the English Hierarchy, and the diocese of Northampton was created. The other newly created dioceses were: the metropolitan archdiocese of Westminster, the diocese of Southwark, the diocese of Hexham, the diocese of Beverley, the diocese of Liverpool, the diocese of Salford, the dioceses of Menevia and Newport, the diocese of Shrewsbury, the diocese of Clifton, the diocese of Plymouth, the diocese of Nottingham and the diocese of Birmingham.

On 13th March 1976, by the decree Quod Ecumenicum, pope St Paul VI formed the diocese of East Anglia for the Counties of Cambridge, Norfolk and Suffolk. The territory left to the diocese of Northampton covers Bedfordshire, the old county of Buckinghamshire including the Slough area, and Northamptonshire.

“Today, one thing ends, and another begins. A new stage of this journey is beginning. A stage marked by communion between all the members of the charismatic family, in which the mighty presence of the Holy Spirit is manifested for the good of the entire Church.” These are the words of Pope Francis spoken in June 2019 when he instructed the Dicastery for the Laity, Family and Life to erect CHARIS, the new and only international service with a public juridical personality to serve the entire Catholic Charismatic Renewal (CCR) in the church. The Northampton CDSC team was commissioned by Bishop David Oakley on 18th March 2023 to serve the church in Northampton. Its main purposes are to share the grace of baptism in the Holy Spirit within the church, to build unity with other Christians to promote concern for the poor and to support and to promote and encourage all expressions of CCR. ## The Shrine of the Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe

The Shrine was established on 29th September 2012 by Bishop Peter Doyle in the Church of the Holy Child and St Joseph, Bedford. The Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, one of only 220 in the world commissioned by Pope Saint John Paul II, had travelled on pilgrimage throughout England. The enthusiasm and devotion shown by the Northampton Diocese led Archbishop Vincent Nichols to ask Bishop Peter Doyle to provide a permanent home for the Relic Image.

The Archbishop requested that the Relic Image would continue to visit parish churches, cathedrals, religious institutions and Catholic schools. To that end there is an annual programme of Pilgrimage each year and a Shrine programme. Our aim is to share the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe, to promote prayer and to witness to the truth of the Gospel and the sanctity of life.

The Knights of St Columba have also partnered with the Guardians in a national agreement to offer invaluable support in assisting with pilgrims and visits all over the country.

The Shrine can be visited currently every day between 9am to 6pm (may vary in winter) but please check with the website www.relicourladyofguadalupe.co.uk as the Relic Image may be away on pilgrimage.

The Shrine Rector is Canon Seamus Keenan.

The Shrine Coordinator, Mrs Donna Gardner, can be contacted on 07940 228227

for the celebration of the Liturgy in the Churches and Chapels of the diocese.

Issued by authority of the Bishop
2025/2026

DIOCESE OF NORTHAMPTON

LITURGICAL ORDO

Prayer Cycle

Included in the Ordo is the national Cycle of Prayer from the Bishops' Conference, and also a Diocesan Cycle which seeks to help us to fulfil the wish of Bishop David that we pray for each other regularly.

Each parish is listed on its Patronal Solemnity and also on the anniversary of its dedication/blessing, and we are asked to pray for those parishes, clergy and people on that day.

Specific ministries and actions of the Diocese have a day on which prayer is asked for them.

The Diocesan Cycle of Prayer is incorporated into the Ordo, and it is hoped that this will encourage its use and help to build up the diocese in prayer.

There may be errors and omissions, and the Liturgy Commission would be happy to be told.

PRAYER INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER

ENTRUSTED TO HIS WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK FOR THE YEAR 2026

JANUARY - For prayer with the Word of God.

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

FEBRUARY - For children with incurable diseases.

Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

MARCH - For disarmament and peace.

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

APRIL - For priests in crisis.

Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

MAY - That everyone might have food.

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

JUNE - For the values of sports.

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.

JULY - For respect for human life.

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

AUGUST - For evangelization in the city.

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

SEPTEMBER - For the care of water.

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

OCTOBER - For mental health ministry.

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

NOVEMBER - For the proper use of wealth.

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

DECEMBER - For single-parent families.

Let us pray for families experiencing the absence of a mother or father, that they may find support and accompaniment in the Church, and help and strength in the Faith during difficult times.
