BISHOP'S FOREWORD

This year the Diocese reaches the 175th year of its life and mission. The founding generation of the Diocese back in 1850, amounted to little more than 1 bishop, 26 priests and scattered communities of the faithful, amounting to a mere handful of people. They could scarcely have pictured the growth and development of the Diocese into the 21st Century recorded in these pages.

Yet, the founding generation would certainly recognise the same Faith and the same Sacraments, above all, the one Eucharist, Sacrifice and Sacrament, on which all has been built across these 175 years. And all in communion with the Successor of Saint Peter, from Pope Pius IX of blessed memory to our Holy Father Pope Leo XIV, whose election to the Chair of Saint Peter, the cover of this Yearbook celebrates.

Our Cathedral of Shrewsbury which many have known the joy of visiting during the Jubilee Year, celebrates 170 years since its doors first opened in the Autumn of 1856. All the history of our Diocese has passed in some way through those doors. It is wonderful to see so much of its beauty renewed as a place of prayer and pilgrimage where the Sacraments of Penance and the Eucharist are daily frequented. We give thanks to God for "the little flock" in Shrewsbury who together with the generosity of the Earl of Shrewsbury and a recent convert, Charles Cholmondeley, made the building of this diminutive Mother Church of our Diocese possible.

Our Diocesan Yearbook also celebrates an anniversary of 95 years since its first publication in 1931. Its pages have faithfully recorded our Diocesan story through change and upheaval, to the continuing mission to which the pages of this 2026 Yearbook give witness. I wish to record my thanks to Mr Anthony Timothy and all who have made this publication possible. It must finally be to the Blessed Virgin Mary to whom a handful of the faithful first entrusted themselves at the beginning of the Shrewsbury Diocese, that we must turn as truly the Help of Christians in every generation.

DIOCESE OF SHREWSBURY

Main towns of the Diocese

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DIOCESE

THE 175 YEAR JOURNEY OF THE SHREWSBURY DIOCESE

At Southwark Cathedral on 27th July 1851, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman ordained James Brown as the first Bishop of Shrewsbury in the final act of the renewal of a Catholic Hierarchy in England. Bishop Ullathorne of Birmingham had warned the newly appointed bishop of the urgency of receiving episcopal ordination because anti-Catholic feeling was rising in the country. Less than a year later, James Brown sat with all the bishops in the Chapel of Saint Mary's College in Birmingham, to hear Saint John Henry Newman deliver one of the most celebrated sermons in the English language. A sermon which evoked the context in which the Shrewsbury Diocese began 175 years ago this summer. Newman declared this to be part of the "Second Spring" of the Catholic Church in England.

To this day we see around us the beautiful remnants of the 'first spring' of Catholic England which stood for a thousand years. Newman reminded the assembled bishops that just three centuries before, "The Catholic Church, that great creation of God's power; stood in this land in pride of place. It had the honours of near a thousand years upon it; it was enthroned in some twenty sees up and down the broad country... and was ennobled by a host of Saints and Martyrs." This flowering of holiness was represented in the shrines of so many Saints across the English landscape which expressed the bond of communion between the Church in Heaven and on earth.

When what suddenly broke like a violent storm on the Church in this land, all seemed lost as Newman poignantly described as: "priests cast out and martyred ... sacrileges innumerable ... temples profaned or destroyed ... the presence of Catholicism simply removed – its grace disowned ..." the Church in England died, yet Newman confidently declared, "the Church lives again." For he insisted we could never suppose that "the blood of the martyrs, three centuries ago and since, shall never receive recompense ... Was not every tear that flowed and every drop of blood that was shed, the seeds of a future harvest, when they who sowed in sorrow were to reap in joy."

Yet, when our first bishop surveyed this new Diocese of Shrewsbury, he saw a desolate scene which he graphically described in a Pastoral Letter, where the Mass heroically continued but for "want of means ... the Holy Sacrifice is offered in a room of a public tavern ... in a loft over a stable ... over a blacksmith's shop." The enormity of the achievement by 26 diocesan priests and the people they served in scattered communities across Shropshire, Cheshire and the six counties of Northern Wales, saw the foundation of all we know as the Shrewsbury Diocese today.

Twelve months into the journey of this Diocese, Saint John Henry Newman had expressed supernatural confidence in a situation which seemed humanly unpromising. "Canterbury has gone its way" he declared, "York is gone, and Winchester is gone ..." yet "Westminster and Nottingham ... Northampton and Shrewsbury, if the world lasts, shall be names as musical to the ear, as stirring to the heart, as the glories we have lost ... and Saints shall arise out of them."

Newman's vision inspired these pioneering years with the ultimate goal of holiness. The unfolding chapters of our story would see the struggle to build the foundations of a new diocese and then a continuous expansion into 20th Century alongside the growth of industrial towns and new housing estates. A highpoint was witnessed in Bishop John Murphy's ambitious building programmes of new churches and schools following the Second World War. At the beginning of Bishop Eric Graser's episcopate, the Diocese had reached a statistical highpoint in the number of faithful attending Mass and in responding to the great Christian vocations of ordination, marriage, and the consecrated life. Yet, these same years marked the beginning of a steady decline which continued into the late 20th Century.

As the 21st Century dawned, Pope Saint John Paul II challenged us to embark on nothing less than a New Evangelisation as the Diocese prepared for the rationalisation of the number of churches and parishes. Bishop Brian Noble would see the beginning of a remarkable development in the arrival of new Catholics from Asia, Africa and from Central and Eastern Europe, together with the faithful witness of priests who came from overseas to serve the changing communities of the Diocese. A development not foreseen in Newman's 1852 Sermon, yet this would form part of our providential springtime.

As the eleventh bishop, following a long line of dedicated labourers in the vineyard of the Diocese, I was conscious of the need for an increase of faith and faithfulness in a society which variously manifests indifference, hostility and frequently falls prey to increasingly insidious ideologies. At this challenging moment we have need to deepen our interior lives and our sense of mission to win souls for Christ. In this I was guided by the words Jesus Himself spoke on the night He instituted the Holy Eucharist: "Without me you can do nothing"<sup>1</sup> Indeed, in my first words as bishop I turned to Saint John Henry Newman's Sermon, like many of my predecessors, echoing his words, "One thing I know that according to our need, so will be our strength." In this supernatural trust, we now seek to build on the foundation already set in place, Christ Himself present with us always in the Mystery of the Eucharist.

As we come to the 175th year as a Diocese, we can give thanks for the faithful witness of many who have gone before us, a witness which remains visible in our churches, schools, and institutions. Let us never forget the love and sacrifices with which they were built. In 2026, we can see week after week in our parishes and schools; in the candidates coming forward for Confirmation; in the young adults seeking faith and Baptism and in the steady stream of new vocations to the Priesthood, the Shrewsbury Diocese as it will be at its Bi-Centenary in just 25 years. May these new generations be able to give thanks for our faithfulness.

Bishop Mark Davies

St Werburgh's Chester And The Year Of Pilgrimage

Pilgrimages come in all shapes and sizes. Medieval ones could take several months, and many people today like to spend several weeks on the Camino de Santiago through France and Spain. Our Diocese goes on pilgrimage to Lourdes for the best part of a week every year. But here in our Parish, we have had wonderful one and two day pilgrimages this year, to mark the Jubilee Year and its theme of Pilgrims of Hope and also our own 150th Anniversary of the present church. 2025 has been filled with so many activities and celebration events, and some of the highlights have been the two-day pilgrimage to Holywell and two one-day visits to our own Cathedral at Shrewsbury.

Parish Pilgrimage to Shrewsbury Cathedral

Travelling to Shrewsbury needs no planning, being under an hour by direct train. Twenty-five of us set off on both days, a stunning ride down the Welsh Marches. A leisurely stroll through the town allowed us all to appreciate what a beautiful place Shrewsbury is: past the statue of Charles Darwin outside the old Shrewsbury School, a chance to see the residence of the former Bishops at the Council House, and coffee at the old Salop Royal Infirmary.

In fifteen minutes you are at the Cathedral, situated on Belmont one of the loveliest streets in the town. A warm welcome from the team there, and Mass at 12.15, thanks to the courtesy of Fr Sean and his fellow Priests. Lunch in the Orchard Café followed and then a guided tour of the Cathedral, seeing its treasures old and new. The newest for some of us was the magnificent tiled floor, for too long concealed under carpet. A chance to venerate one of the Cathedral's relics, Stations of the Cross led by one of our Church Students, and time for the stroll back to the Station.

It was a beautiful day, and we cannot recommend a Pilgrimage to the Cathedral too highly to other Parishes.

Pilgrimage Walk to the Shrine of St Winefride in Holywell

So, how about a Parish Pilgrimage Walk to the shrine of St Winefride at Holywell?

Could we make it happen? The planning and preparation brought together a team who went on a planning journey of their own: route finding, risk assessments, insurance cover, communications, signing up of participants, preparatory walks and selection of appropriate worship. This phase, over many months, formed new friendships and gave us a fresh opportunity to offer our talents to the Parish.

The Pilgrimage itself took place on the weekend of the Feast of SS Peter & Paul, 28th & 29th June. The weather was wonderfully kind to us. On the Saturday we walked approximately thirteen miles from St Werburgh's via the canal towpath, the Millennium Greenway and the Wales Coastal Path to Flint, before taking the train back to Chester. During stops we prayed the Northumbria Community Office and used other prayers and reflections appropriate to the location and journey.

A highlight was being welcomed for our first major stop at the Church in Wales Parish of St Bartholomew's at Sealand, who specially opened their café to serve us food and coffee. We prayed together before departing with a sense of a new link forged between two worshipping Christian communities.

On the Sunday morning after an early 8.00 am Pilgrims' Mass specially for us at St Werburgh's, we took the train back to Flint to restart the walk. We covered approximately seven miles along the Coastal Path to the ruins of Basingwerke Abbey, and then the final mile to the shrine. There we were warmly welcomed, arriving just in time for devotional prayers followed by bathing. For those who have not experienced it, the waters are bracing (or perhaps icy would be a fairer description). Bus and train got us back to Chester late afternoon.

In total thirty-three people participated in the Pilgrimage, most on both days, some on just one, with two wonderful Support Pilgrims who were able to accompany us all the way providing emergency support by car and finding us to join most worship stops. There was a great balance to the group, which included an age span from school age to the over seventies, single walkers, couples and small family groups. Both days we included an extended stretch of walking in silence. Whilst the conversations on the walk were rich and allowed many of us to get to know fellow Pilgrims much better, the silence offered space to reflect and pray in a way that rarely seems available.

The Pilgrimage formed many new relationships within the Parish community and beyond (and a few blisters). It gave many of us the opportunity to escape from the daily busyness and open ourselves to God's voice in a range of environments.

We would really encourage other Parishes to consider something similar and would be delighted to share our experience, and even the route and worship materials.

News from the Cathedral

In this year of Jubilee, Pope Francis told us that, 'we are called to set out with the marvel of the shepherds in the fields of Bethlehem'. Set out with haste to rediscover the hope which comes from God; 'it is this hope' he told us, that is 'based on Christ who died and rose again, that we wish to celebrate, ponder and proclaim to the whole world in the coming Jubilee.'<sup>1</sup> His call has been heard by many of our parishes and schools from around the diocese and their response has led them to the Cathedral this year. They have been supported and welcomed by the Cathedral team and its many faithful and committed volunteers.

Alongside the practical elements of any Cathedral, we have witnessed a year of wonderful things in the mother church of our diocese, things which can only be seen through a supernatural lens which allows us to ‘marvel’ as the shepherds of Bethlehem did.

The death of Pope Francis led many people to this same marvel and wonder, as they watched the events and ceremonies unfold on television. Our eyes were then redirected to the joyful election of Pope Leo XIV. The Holy Father greeted the Church and the world with the first words of the risen Christ; ‘peace be with you!’ The same Christ who offers us hope.

170th Anniversary of Shrewsbury Cathedral

What does this mean for the Cathedral? There has been a new and fresh desire for Christ and His Church. Like many of our parishes in England, and indeed in Europe, Mass attendance has increased along with an increase of people approaching the Church to learn more about the hope and peace that Christ desires to give. The mission of the Cathedral has been placed under the protection of St Joseph, whose silent witness points once again to marvel and wonder.

The Cathedral parish joined our Greek Orthodox brothers and sisters at many of the occasions held to celebrate the 1700th anniversary of the Nicaea Council and the profession of faith which we share.

On a practical level, the Cathedral floor has been restored and the next phase of renewal is underway. Plans for this are pending the much-needed funds, which are generously gifted by donors.

As Canon Christopher Matthews noted in last year’s edition of the Yearbook, ‘the work of the Cathedral is ultimately for the greater glory of God’<sup>2</sup> and it is by offering Him the gifts He gives us that we give Him glory. In Him, Pope Francis again reminded us ‘the “holy door” of God’s heart lies open before you. Jesus, God-with-us, is born for you, for me, for us, for every man and woman. And remember that with him, joy flourishes; with him, life changes; with him, hope does not disappoint.’<sup>3</sup>

As we embark on this coming year we celebrate another anniversary; 170 years of the Cathedral here in Shrewsbury. Shrewsbury; a name which St John Henry Newman said ‘shall be as musical to the ear, as stirring to the heart, as the glories we have lost; and from where Saints shall rise’

Jubilee Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes

In this Jubilee Year of 2025, we travelled to Lourdes under the banner ‘Pilgrims of Hope with Mary’. This theme of hope was at the heart of our pilgrimage and especially the daily celebration of Mass. The Diocesan Prayer Intentions were carried with us in our hearts and minds as we asked Our Blessed Lady to intercede for us, and we prayed for those we had left at home and for their intentions.

Many more of our parishioners said ‘Yes’ to our Lady’s invitation to travel to

Shrewsbury Youth Jubilee Pilgrimage Lourdes - July 2025

Lourdes as pilgrims this year, with the pilgrimage plane selling out very quickly. With seats on another flight, a coach, the Junior Pilgrimage coach and two coaches of young people, 2025 was our biggest pilgrimage since before Covid and it was great to see. It was a particular blessing to have so many first-time pilgrims join us this year, many have already asked when they can book for next year!

It is always a wonderful thing to say yes to Our Blessed Lady's invitation and travel to Lourdes, but to do so there are a lot of people we need to thank. As always, I want to say a very public thank you to the Management Team who assist me in my role as Director, but this year I want to say a very particular thanks to Mr Phil Malone. Phil has been our Pilgrimage Administrator for many many years and what he doesn't know about hotel bookings, plane seats and meal deals is not worth knowing! Phil has stepped down as Pilgrimage Administrator and we say a huge thank you for all his hard work over many years. He assures me he will continue to be a pilgrim, so we will have the chance to say thank you properly to him in Lourdes next summer.

In 2026, we keep the 75th anniversary of our Diocesan Pilgrimage, with the first pilgrimage traveling to Lourdes in September 1951 under the leadership of Bishop John Murphy, with the first Director being Father Nixon.

In 2026 our 75th anniversary pilgrimage will take place from Friday 31 July to Thursday 6 August, with those traveling overland leaving on Thursday 30 July and returning Friday 7 August. Our Youth section will depart on Wednesday 29 July and return with the overland section on Friday 7 August. Booking forms will be available early in the new year but watch out for our 2026 Pilgrimage launch in early December.

It is Our Lady who invites us to make the pilgrimage to Lourdes and it is always a great joy to see new pilgrims who have said yes to that invitation. I hope you will be able to join us in 2026.

May My Song Arise To You: the Ongoing Joy of Singing Our Faith

As I reflect on another year of music across the diocese, it is once again clear how deeply it enriches not only our worship, but the life of our diocesan community. In this Jubilee Year, it has been a joy to see how singing continues to draw people together in faith and shared purpose. I am delighted to report that the year has brought with it a host of new opportunities and memorable moments.

We began the year at St Anthony's Church in Wythenshawe, with the visit of the relic of Blessed Carlo Acutis. It was a joy to hear the voices of children from our diocesan schools joining together to mark this special occasion. Their singing created a powerful atmosphere of reverence and hope and was a testament to the positive effect of our Singing in Schools Programme.

St Anthony's Church was once again full for the Chrism Mass, and singing was led by the Diocesan Choir that formed during last year's Singing Festival. It was wonderful to see so many familiar faces returning to sing together, bringing their experience and enthusiasm to this very important liturgical celebration.

Another significant moment was the Study Day held at the Shrine of St Joseph in Stockport, focusing on "Singing the Mass." The day was led by Fr Guy Nichols of the St John Henry Newman Institute of Liturgical Music, and under his guidance we explored the role of music within the liturgy. Fr Guy's expertise was backed up with practical experience, and we ended the day singing Mass said by Fr Sean Davidson, putting into practice everything we had learned. Thanks go to Fr Sean, and also Victoria Holmes for not only the organisation of the day, but her wonderful organ accompaniment at Mass.

Our year also featured musical performances that showcased the extraordinary talent within our community. The Cathedral Choir performed Fauré's Requiem and other sacred songs for a beautiful concert, featuring our choral directors Jon Christos and Motje Wolf along with Cathedral Choral Scholar Erin Hogan as soloists in a very moving performance.

Later in the year, the Cathedral Choir and the Children's Choir joined forces with the Yeoman Singers for a thrilling performance of Vivaldi's Gloria. This was a fitting way to close a year so full of singing and celebration.

Looking ahead, we will be blessed with two organ scholars at the Cathedral. Gene Coleman is starting his second year with us, and he will be joined by Henry Goulding who returns to us as Senior Organ Scholar, after a year away.

The Singing in Schools Programme continues to flourish, reaching thousands of children each week. Not only are they developing strong musical foundations, but also growing in faith and confidence. The engaging activities and games make learning enjoyable and accessible, and the impact is clear both in the classroom and beyond. We are extremely grateful to the National Schools Singing Programme and all the kind benefactors for making this financially viable. As always, I extend my heartfelt thanks to our team of choral directors, Jon Christos, Motje Wolf, Thea Sheppard and Jo Dennis for their dedication, expertise, and care. It is a privilege to work with such gifted and committed colleagues.

As we look towards the end of this Jubilee Year, as pilgrims of hope, I believe it is through music that we begin to see our hope for ourselves and each other made manifest, as music brings us together in harmony, in faith, and in profound joy. It is my hope that the year ahead may bring even more voices into song, as we continue to praise God with thanksgiving and devotion.

Shrewsbury Youth Mission Team

It has been another busy year for the Shrewsbury Youth Mission Team! Between parish work, schools work and Lourdes we've had an incredible year!

Our Parish work continues mainly with our Confirmation Programme as we help our young people to prepare to receive the Sacrament. It is a real privilege to accompany our young people on this journey, as we are now working with a lot of the young people in their parishes and their schools, enabling us to get to know them better.

Some of our parish work is now more of a support role, as we work with the catechists to enable them to deliver some of the sessions alongside us, or independently. Our retreat days, either in the parishes or at a retreat centre, are days of reflection and joy for all involved!

Our schools' work continues to grow, particularly as we celebrate this Jubilee Year of Hope in a special way in some of our Primary and Secondary Schools. Highlights have included working with St Anthony's School for their Mission week, themed upon Hope, and also the Wirral Schools day, with 17 Schools from the Wirral gathered together at the Floral Pavillion in New Brighton. Working alongside musician and singer Jo Boyce, the 650 Year 6 children had a memorable day reflecting upon Hope, with activities and song before Bishop Mark celebrated Mass with us. It was a truly uplifting occasion!

We continue to run our Year

Group Retreats with our Secondary Schools, and it's wonderful to have the support of the Parishes as in most cases we use the local parish halls. On these days we encourage the young people to take time to reflect on how God works in their lives in different ways and how they can use what God has given them to make the most of their lives and be a witness to others.

The youth contingent for the Lourdes Pilgrimage nearly doubled from last year's 43 to this year's 81! It was a joyful year, celebrating our theme of Pilgrims of Hope for this Jubilee Year and the young people served our assisted pilgrims with great warmth, care and big smiles. They loved meeting the pilgrims each day and hearing stories of past trips to Lourdes and the lives of our pilgrims. Despite the numbers, an immediate bond was made within the group, and they were a great witness to all in Lourdes this year, carrying out their duties and joining in the times of prayer and formation with reverence.

This year was the first year for our Junior Contingent of the pilgrimage with schools and parishes bringing along those in Years 8 – 11, taking part in the main pilgrimage Masses, services and processions alongside a programme of their own to help deepen their faith and to learn more about Lourdes. It was great to see both the Youth and Juniors working together on the last day, as the juniors shadowed the youth to meet pilgrims and get a taste of what service the youth provide in Lourdes.

We are already planning for Lourdes 2026, so if you would like more information about the Youth or Junior parts of the Pilgrimage please email youth@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

As a new academic year continues the diary is beginning to fill up, so if you would like to book a Parish or School Event or retreat, please contact us as soon as possible by emailing youth@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

Annual Report - Caritas Shrewsbury

"Your support, kind words and help have been utterly invaluable to me this year." Family support feedback

For Caritas Shrewsbury, 2024–2025 has been a year of deepening support and strengthened relationships across our Diocese. Whether through our community groups, counselling service, school partnerships or crisis support, we've continued to walk alongside children, families and individuals facing challenge and hardship with hope and dignity.

Our 'Stronger Together' peer support groups continue to grow across Wirral and Shrewsbury, supporting 103 families (339 people) through safe, welcoming spaces where laughter, friendship and support have helped tackle isolation and build mental health. In Shrewsbury, 26 people engaged in our local group, and we also supported 17 individuals through drop-ins, two parenting groups and other community support.

In Wythenshawe, our SEND Together programme has provided vital weekly and monthly groups for families of children with additional needs — supporting 38 families across the year. Parents accessed training on SEND law, first aid, and mental health; 34 families came to the monthly SEN Den, and three parents helped create six myth-busting videos for others navigating SEND systems. Our MEND Minds group supported 13 men, including physical activity sessions that helped improve confidence and wellbeing.

Our Family and School Support reached 156 children, and our team delivered practical parenting guidance to 44 parents and carers. We continued to support children experiencing anxiety, trauma and neurodiversity-related challenges — offering creative sessions and emotional support that built confidence, reduced stress and improved outcomes at home and school. Schools praised our service as essential in supporting pupils' wellbeing and communication.

Our counselling and therapy work has expanded to meet rising demand, with 184 clients supported this year and 10 student counsellors in placement. New therapeutic services such as Rewind Trauma Therapy and hypnotherapy have helped clients move forward in their healing and return to work or study with renewed strength.

Bereavement and loss support has continued to be a core part of our care. This year, 36 individuals received 1-2-1 support, and 22 took part in our Bereavement Group sessions. In addition, 20 children across six schools were helped to explore grief through dedicated sessions with our trained staff.

St Mary's Caritas Centre in Crewe is now firmly established as a vibrant hub, with over 3,100 visits across the year. More than 10 organisations use the space regularly — from dementia cafés and healthy lifestyle groups to counselling and a community choir. New initiatives launched include a community laundry, fridge and café, each supporting dignity, connection and wellbeing.

The Well Project in Manchester continues to be a beacon for refugees and people seeking asylum. Our ESOL classes supported 30 learners, and our Women's Group welcomed over 15 women into English conversation and craft sessions. At our Christmas party, 30 families came together in celebration, supported by volunteers and generous donations.

We also provided weekly support to people seeking asylum living in Manchester hotels — distributing over 90 SIM cards and weekly bus passes. Creative activities for children reached over 185 children during school holidays and a joyful Christmas celebration saw 240 toys shared with 200 children.

The Hope Foodbank supported 491 adults and 414 children with food parcels and vouchers, while also offering essential advice, debt support and referral to further Caritas groups. 1,050 hours of volunteer time helped keep this lifeline running. Special Christmas support reached 146 children with toys, and 79 families received financial help.

Through crisis grants (totalling £26,756) and appeals such as Caritas at Christmas (£17,140 raised) and the Good Shepherd Appeal (£10,206 raised), we have helped families stay warm, fed and connected during difficult times. We're especially grateful to our parishes, schools and local partners whose generosity made this possible.

As ever, our work is sustained through faithful prayer, support, and volunteering. Thank you to every donor, fundraiser and supporter who makes this mission of love in action possible.

Please do support our Caritas at Christmas campaign in parishes and schools this Advent, and the Good Shepherd appeal at Lent, so we can sustain our work with children, families and communities.

Together we can be 'Caritas' — love in action!

Two New Priests Ordained for the Diocese at Shrewsbury

The hot summer days of 2025 provided the perfect backdrop to two priestly ordinations at Shrewsbury Cathedral on consecutive Saturdays in July. On Saturday 5th Father Adam Bamber was ordained to the Priesthood, followed a week later, on Saturday 12th July by Father Joseph Fawcett Wood.

In his homily at the Ordination of Adam Bamber the Bishop took up the words of the "Hail Mary" (Lk 1:28), celebrating how Our Lady responded to the Divine call at the Annunciation, as his theme. He said "it is in our lowliness that we find what makes our vocation possible. For we no longer depend on ourselves, but on Him who has called us, echoing Mary's words: "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word".

He continued "it is the realisation of our own inadequacy that forms the first and essential prerequisite for ordination.... For we approach ordination as we must continue to live it, kneeling in prayer, prostrate on the ground asking the prayers of others, depending on no sense of entitlement, rather expecting everything from God."

He concluded "...today and every day of your Priesthood remember it is from here you must always begin and finish: from the Altar where you will offer and receive the Holy Eucharist; kneeling before the Tabernacle; confident only in prayer."

Originally from Lancashire, Adam's Parish placements during his years of formation included Our Lady and St Christopher, Romiley, Saint Mary's, Crewe and St John Vianney, Northwich. Following his ordination he has been appointed Assistant Priest at Shrewsbury Cathedral.

Both Father Adam and Father Joseph began their journey to the Priesthood at the House of Discernment based at Shrewsbury Cathedral. Both men were contemporaries during their six years of seminary formation and study for the Priesthood and at Saint Mary's College, Oscott.

Originally from rural Wales, Joseph Fawcett Wood attended Mass in his formative years in Shropshire parishes, particularly St Milburga in Church Stretton and at Shrewsbury Cathedral. His Ordination Day, one of the hottest of 2025, brought together his large family at the Cathedral, including eight siblings and his mother in a celebration of great joy. In his ordination homily, the Bishop recalled how Joseph had come to the Cathedral one Saturday morning to pray and in a sense had never left having discovered the courage to begin the great adventure of love of his vocation. The Bishop said that "for not a few people the Catholic Priesthood appears a renunciation of love ... yet the Church places from the day of ordination the greatest Love at the centre of our lives, the Love in which you are called from this day to live in remarkable intimacy: the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist. For the Priesthood and the Eucharist are so bound together that a priest must be first and foremost a man of the Eucharist, a man moved to Eucharistic adoration."

Joseph's parish placements whilst training for the Priesthood included Heswall, Pensby and Romiley. Bishop Mark has now appointed Father Joseph to serve as Assistant Priest at Saint Vincent de Paul, Altrincham.

PASTORAL LETTERS

On the Threat of Assisted Suicide Sunday 13th October 2024

My dear brothers and sisters,

This week an 'assisted suicide' Bill will be introduced into Parliament. The Bill will seek to remove the legal safeguards which have long protected some of the most vulnerable members of society to allow medically assisted suicide. The government has indicated it will provide time for this legislation which will be considered on a free vote. It is hard to fathom why this proposal is such an urgent priority and why parliament will proceed in haste even voting before Christmas. This is especially troubling when we recall that due to its dangers, assisted suicide was overwhelmingly rejected by the House of Commons only nine years ago<sup>i</sup>.

The proposal to be put before Parliament poses the same dangers and challenges the same moral foundations on which our laws have been based. In today's Gospel, a young man affirms he has kept the Ten Commandments from his earliest days. For inscribed into the human heart from the beginning is the command: "You shall not kill"<sup>ii</sup>. This prohibition safeguards a great good which has led us to value and hold human life sacred. We can say that from the beginning, this command has formed our society at its best in the care of the sick, the aged and the most vulnerable.

The decision MPs are about to make is heralded as a historic vote because it threatens a momentous change to society in both its care and attitude to the sick and the aged. This change could be decided within a matter of weeks, allowing our parliamentary representatives little time to consider the enormity of the moral choice. I am therefore asking you to take urgent action in contacting your Member of Parliament to express opposition to this dangerous proposal and to urge that greater support and resources be given to end of life, palliative care. It is surely a scandal, that Hospices, providing pain relief and care for those at the end of their lives, are often left in financial deficit and need.

Today, I must also warn where crossing the moral boundary set by the command "You shall not kill" will lead. Elsewhere in the world we have seen how similar laws permitting medical professionals to assist their patients in suicide have been extended wider and wider to encompass those with mental health problems and even young children. We have witnessed a similar trajectory since the Abortion Act of 1967: initially agreed by Parliament to address 'hard cases', this law has been tragically responsible for the destruction of many millions of human lives.

As we see populations ageing across western countries with a diminished number of younger people to support them, this is an especially dangerous moment for politicians to open the door to euthanasia: the medical killing of the sick, the disabled and the elderly. We already hear of a social duty to end our lives when we become a burden to others. This is not the kind of society in which we would wish to grow old or become vulnerable! If medical professionals, now sworn to protect the lives of patients, become those who assist in killing and suicide, how will our relationship change to those we look to for help and care? This is, indeed, a dark and sinister path on which we could be embarking before Christmas 2024.

The pre-Christian mind may have thought it reasonable to dispose of a human life, yet, through the Christian Centuries we have seen how the command "You shall not kill," has protected the most vulnerable and led society to generously care for those at the end of their lives. The Church's Catechism explains how discontinuing burdensome, extraordinary or disproportionate medical procedures and using pain relief to alleviate the suffering of the dying, even at risk of shortening their days, can stand in harmony with this command<sup>iii</sup>. Yet, these considerations in genuine medical care belong to a different moral universe to deliberately killing another human being or assisting someone to commit suicide.

Let us pray that a decisive rejection of the proposal being placed before Parliament will lead society to affirm the value of human life anew, by devoting ourselves more generously to the support of the aged; to the relief of suffering and to truly assisting those at the end of their lives. I ask you not to delay in contacting your Member of Parliament, whose postal and e-mail address can be found in the parish newsletter today.

United with you in this witness to the Gospel of Life,

+ Mark

On Returning to the Heart of Jesus

Sunday 1st December 2024

My dear brothers and sisters,

On Christmas Eve, Pope Francis will open the Holy Year Door of Saint Peter's in Rome to mark the beginning of the Jubilee Year 2025. This gesture leads me to picture the open doors of all our churches this Sunday and to picture you crossing their threshold. I think especially of our Cathedral in Shrewsbury and Saint Joseph's Eucharistic Shrine in Stockport, which will serve as pilgrim churches in this Holy Year. I want us to reflect on how passing through the doors of every Catholic church must lead us to the Heart of Jesus opened to us in His Eucharist and in all the Sacraments of His grace and mercy.

Today as the Advent Scriptures invite us to turn our eyes to the Redeemer<sup>i</sup> amid the crises of time, we are conscious of the shadows of war and conflict across the world; and the threat of euthanasia to the sick and the aged in our own society that has led you to give such impressive witness to the value of human life. Pope Francis has set a clear priority for us in his recent letter to the Church, writing: "I turn my gaze to the heart of Christ ... this leads me to propose to the whole Church renewed reflection on the love of Christ represented in his Sacred Heart. For there we find the whole Gospel, a synthesis of the truths of our faith, all that we adore and seek in faith, all that responds to our deepest needs"<sup>ii</sup>. The Holy Father speaks of a personal discovery that awaits us, echoing the words of Saint Francis de Sales, "Each of us can look therein and see our name carved in letters of love ..."<sup>iii</sup>.

Pope Francis reminds us, this encounter with the divine and human love of Jesus Christ must be the source of our mission for "As we contemplate the Sacred Heart, mission becomes a matter of love. For the greatest danger in mission is that, amid all the things we say and do, we fail to bring a joyful encounter with the love of Christ who embraces and saves us"<sup>iv</sup>. This same encounter has a far-reaching social dimension which leads Pope Francis to quote his predecessor, Saint John Paul II, who insisted it is only by entrusting ourselves to the Heart of Jesus that "over the ruins accumulated by hatred and violence, the greatly desired civilization of love, the Kingdom of the Heart of Christ, can be built"<sup>v</sup>.

The Sacred Heart is a familiar image in our homes and churches, forming a visual summary of the whole experience of Christian faith<sup>i</sup>. Pope Francis observes that certain artistic representations of Christ's Heart might strike us "as tasteless and not particularly conducive to affection or prayer ..." Yet, he writes "this is of little importance since they are only invitations to prayer"<sup>vii</sup>. For the living Heart of Jesus is found in the Mystery of the Eucharist.

This Sunday as we receive a new Lectionary with all the Scriptures to be read at Mass, Pope Francis invites us to recognise "The Christ we see depicted with a pierced and burning heart" is always "the same Christ who, for love of us, was born in Bethlehem, passed through Galilee healing the sick, embracing sinners and showing mercy. The same Christ who loved us to the very end..."<sup>viii</sup>. This 'Love that goes to the end' is the miracle of love that is the Eucharist. Pope Francis reminds us how England's newest Saint, John Henry Newman "Encountered the living Heart of Jesus" in this Blessed Sacrament and prayed: "O ... loving Heart of Jesus, you are concealed in the Holy Eucharist and beat for us still ..."<sup>ix</sup>. Every time we cross the threshold of our churches, the same discovery awaits us at the Altar and before the Tabernacle where we "discover in the Eucharist the immense love of the Heart of Christ" which invites us to union with Him<sup>x</sup>.

This must be the journey of Advent, a journey which leads us to celebrate 'Christ's Mass' with ever greater wonder and joy. May the Holy Year 2025, open the doors of our hearts and help many to discover the Love which awaits us in Confession and in the Mystery of the Eucharist. May we make this 'wholehearted' return to the Heart of Jesus every Sunday of our lives.

On the Opening of the Holy Year 2025 Sunday 26th December 2024 Feast of the Holy Family

My dear brothers and sisters,

On Christmas Eve, Pope Francis opened the Holy Door of Saint Peter's in Rome for the Jubilee Year 2025. The Church celebrates a jubilee every 25 years, drawing on the Biblical tradition of a year celebrated to manifest God's mercy by freeing the imprisoned, writing off debts and re-setting relationships by a universal pardon<sup>i</sup>. The Church now commends such a moment of grace to us so that we might be moved to seek forgiveness for our sins; conversion of life; and reconciliation with our neighbour. Pope Francis writes: "Now the time has come for a new Jubilee, when once more the Holy Door is flung open to invite everyone to an intense experience of the love of God"<sup>ii</sup>.

Tens of millions will travel to Rome as pilgrims and in this Shrewsbury Diocese, I have established the Cathedral and Saint Joseph's Eucharistic Shrine in Stockport as places for local pilgrimage. The Gospel tells of the pilgrimage made by Our Lady and Saint Joseph which became the joyful mystery of finding Jesus in the Temple<sup>iii</sup>. Today we reflect how our pilgrimage to Mass each Sunday - invites us 'to seek and find anew' the same Jesus present in the Mystery of the Eucharist. The Holy Father prays this year will be such a renewed encounter for us all "a moment of genuine personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the door of our salvation ..."<sup>iv</sup>.

Pope Francis has placed hope at the heart of this Jubilee celebration. He writes, may this be "A Holy Year marked by the hope that does not fade, hope in God. May it help us to recover the confident trust that we require, in the Church and in society, in our interpersonal relations, in our task of promoting the dignity of all persons and respect for God's gift of creation"<sup>v</sup>. Christian hope is ultimately the hope of Heaven, for nothing less corresponds to the longing placed in the human heart. The Catechism explains: "Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises ..."<sup>vi</sup>. As Saint Augustine so memorably wrote of this hope: "you have made us for yourself, O Lord, our hearts are restless till they rest in you"<sup>vii</sup>.

i Cf. Leviticus 25: 8-55

ii Spes non Confundit No. 6

iii Cf. Lk. 2: 41-52

iv Spes non Confundit No. 1

v Spes non Confundit No. 24

vi Catechism of the Catholic Church No. 1817

vii The Confessions of Saint Augustine' 1,1

viii Spes non Confundit No. 23

ix Spe Salvi No. 47

This hope does not lead us to care less about our present lives or this passing world, rather it leads us to care more, much more! The fact that this world is the way to another, “the life of the world to come,” charges the whole of our lives with new purpose. Pope Francis gives practical examples of how this supernatural hope opens the door to see our lives and our world anew. This, he writes, enables us to untiringly seek peace in a world threatened by war and conflict; to be open to the gift of life in countries witnessing an alarming decline in the birthrate, since the desire of young people to give birth to new sons and daughters is born of hope; this same hope brings us closer to the sick and the elderly and helps us see in a new light the plight of the poor and most vulnerable, of prisoners, exiles and refugees. The hope we have received, insists Pope Francis, leads us to forgive others, for while forgiveness cannot change what happened in the past “it can allow us to change the future and live different lives, free of anger ...”<sup>viii</sup>

In inviting us to seek the Jubilee Indulgence for ourselves and for our loved ones departed, Pope Francis reminds us that we are never alone in our struggle to reach the goal of Heaven. We are united in the Mystical Body of Christ with all those striving on earth, with those being purified in purgatory and with all the saints who have reached everlasting happiness. With the help of their prayers and the indulgence of the whole Church, the Holy Father points to the hope of final purification which we call ‘purgatory’. For - in the face of the sins and repeated failures that you and I confess - we dare hope for that holiness which is necessary to share the joy of Heaven. As Pope Benedict beautifully wrote, before Christ’s gaze all falsehood will melt away as “the holy power of his love sears through us like a flame, enabling us to become totally ourselves and thus totally of God”<sup>ix</sup>.

Together in this pilgrimage, in the company of Our Lady, Saint Joseph and all the saints may we be such ‘pilgrims of hope.’ In time and for eternity, may we find His love and mercy.

On the Catholic Faith we have received

Sunday 23rd February 2025

My dear brothers and sisters,

The Gospel speaks to us today of God’s overflowing generosity, a generosity we discover anew each Sunday, and indeed every day, in the Holy Eucharist where Christ gives Himself wholly and entirely for us! We are called to imitate this Divine, Eucharistic generosity in each of our lives and in every vocation. This leads me to reflect today on the gift of faith which we have received in all its fullness in the Church.

I write to you from the Cathedral where even the beauty of wood, glass and stone stand in silent testimony to the faith of all those who have shared the journey of our Shrewsbury Diocese. The Cathedral has become a place of pilgrimage in this Holy Year and my letter today is accompanied by a YouTube video that invites you to join me in a virtual pilgrimage to our Cathedral. This video can be found on the Shrewsbury Diocese website<sup>i</sup>.

Yesterday, I met in Chester many adults who will be Baptised and received into the Church at Easter. The first question that will be put to them is: “What do you ask of the Church?” Their answer will be a single word: “Faith.” The Catechism reminds us, that we receive the gift of faith through the Church, since the Church believes first; and she nourishes and sustains our faith through life’s journey<sup>ii</sup>. For we can no more give ourselves this gift of faith than we can give ourselves the gift of life. This vital task of handing on the faith led the first Apostles to describe the Church as “the pillar and bulwark of the truth” guarding “the faith once delivered to the saints”<sup>iii</sup>.

The faith we ask to share in Baptism was put into the words of the ‘Apostles Creed.’ These words used at Baptism from earliest centuries profess the faith received from the Apostles beginning with the Latin word ‘Credo’ meaning “I believe.” Today, some of our contemporaries speak disparagingly of what they call ‘organised religion.’ They suggest a “disorganised religion” is more authentic though it would amount to little more than opinions drawn from ever-changing views around us. Such an answer to the great questions of life can never be a secure foundation. And so, the Creed sets out the unchanging faith received by the Church in all truth, providing the sure foundation on which our lives can be built in faith, hope and love.

When the bishops of the world first gathered in the City of Nicaea in 325 AD after centuries of persecution, they made the great profession of the Catholic faith which we call the 'Nicene Creed.' Gathered in ecumenical council they declared the faith which the Church had received from the beginning and had everywhere believed. It is a moving thought that when you and I declare "I believe" at Mass, we are repeating those same words. The need for such a profession of faith was occasioned by the error of one priest, Arius, who taught that while Jesus was the highest and most exalted, he was less than God. This dark error occasioned a luminous profession of the Church's faith, that has echoed through the centuries. For with all the Church we believe in one Lord Jesus Christ who is "God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;" and "through him all things were made." Pope Francis, who we are accompanying with our prayer in his time of illness, has asked in this Holy Year of 2025 that we especially celebrate the anniversary of the Creed first professed at Nicaea in AD 325<sup>i</sup>.

Fifteen years ago, I became a bishop for you. At the heart of this mission, like every bishop before me, was handing on the faith of the Church. I promised I would always "Guard the deposit of faith pure and entire according to the tradition preserved always and everywhere in the Church from the time of the Apostles"<sup>ii</sup>. By Baptism and Confirmation, we all share in this apostolic task by imitating God's overflowing generosity in our readiness to share and defend the Catholic faith in all its fullness<sup>vii</sup>. In our Cathedral church, we remember the courage and generosity of the founding generation of this Diocese, who in the face of every difficulty and contradiction, handed down the faith to us. Let us ask Our Lady's help in this sacred trust of handing on the faith we have received to all generations to come.

On Prayer for Pope Francis First Sunday of Lent 6th March 2025

My dear brothers and sisters,

Today we join with so many across the world in prayer for Pope Francis. As the Church at the beginning prayed unceasingly for the Apostle Peter<sup>i</sup>, so we now pray for the Pope as the Successor of Peter. We pray aware of the immense responsibility entrusted to Peter's successors, which Saint John Henry Newman described as "a glorious apostolate, a tremendous weight, a ministry involving momentous duties, innumerable anxieties and immense responsibilities"<sup>iii</sup>. Yet, in these past weeks we have intensified our prayer for the Pope in time of sickness and frailty. Pope Francis has spoken of his gratitude writing: "I feel all your affection and closeness" in prayer rising from many hearts, "I feel I am carried and supported by all God's people."<sup>iii</sup>

On Ash Wednesday, it was wonderful to see so many people come together to begin the prayer and penance of Lent, just as we will soon come together for the Chrism Mass at Saint Anthony's, Wythenshawe, in Holy Week. It is a visible reminder of how all our lives are bound together, above all, in the struggle for holiness. I often remind you that we come to Mass each Sunday not only for ourselves and our own salvation – as urgent as this is! We come to Mass for all those in our lives who need our prayer, our continuing conversion by the confession of our sins, and our ever-deeper union with Christ in the Mystery of His Eucharist.

The Church speaks of this beautiful reality as “the communion of saints.” The Catechism explains: “Since all the faithful form one body, the good of each is communicated to the others”<sup>iv</sup>. Pope Francis reflects on this wonderful truth insisting: “The Church is the communion of saints”. What a beautiful definition this is!” says Pope Francis, “The image of the Body of Christ immediately makes us understand what this means to be bound to one another in communion: If one member suffers,’ writes Saint Paul, ‘all suffer together, and if one member is honoured, all rejoice together’<sup>vi</sup>.”

Saint John Vianney, the greatest of Parish Priests, expressed wonder reading the Gospel of the First Sunday of Lent<sup>vii</sup>. For he saw in Christ’s struggle in the wilderness the assurance that in every struggle our Redeemer desires to be with us, “leading the way and assuring us of victory”<sup>viii</sup>. The Cure of Ars likewise sought to be close to all entrusted to his care through his own prayer and fasting, and in the long hours he made himself available in the Confessional. Saint John Paul II said, in this way he desired “to love God for those who did not love him, and even to do the penance they would not do”<sup>ix</sup>.

Pope Francis explains what such spiritual and pastoral accompaniment means when he reflected, we: “cannot be indifferent to others because we are all parts of one body in communion. In this sense even the sin of an individual person always affects everyone, and the love of each individual person affects everyone... By virtue of the communion of saints, of this union, every member of the Church is bound to me in a profound way. I don’t say “to me” because I am the Pope – we are bound reciprocally... and this bond is so strong it cannot be broken even by death”<sup>x</sup>.

Today, we wish to so accompany Pope Francis, not merely by our thoughts nor even by the affection in which we hold every Pope, but above all by our prayers. Together with all who pray the Rosary night after night on the steps of Saint Peter’s, we commend him to the protection of Our Lady who accompanies each one of us on our earthly pilgrimage.<sup>xi</sup> As Pope Francis himself prayed at the beginning of his pontificate: “My prayer for all of us is that the Holy Spirit, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Mother, may grant us the grace to walk, to build, to confess Jesus Christ crucified. So may it be”<sup>xii</sup>.

United with Pope Francis in this prayer,

Pastoral Letter on the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill 5th and 6th April 2025

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I wish to speak with you today about the process in which our Parliament is currently considering legalising assisted suicide through the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill. As I have made clear earlier in this debate, as Catholics we have maintained a principled objection to this change in law recognising that every human life is sacred, coming as a gift of God and bearing a God-given dignity. We are, therefore, clearly opposed to this Bill in principle, elevating, as it does, the autonomy of the individual above all other considerations.

The passage of the Bill through Parliament will lead to a vote in late April on whether it progresses further. This will be a crucial moment and I, together with all the Bishops of England and Wales, am writing to ask your support in urging your MP to vote against this Bill at that time.

There are serious reasons for doing so. At this point we wish not simply to restate our objections in principle, but to emphasise the deeply flawed process undergone in Parliament thus far. We wish to remind you that it is a fundamental duty of every MP to ensure that legislation is not imposed on our society which has not been properly scrutinised and which will bring about damaging consequences.

The Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill will fundamentally change many of the key relationships in our way of life: within the family, between doctor and patient, within the health service. Yet there has been no Royal Commission or independent inquiry ahead of its presentation. It is a Private Member’s Bill. The Bill itself is long and complex and was published just days before MPs voted on it, giving them inadequate time to consult or reflect upon it. The time for debate was minimal. The Committee examining the Bill took only three days of evidence: not all voices were heard, and it comprises an undue number of supporters of the Bill. In short, this is no way to legislate on such an important and morally complex issue.

One consequence of this flawed process is that many vital questions remain unanswered. Can MPs guarantee that the scope of the Bill will not be extended? In almost every country where assisted suicide has been introduced the current scope is wider than was originally intended. What role, if any, will the judiciary have in the process? We were told that judicial oversight was a necessary and vital part of the process; now we are told it isn't needed at all. What will protect the vulnerable from coercion, or from feeling a burden on family? Can the National Health Service cope with assisted suicide or will it, as the Health Secretary has warned, cause cuts elsewhere in the NHS? Can MPs guarantee that no medical practitioner or care worker would be compelled to take part in assisted suicide? Would this mean the establishment of a 'national death service'?

In contrast to the provisions of this Bill, what is needed is first-class, compassionate palliative care at the end of our lives. This is already provided to many in our society but, tragically, is in short supply and underfunded. No-one should be dispatched as a burden to others. Instead, a good society would prioritise care for the elderly, the vulnerable, and the weak. The lives of our families are richer for cherishing their presence.

It is sad reflection on Parliament's priorities that the House of Commons spent far more time debating the ban on fox hunting than it is spending debating bringing in assisted suicide.

I am sure that you will share these concerns. It is now clear that this measure is being rushed without proper scrutiny and without fundamental questions surrounding safeguards being answered. This is a deeply flawed Bill with untold unintended consequences.

Every MP, and Government, has a solemn duty to prevent such legislation reaching the statute book. This, tragically, is what may happen. So I appeal to you: even if you have written before, please make contact now with your MP and ask them to vote against this Bill not only on grounds of principle but because of the failure of Parliament to approach this issue in an adequate and responsible manner.

In his Letter to the Philippians, from which we heard in the Second Reading, St Paul reflects on the difficulties and responsibilities of life. He speaks of 'pressing on' and 'striving' for the fullness of life promised in Christ Jesus. Yet he is totally confident in his struggles because, as he says, 'Christ Jesus has made me his own'.

We too have many struggles. We too know that Christ Jesus has made us his own. So we too press on with this struggle, so important in our times.

May God bless you all.

On the death of Pope Francis – “Please, pray for me” First Sunday of Lent 27th April 2025

My dear brothers and sisters,

On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, we commend the soul of Pope Francis into the arms of God's mercy. Anyone who met Pope Francis during his twelve years as our Holy Father will have heard him make an insistent plea: “Please, pray for me!” I had always prayed for the Pope, yet Pope Francis impressed on me with those urgent words the need to always pray for the man called to be Peter's Successor<sup>i</sup>. In the hour of death, it is always our first duty of charity to pray for the souls of our loved ones departed. This Sunday we must pray for the soul of the man who became Pope Francis for us.

Today we share many memories of Pope Francis. We might think of the Year of Mercy he called in 2015 which saw many return to sacramental confession. We might picture in 2020 a deserted Saint Peter's Square at the height of the global pandemic, when Pope Francis stood alone holding the Blessed Sacrament in blessing to the world. We might recall his last (Encyclical) Letter to the Church urging the renewal of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.<sup>ii</sup> It may be less well remembered that on every apostolic journey Pope Francis went first and returned to the Basilica of Saint Mary Major in Rome. It is in this ancient church dedicated to the Holy Mother of God, that his mortal remains have been laid to rest as an abiding testimony to his love and devotion to Our Lady.

Some of us were with Pope Francis in 2019 when he declared John Henry Newman as England's newest Saint. Newman had reflected on the long continuity of the Office of Saint Peter across the centuries, declaring that Christ's Church remained as unchangeable as Jesus Christ her founder, for as in the Apostles' time "It taught the truth, so it does now; as then it had the sacraments of grace, so has it now ..." and just as it had a visible head at the beginning, so it must now have such a head.

And Newman asked: "Who is that visible head now? Who is now the vicar of Christ? Who now has the keys of the kingdom of heaven, as Saint Peter had then? If a successor of Saint Peter there must be, who is that successor?" Newman insisted there could only be one conclusion: "It is he who sits in Saint Peter's chair: it is the Bishop of Rome ... in the continuous line of the Bishops of Rome, or Popes as they are called, one after another, down to this day"<sup>iii</sup>.

As Pope Francis, the 265th Successor of the Apostle Peter, now goes with all our prayers, we must pray for the Cardinals entrusted with the responsibility of choosing a new Pope. This task is undertaken not with Hollywood intrigue, but in an atmosphere of prayer and recollection, which reminds each Cardinal of the final account he must give to Our Lord. In our lifetimes, we have been blessed with remarkable men chosen to be our Pope, some numbered among the greatest Saints. They were men gifted with great minds and pastoral hearts, communicating the Gospel and the Catholic faith to all humanity with unfailing concern for souls. Yet, each man was also conscious of his weakness and limitations and asked the help of our prayers in this awesome calling. Today we must pray for the man soon to be chosen as the next successor of Peter. May he fulfil his mission to confirm us in faith and be a true shepherd for the entire flock of the Lord entrusted to his care<sup>iv</sup>.

On Welcoming Pope Leo XIV with Great Joy First Sunday of Lent 11th May 2025

My dear brothers and sisters,

On Thursday, an outburst of joy marked the announcement that we have a new Pope. This joy was known before we even knew the name or had glimpsed the kindly face of Pope Leo XIV. It was the announcement that we had a Pope that was the source of this joy. The man chosen was still unseen, and undoubtedly conscious as never before, of his human weakness and the immense weight of the mission suddenly entrusted to him as the 266th Successor of the Apostle Peter. The new Pope would first lead us in prayer by greeting the Holy Mother of God and asking her to pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. This struck me as a beautiful expression of our Catholic faith in the office of the Pope, whoever the man happens to be, and in the mission entrusted by Christ to Peter and his successors until the end of time. It is in this faith that we welcome Pope Leo XIV. For it was Christ who made Peter the rock of His Church, gave him the keys of the Kingdom,<sup>i</sup> called him to strengthen His brethren<sup>ii</sup> and to feed the sheep and lambs of His flock, as a witness to His love<sup>iii iv</sup>.

It seemed significant that before we caught sight of our new Pope, we saw first the Cross of Christ carried onto the balcony of Saint Peter's. For the Pope always stands before the world as a witness to Christ and to the victory of His Cross. In his first words and greeting "Peace be with you all", Pope Leo consciously echoed the words of the Risen Jesus and reminded us "We are disciples of Christ, Christ goes before us, and the world needs His light" for in His love we find the assurance that evil will not prevail.

Following a previous papal election, I was asked at a petrol station whether I 'liked' the new Pope. This is a strange question for a Catholic, akin to being asked whether you 'like' your father or mother! The Pope is not a celebrity, a politician nor a public personality whose popularity may grow or fade. The place of the Pope in the family of the Church is always seen in the light of faith, whoever the man happens to be, for he has taken the place of Peter for us.

We pray for the Pope with a loyalty and affection which transcends all human 'likes' or 'dislikes.' We might even pray, as one faithful soul did, that the Pope gets a good night's rest, conscious of the burden he bears. It is with such faith, loyalty and human affection that we welcome Pope Leo XIV, our thirteenth Holy Father since his predecessor Pope Pius IX founded the Shrewsbury Diocese in 1851.

A still wider perspective is offered in the Cathedral this Sunday, when our Greek Orthodox brothers and sisters bring an icon and relic of Pope Saint Sylvester I, in celebration of the Creed we profess each Sunday. If you don't recognise his name, this was the Pope at the time of the Council of Nicea in 325 AD, when the bishops first gathered to make the great profession of the Church's faith that we echo together at Mass each Sunday. It is the enduring mission of Peter and his successors to keep this faith and strengthen us in faith by serving as "the visible source and foundation of unity". In celebrating the 1700th Anniversary of the Creed of Nicea and remembering the saintly Pope of that distant time, we are reminded of the long continuity of the mission of Saint Peter, which continues with the fourteenth Pope Leo in our time.

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations celebrated on this Good Shepherd Sunday, also leads us to remember that a young man, Robert Prevost, was first ready to dedicate his whole life to Christ in the Catholic Priesthood. Today, as we pray for this young man as our Pope, let us also pray for many new and generous vocations to the Priesthood that are a source of joy for the whole Church. It is because of Robert Prevost's generous and faithful response to his calling, that we are now able to receive "with great joy" Pope Leo XIV as a holy father for us all.

United with you in this joy and in this prayer,

On Saint John Henry Newman, Doctor of the Church

1st/2nd November 2025

My dear brothers and sisters,

The Solemnity of All Saints provides the ultimate perspective for our lives. This celebration urges us to strive to be with those whom the Gospel declares forever 'blessed', so we may at last "rejoice and be glad" that "our reward is great in heaven". This is our goal by God's grace – "his free and undeserved help" – to finally be with those "from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb".<sup>i</sup> A gathering anticipated in the celebration of every Mass, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, "the Eucharist is the anticipation of the heavenly glory".<sup>ii</sup> Tomorrow, we begin our November prayer for 'All Souls,' praying for those beyond death's horizon, who long to be purified and brought to the perfection of love.

The saints who have attained this goal offer us their encouragement and the help of their prayers. Among them are those men and women who have been recognised through the centuries as "doctors", that is "teachers," who help us with the guidance of their writing and teaching along the path of our Christian lives. From such great bishops as Saint Ambrose and Saint Augustine, to the 24-year-old Saint Therese of Lisieux declared a teacher of the whole Church by Pope Saint John Paul II. Today, Pope Leo has declared our own Saint John Henry Newman a Doctor of the Church.

John Henry Newman is no stranger to this Shrewsbury Diocese, spending most of his life in Birmingham and Oxford. In times when people often despair of finding objective truth, preferring to speak of "your truth" and "my truth" because they no longer believe truth can be found, Cardinal Newman has been raised up as a guide.

The journey he made into the full communion with the Catholic Church will be an encouragement for many making this same journey. Against the prejudices of his time, Newman came to recognise the Catholic Church as the Church which Christ founded, "endowed with all divinely revealed truth and with all means of grace".<sup>iii</sup> Saint Paul VI said of his journey, that "guided solely by love of the truth and fidelity to Christ, (he) traced an itinerary, the most toilsome, the most conclusive, that human thought ever travelled during the last century, indeed one might say during the modern era, to arrive at the fulness of wisdom and peace"<sup>vi</sup>.

Today we pray Saint John Henry Newman's fearless love of the truth, will help many besieged in a digital age by a cacophony of discordant voices, to arrive at this same wisdom and peace. At the heart of the Catholic Church, Newman found what he called "a Treasure unutterable", the Mystery of the Eucharist containing the Church's entire spiritual wealth: Christ Himself"<sup>vii</sup>. This led to an enduring sense of wonder that he had found in the Blessed Sacrament the Real Presence of Christ Himself. As Newman reflected, "He is not past, He is present now. And though He is not seen, He is here"<sup>viii</sup>.

May we learn from Saint John Henry Newman to see our own lives in the light of the Eucharist. And let us pray that this newest Doctor of the Church will help many of our contemporaries on the same path to the truth, to the fulfilment of our vocation and to reach the goal of everlasting happiness with all the Saints.

DIOCESAN REPORTS

Vocations

The Sunday following the election of Pope Leo XIV on 8th May 2025, Bishop Mark gave a diocesan pastoral letter highlighting how our new Pope was once ready, as a young man, to generously dedicate his whole life to Christ in the Catholic Priesthood. Within the first few months of his pontificate, Pope Leo has spoken at gatherings of priests. On 12th June, to the priests of Rome, he said 'I thank you for your life given in the service of the Kingdom, for your daily labours, for your great generosity in the exercise of your ministry, for everything you live in silence and that is at times accompanied by suffering or misunderstanding. You carry out different services, but you are all precious in the eyes of God and in the fulfilment of his plan.' Then a few days later, speaking as part of a Jubilee Year event to priests, seminarians, and bishops, Pope Leo referred to the words of Jesus in the Gospel 'I have called you friends (John 15:15) explaining that this is 'an authentic key to understanding the priestly ministry for the priest, in fact, is a friend of the Lord, called to live with him a personal and trusting relationship, nourished by the Word, the celebration of the sacraments, and daily prayer.' In just a few words, Pope Leo sums up the call of God to the sacred priesthood which can leave a man who is discerning this vocation to be, at the same time, both awesomely daunted and joyfully attracted to following Jesus Christ in the Church in this way.

Our Diocese was blessed with two ordinations to the priesthood in 2025. On 5th July, Deacon Adam Bamber was ordained priest at Shrewsbury Cathedral. Two coaches arrived from Our Lady and St Christopher's in Romiley to celebrate the occasion. The parishioners have taken Adam to heart during his time as a seminarian and deacon in their parish. On 12th July, Deacon Joseph Fawcett-Wood was ordained to the priesthood in Shrewsbury. Joseph's extensive family and many friends filled the Cathedral for another prayerful and beautiful liturgy. Many Shrewsbury Cathedral parishioners were also in attendance on both days having known Adam and Joseph during their year in the House of Discernment before they entered seminary. These were two of sixteen ordinations to the priesthood in England and Wales in 2025.

At present, four of our seminarians are undertaking parish pastoral placements, but the majority are based in seminary at St Mary's College in Oscott where they have formed solid friendships and are a support to each other. Each week they pray the rosary together in the grounds of the seminary for new vocations and the people of our Diocese. Three of our men were blessed to attend the Jubilee in Rome for seminarians in June, and one even managed to shake hands with Pope Leo!

The House of Discernment based between St Joseph's Eucharistic Shrine in Stockport and Shrewsbury Cathedral has men discerning the priesthood with a focus on daily Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, prayer, spiritual direction, catechesis, and spiritual reading. Some men take part full-time and others are connected to the House of Discernment on weekends whilst working throughout the week. The Vocation Group meetings take place every two months for seekers who wish to explore their calling. The meetings consist of Adoration, Holy Mass, followed by pizza, reflection, and the night prayer of the Church.

In April 2025, the Bible Society reported that a 'quiet revival' of the Christian faith is taking place in our country, that church attendance is going up, and that many Gen Z's now have a new openness to faith in Jesus. We have noticed this 'quiet revival' through our Sunday Mass attendances and RCIA programmes. Let us pray that many of these young people will be open to discerning their vocation.

Diaconate Report

Through the eyes of a Hospital Chaplain

During the Mass for the Jubilee of Deacons on the 23rd of February 2025, Pope Francis, who was being treated at the time in Gemelli Hospital for bilateral pneumonia, communicated his message, which is encouraging all deacons to be “selfless servants of our brothers and sisters, and builders of communion.”<sup>1</sup>

His statement highlights “an essential dimension” of our diaconal identity to become “a bridge linking the altar to the street and the Eucharist to people’s daily lives.”<sup>2</sup>

In this article I would like to share this “essential dimension” and focus on my diaconal ministry as a hospital chaplain.

At its core, “diakonia” (Greek for “service”) is what it means to follow Jesus, a sign of the loving presence of Christ who “came to serve, not to be served.”<sup>3</sup> I am called to emulate Christ the Servant who walked with those who were afflicted. This places my personal ministry as chaplain in a unique position of having a special relationship with those who are experiencing sickness whilst representing the Church in a distinctive sacramental way.

I am that bridge between our bishop, his priests and the people we all serve bridging the altar to the people, spreading the Gospel and strengthening the life of the Church in the hospital.

Here, I bring my diaconal ministry from two parishes to the community of Wythenshawe hospital.<sup>4</sup> The day-to-day role of the hospital chaplain is multi-faceted. This includes sharing morning prayer with my Christian colleagues, distributing Holy Communion, taking Viaticum to the dying, praying with individuals, giving counsel and discussing those big questions about life and faith. I may be called to meet with patients in the Emergency Room and Intensive Care, helping families absorb devastating news and deal with crisis situations by providing emotional and spiritual care.

Besides providing pastoral care, chaplains can function as a mediator between patients and providers, advocate for the patient to medical staff, explain hospital processes and offer comfort and guidance to hospital staff giving them support. Along with my peers from other faiths, I regularly counsel people who are experiencing their toughest trials, whether that is in a crisis of health, faith, or fear.

Chaplains may be asked to share in joyous celebratory occasions, such as the birth of a child, a lifesaving surgical procedure or a sad challenging end-of-life situation providing comfort and prayer. Referring to our local priests who come into the hospital to administer the sacraments of penance and anointing.

In all these circumstances, the Roman collar becomes a visible sign for people to recognise the living “Church”. Where patient or staff with their own personal vulnerabilities and needs are opened, and you become an intercessor in prayer and a bridge to Almighty God.

So, what is my sense of accomplishment?

As a sacramental sign to the Church and the wider community I am building relationships and drawing people closer to God. Being involved with individuals and families at very important times of their lives is both a profound and a humbling experience. Since my appointment five years ago these experiences have enriched my diaconal ministry bringing many blessings and fruitful joy which I offer to the Lord as His servant.

To walk with people in every moment of their lives, even the most painful moments, in their times of sickness and loss. I am reminded in this ministry that bringing the presence of the Lord in his Word and in the Eucharist is a great blessing and responsibility.

The call to be a hospital chaplain is God’s call to love and serve others. Providing a listening ear, emotional support and spiritual nourishment to everyone. If individuals feel the love and grace of God, then my ministry as an instrument of the Lord’s presence will touch them.

To quote Pope John Paul II, “the very heart of the Diaconate to which you have been called: to be servant of the mysteries of Christ and, at the same time to be servant of your brothers and sisters...”<sup>5</sup>

This is at the very heart of the Deacon as hospital chaplain.

Evangelisation And Catechesis Annual Report

It has been an exciting year for the department of Evangelisation and Catechesis which has embraced the gift of the Jubilee Year which was inaugurated by Pope Francis on Christmas Eve, 2024. We opened the year with Jubilee Day of Hope in St Joseph's Eucharistic Shrine in Stockport. Many parishioners from across the diocese attended this wonderful event which had talks on hope, the biblical roots of the Jubilee Year and how we can practically respond to it. We focused on the joy of a Jubilee Year that is fundamentally rooted in forgiveness and conversion.

Keen to engage with people in parishes in the diocese with the Jubilee Year and the theme of the Pilgrims of Hope I travelled to various parishes to provide talks on the virtue of hope.

In Lent we had a series of talks with Fr David Irwin and I on the virtues of faith, hope and love at St Joseph's. Sale. Each of these talks concluded with Compline and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

In September to celebrate the Jubilee of Hope, there was an event focusing on evangelisation with a guest speaker Mark Saunders, who is a revert to the Catholic faith. The theme of this day was Sharing Hope in a Broken World with an emphasis on the importance of each of us evangelising in our own communities.

In November catechists were invited to the Jubilee for Catechists in Shrewsbury Diocese. This was a wonderful opportunity to come together for formation, prayer, thanksgiving and networking. This fantastic event was held at St Joseph's Eucharistic Shrine, one of our places of pilgrimage for the Jubilee Year and we had the privilege of Bishop Mark Davies and the Dominican Sisters of St Joseph joining us for the day.

There has continued to be an increase of engagement with the Franciscan at Home platform, with people taking the opportunity of the free catechetical courses available. There are parishioners receiving formation as individuals, mentored by myself or through self-study. Over the year two groups of parishioners have emerged who meet monthly with me, and we are accessing the workshops together. These are ongoing at St Columba's Catholic Church Chester and Holy Apostles and Martyrs Church, Wallasey. Those who attend these faith sharing groups frequently comment how inspiring and encouraging it is to receive this formation together. If you wish to develop a group in your parish then please do get in touch.

Details of how to access this can be found via the Diocese of Shrewsbury website (<https://franciscanathome.com/shrewsbury>). You can request a mentor and someone from our team will guide you through your studies.

2025 marked the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicea which was convened in 325 AD by Emperor Constantine, which gathered bishops in response to the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Christ. This was the first ecumenical council in history, and it produced the creed that, completed by the First Council of Constantinople in 381, has become the distinctive expression of the Church's faith in Jesus Christ.

Please do get in touch if you require any assistance or advice regarding evangelisation and catechesis you can email me at natalie.oreface@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

Mission for the Vocation of Marriage & Family

The Jubilee Year of Hope for Marriage & Family

The year 2025 has been a Year of Jubilee in the Church. In the Old Testament, the key theme of the Jubilee Years was forgiveness and the temporary reestablishment of the goods of creation that were lost in the Fall. Some of these goods were freedom, both spiritual and physical, the forgiving of debts which enabled the reuniting of families, and the freely given, abundant gifts of God for His people. Jesus Christ restores the good of creation for us, but the Church has continued the tradition of Jubilee years to help us appreciate in a special way all that we have received from Him through the lens of a particular theme. The theme for 2025 was the theme of hope.

Jubilee Retreats were held in the Diocese, some of which particularly focused on the family and especially the importance of forgiveness within families, as well as the concept of indulgences, which can be obtained not only for ourselves but also for our loved ones who have passed away.

Pope Leo, at the Jubilee Year for Families, Children, Grandparents, and the Elderly, focused on the importance of love and unity within families, drawing on the Gospel, which included Jesus' prayer for unity: "I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me" (Jn 17:23). Jesus Christ restored God's original plan for marriage and family making holiness possible and the mission of marriage and family in the Church a sign of hope.

"In recent decades, we have received a sign that fills us with joy but also makes us think. It is the fact that several spouses have been beatified and canonised, not separately, but as married couples. .... By pointing to them as exemplary witnesses of married life, the Church tells us that today's world needs the marriage covenant in order to know and accept God's love and to defeat, thanks to its unifying and reconciling power, the forces that break down relationships and societies".<sup>1</sup>

Betrothed Marriage Preparation

This year also saw the expansion of the Betrothed marriage preparation programme into the Chester and Shropshire deaneries, making it more conveniently available to couples from these areas. For more information on the dates and venues for 2026, please get in touch with the team.

Marriage & Family Life Ministry (MFL) Retreat

In June 2024, we also began a series of Retreat days to explain the work of MFL and to call for volunteers to help with the work. We need intercessors, catechists, presenters, natural fertility awareness (NFA) practitioners, and witnesses to the practice of NFA, as well as witnesses to the grace of the sacrament of marriage and living marriage as a vocation. If you are interested in volunteering or attending the next Retreat Day, please contact the team.

Why Get Married Retreats

Another initiative that started this year was a series of talks and couple witnesses aimed at explaining marriage as a vocation to help those discerning God's call in their lives or those interested in understanding more about marriage and its role in the Church's mission more generally. The feedback was very positive, and so we will be repeating the event in the coming year. Here is the feedback we received from just one participant:

"Thank you so much for the retreat last week. I really enjoyed the recent retreat on Marriage and Family at Our Lady's Stockport. I thought it was at 'conference' level in its content. The material was well researched, well put together and thoughtfully presented. There was something in there for the younger person hoping to get married, those engaged and those who were already married. Bringing those three groups of people together, in the small group discussions, actually allowed the younger people on our table to ask the married people questions about marriage and what it was like. They were also able to share their thoughts of what marriage was and what their expectations were. I cannot imagine another scenario where they are likely to meet different people, with different experiences, to ask these questions too, and the relaxed atmosphere of the day did allow that, which was lovely and really enjoyable."

Marriage Mass

The marriage Mass this year was held at Holy Angels Parish in Hale Barns, with over 120 couples attending, including those celebrating special anniversaries ranging from one to sixty years.

Missio Annual Report

On Saturday June 7th 2025 Bishop Mark celebrated our Annual Shrewsbury Diocesan Mass of Thanksgiving for the Missio/Red Box Local Secretaries and supporters in Shrewsbury Cathedral.

Bishop Mark thanked all the priests, clergy, religious and volunteers and benefactors of Missio, the Association for the Propagation for the Faith (APF), The Holy Childhood, The Society of St Peter the Apostle and the Mill Hill Missionaries for their great work, faithfulness, prayers, generosity and support to the 1,150 Mission Dioceses which are either too poor or young to support themselves. Fr. Anthony Chantry, Mill Hill Missionary (MHM) and the National Director of Missio in England and Wales concelebrated the mass, with Fr Dermot Byrne, the Provincial of the Mill Hill Missionaries in England and thanked everyone as well.

Bishop Mark said, "We support the Global Mission of the Church in a multitude of places and circumstances through your prayers, faithfulness and generosity through the Red Boxes, which helps this mission continue." This mission "Ad Gentes" is a Latin phrase, meaning "to the nations" or "to the peoples". It refers to the Church's missionary mandate to evangelise and spread the Gospel to all people, regardless of their background or culture. It emphasizes the universal call to mission and the Church's responsibility to reach out to those who have not yet heard the message of Christ. It is the Second Vatican Council's Decree on Missionary activity that reaffirmed the need for missions and salvation in Christ and reaffirmed the tie between evangelisation and charity for the poor.

Bishop Mark emphasized that success in mission was due to "faithfulness to the end," as in the Mass readings relating to St Peter and the Ugandan Martyrs. The Cathedral of Shrewsbury was consecrated in June 1886 just after Saints Charles Lwanga and Companions were martyred. Thanks to Fr. Dermot Byrne, Provincial of the Mill Hill Missionaries, the blessed relics of St Charles Lwanga and Companions rest silently in the altar of Shrewsbury Cathedral. Bishop Mark said, "a mission fulfilled in utter failure to the moment of death, has inspired and opened the door for many to find faith in the martyrs of all ages."

The Diocese of Shrewsbury raised the wonderful amount of £125,734.14p through the Red Boxes in 2024 and through online donations through missio.org.uk. It also is sponsoring through parishes and individuals 20 seminarians, through the Society of St. Peter the Apostle, a branch of Missio, working in over 5 pontifical mission seminaries in Malawi, Kenya, Nigeria, Sri Lanka and the Philippines. Anyone who wants to sponsor a seminarian or religious sister or brother in the last 4 years of their training can find more information on the website missio.org.uk.

One example of Missio supporting the training of future priests is at Our Lady of Lanka National Seminary in Sri Lanka, supported by Missio and the Red Boxes, that continues to stand as a beacon of hope for the Catholic Church in south Asia. With 218 seminarians currently studying for the 2024/2025 academic year, representing all 12 Sri Lankan mission dioceses and 13 different religious congregations, the seminary maintains its position as a truly national institution of formation. The year of 2025 marked the 71st anniversary of the seminary's academic institution, a milestone that reflects its enduring impact on the Church in Sri Lanka.

Fr Quintus, the seminary Rector shares: "The history of the National Seminary is a story of God's unfailing and benevolent love for the people in this country. During the last 70 years, the National Seminary has given birth to 1700 priests for the mission of the Church. Among them 21 are Bishops and 1 Cardinal... All these men of God have nourished the faith of our people and kept it alive to build the vibrant Catholic Church in Sri Lanka, that we are today."

One example of help is in Cambodia, where Missio supports Choum a teacher who says "We work very hard but I feel very happy, because I know that I can find myself in the children." Choum is a dedicated teacher at a Catholic kindergarten connected to Sacred Heart parish in Cambodia. Despite difficult conditions in the country, her mission of compassionate education for all children is a shining beacon of hope which is transforming her community.

To meet community needs, she explained, "I get up early, around 5am and I go to buy food for the children's lunch. Then around 6:30 I start to welcome the children because some of the parents need to go to the factory early."

Many parents in Choum's community work in factories. But many families have limited options or money for daycare, so children often stay home by themselves. Choum goes the extra mile to see that the children in her community have a safe place to learn and grow, opening the kindergarten doors at 6:30am to accommodate working parents' schedules.

Missio provides "Dignity through inclusive education". At Sacred Heart kindergarten, every child is welcomed with love and respect. Among the 40 pupils are children with Downs syndrome and severe autism, who are fully included and accepted into classroom activities. The kindergarten staff, including Choum and Sokha, an older Catholic parishioner, provide caring, patient attention to ensure all children feel valued and included. Choum makes sure the school nurtures the whole child. She does this by making sure that alongside their academic studies, the children also receive cultural education, physical activity and even brief meditation sessions.

It isn't always easy, since in poor communities many families have not been able to prioritise education. "Some children don't know how to hold a pencil. We have to hold their hands and help them. Khmer letters are very difficult. I needed to buy some easy [alphabet] books for the children." Under Choum's careful guidance, children learn numeracy, the complex Khmer alphabet, traditional dance and important social skills. Choum's dedication stems from her own difficult upbringing. Growing up in a family with eight siblings, she knows first-hand the challenges of poverty. Often, they went hungry and sometimes her parents didn't eat at all. But the local priest through the Red Boxes helped the family, by bringing them food when he could, and later, the Church through Missio supported Choum's education.

For Choum, teaching is more than a job—it's a mission, where she finds fulfilment and purpose. Despite the long hours and modest pay, she has discovered her vocation in nurturing children:

'With the children in the kindergarten I find my happiness. So it's okay even if I'm tired, for myself it's not a problem.' Her approach to education is rooted in a simple but crucial philosophy: 'I tell them, "I love you children. I love you all. Not just only one of you. I love you together"'

She says "Thank you to all Red Box benefactors."

In mission dioceses, the Church is often the main or sole provider of education and safe places where children can learn and grow. With your support, Missio can help dedicated teachers like Choum continue their vital work of providing quality, inclusive education that transforms lives and communities – in Cambodia and around the world. Thank you for being a sign of hope to communities in need.

On the missiontogether.org.uk website, there are great resources, such as PowerPoint presentations for whole school assemblies or class assemblies for the Primary and Secondary Schools on their website. This helps Headteachers, RE Leaders and all teachers to pass on the faith, deepen the children's prayer life and their awareness of missions overseas.

Our grateful thanks go to Mary Dearden, who is our Shrewsbury Diocesan Director and has visited over 90 schools in the Shrewsbury Diocese over the last 20 plus years of her service. Many thanks also to Theresa Codd who is the Missio Coordinator for the Northern Dioceses for her great work.

Through the help of Missio, Fr Anthony Chantry says, "The presence of a church building or school in areas of conflict, oppression and hopelessness can bring joy into people's lives. The church becomes a sign of God's presence among a suffering people, and it is within its walls, that people will be given the courage, to continue to witness to that presence outside. In this country where there is an excess of church buildings, this sounds somewhat strange to our ears but go to Myanmar – or a refugee camp in Thailand, or an oppressed community in Pakistan, or a township in South Africa, or a tiny island of Catholics in a sea of adversity such as Gaza– we will hear this message loud and clear. Their joy springs from God's presence among them and they need to celebrate this."

With your help through Missio and the Red Boxes, the National Seminary continues to play a vital role in Sri Lankan society, where Catholics represent a minority within the Christian population of 7.4%. Through its formation of future priests and engagement with contemporary challenges, the seminary remains committed to its mission of forming missionary priests for the third millennium, configured to Jesus Christ and rooted in his Word and the teachings of the Catholic Church. With your help, we can make sure that all vocations are given a chance to flourish. Many thanks.

Catholic Certificate Of Religious Studies – CCRS

Have you ever asked yourself questions such as, Who is Jesus? Why do we say Jesus is God? Why do we still read the Old Testament? Questions such as these are what the course explores in a series of eight separate modules. The modules explore the Old and New Testaments, the Person of Jesus, the Sacraments, the Church, Morality and an additional two from a choice of Liturgy, RE in the classroom, the Vision & Mission of Catholic schools and Parish Catechesis. In a world which seems to be tuned out from God and organised religion, exploring our faith, and coming to know God better, has never been more important. With the recent publication of the new RE directory, the course seeks to help those passing on the knowledge of our faith for the next generation to understand their own.

“The primary request from people who undertake CCRS, as well as those who provide or support it is for knowledge and understanding of the Catholic Faith Tradition. Lay people in schools, parishes, chaplaincies, youth, family members and other ministries are being asked to take on growing roles and responsibilities at a time when knowledge of faith and theology is declining. CCRS is by no means the only avenue for adult theological education. However, the research data indicates that it has stood the test of time and continues to attract many participants from different backgrounds, giving everyone who completes it the only nationally recognised award of the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of England and Wales.” (CCRS 25 Years On)

The Catholic Certificate of Religious Studies (CCRS) has for over a quarter of a century enabled those responsible for passing on our Catholic Christian Faith through education or catechesis to gain a deeper knowledge of that faith. This year we have retained two pathways for study approach; two Thursdays per module in person, the emphasis being on talking and learning together. The second pathway is more of a self-study approach, where we meet in person for a seminar at the beginning and the end of a module. We continue to explore the best ways to engage with adults who want to deepen their faith and welcome all suggestions.

Each module begins with the study of the scriptures which are the foundation of all the subjects which we explore as part of CCRS. Our study of the scriptures and the person of Christ can help to deepen our relationship with the Lord. It is written of Saint Dominic that “in his conversations and letters he often urged the brothers of the Order to study constantly the Old and New Testaments.” (From various writings on the history of the Order of Preachers)

Practically, the course can be completed over two years or a maximum of five years. It is divided into eight assessed modules, so you can start in one place and finish in another. Doing CCRS does require time and application, but it will deepen your understanding. Why not give it a try?

Shrewsbury Diocesan Planned Giving And Gift Aid Service

Giving

There is a tradition within the Church of sharing and mutual support in all its forms. There are many parishioners who offer practical help to their parishes and to those in need, who support through remembrance in prayer, as well as those giving financial support through the donations that are made. Even in these difficult economic times, it is humbling to see the continued commitment of parishioners to support their parishes, and the generosity that is shown.

In keeping with the increasingly cashless economy in which we live, we have continued to rollout contactless giving and now have 30 churches with a physical Dona station present, in conjunction with these stations we have an online presence that can be accessed through a QR code or a link on the parish website, they also provide an easy process to Gift Aid the donation. It has proved successful in those parishes in which it is operating, increasing the opportunity for people to give, particularly for second collections as well as regular offertory. We will continue to develop and enhance this facility to ensure that all parishioners are given the opportunity for giving at a level and in a way that is right for them.

Gift Aid

Gift Aid is an important part of giving, as it enables the Diocese to reclaim a tax rebate equivalent to the basic rate of income tax on a donation. This means that every £1 donated with Gift Aid generates an additional 25p for the Parish, with over £800,000 having been claimed on Offertory giving for the year to 31 March 2024. Not everyone currently adds Gift Aid to their donation, in part because it is only those who pay tax that are eligible to do so. In the coming months we will be asking parishioners to consider again if they are in a position to Gift Aid their offering, as this will assist in increasing the total funds which are given to the Church.

Curial Staff

The Curial Office staff can help and assist with new donations and Gift Aid forms, as well as offering support in maintaining parish accounts that now form an integral part of the gift aid function. The Gift Aid department is staffed by Sarah Russell and Jo Skerrett and both are supported by the Finance Manager, Paul Ridley. Please do contact them if you would like any help and assistance.

Message From The Bishop

Safeguarding is a task and commitment to which every member of the Church is called. Safeguarding is part of proclaiming the Gospel, for in all our efforts to care and protect the most vulnerable we give witness to Christ. The same Jesus, the Eternal Son of God who became vulnerable and defenceless as a tiny child entrusted to Our Lady and Saint Joseph. Today we can be grateful for so many in our Shrewsbury Diocese who serve the Church's mission in safeguarding, helping to make the home and family of the Church the safest of places for the young and the most vulnerable. We are thankful too for the invaluable network of volunteers and team of professionals at parish and diocesan level who help us all put safeguarding into practice in our communities and remind us of our shared responsibilities. With my thanks to everyone who is part of the Church's safeguarding mission today,

+ Mark
Rt Rev Mark Davies Bishop of Shrewsbury

Shrewsbury Diocese in line with the wider Catholic Church of England and Wales is committed to safeguarding as an integral part of the life and ministry of the Church. Every human being has a value and dignity which we, as Catholics, recognise as coming directly from God's creation of male and female in his own image and likeness. Therefore, our parishes and communities must be safe places of welcome where we support and protect one another. We must take particular care of those who may be vulnerable due to age, illness, disability or current and past experiences in their lives and respond compassionately to their needs to help keep them safe from harm or abuse. Everyone in the Catholic Church has a responsibility to safeguard and promote the wellbeing of those around them and those engaging in activities provided by the Church.

In Parishes

Safeguarding is rooted in everything the Diocese of Shrewsbury does and we continually aim to develop good practice for the benefit of all. In creating a robust safeguarding culture across the diocese, parish priests, other clergy and the laity have a key role to play. Clergy are aware of their safeguarding responsibilities and demonstrate their commitment to developing their knowledge through ongoing engagement with safeguarding training and continual support of parish activities. The diocese is incredibly fortunate to have a network of dedicated and vigilant Parish Safeguarding Representatives. These volunteer Safeguarding Representatives are key in ensuring the safer recruitment and support of all parish volunteers and activities.

Would you like to support your parish safeguarding team?

Please speak to your parish priest or contact the Diocese Safeguarding Office (Tel. 0151 652 9855 / safeguarding@dioceseofshrewsbury.org)

Diocesan Safeguarding Office Responsibilities

- Safe recruitment of all volunteers in parishes, groups, and organisations.
- Managing criminal record check applications as the diocesan countersignatory for the national registered body with the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS).
- Safe management of offenders living within our parish communities wishing to attend church. Work is undertaken with relevant statutory authorities and Safeguarding Plans (written agreements) are prepared to carefully manage safe boundaries. These arrangements are monitored and reviewed regularly in line with policy.
- Responding to allegations concerning any member of the Diocesan Catholic community. This involves working in close partnership with all statutory agencies to ensure any allegations of abuse are promptly and properly investigated so that victims and survivors are supported, and perpetrators held to account.
- Providing ongoing training and resources in child and adult at risk protection with clergy, lay individuals and groups across the diocese.
- Contribution to national safeguarding policy and practice developments through work with the Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency (CSSA).
- Representation as appropriate and links with local authority children's and adults social care boards and groups.
- Responsibility for safeguarding matters relating to the diocesan annual pilgrimage to Lourdes, including the safe recruitment of all pilgrimage volunteers.

Diocesan Trustee Safeguarding Sub-Committee.

The Shrewsbury Diocesan Safeguarding Sub-Committee has strategic oversight of the safeguarding work across the diocese and reports to the Board of Trustees. The sub-committee assists and promotes the importance of safeguarding across all diocesan activities and ministry, including the creation of safe church environments. A key role of the sub-committee is ensuring that responses to safeguarding matters are dealt with in a timely manner and statutory authorities are informed and cooperated with.

The sub-committee is Chaired by a Lay Safeguarding Trustee, other members include the diocesan Chancellor, Vicar General, Clergy Advisor, Financial Secretary and representatives from statutory authorities including the Police, Probation and Local Authority Social Care services.

Catholic Standards Safeguarding Agency (CSSA)

The Catholic Standards Safeguarding Agency CSSA is the central agency that has been created as the professional standards body to which all Catholic Dioceses in England and Wales are accountable. The CSSA holds a regulatory function monitoring compliance by Church bodies with the safeguarding standards adopted by the Church, using its own audit and review function. Through this, the CSSA has the powers to ensure that each Church body partnered with it, is complying with published standards. Further details about the CSSA can be found at www.catholicsafeguarding.org.uk

In 2024 Shrewsbury Diocese engaged with the CSSA to undergo a baseline audit of the diocesan safeguarding provision against the 8 national safeguarding standards as set by the CSSA. The overall grade achieved was 'Results Being Achieved'. The executive summary of the quality assurance report can be found here <https://catholicsafeguarding.org.uk/audits-and-reports/cssa-audit-reports/>

Responding to Allegations or Concerns

Wherever a child, young person or vulnerable adult is at risk, or concerns are raised we have a duty to act to safeguard that individual and promote their welfare. You can contact the Diocesan Safeguarding Office via phone or email to report any safeguarding concerns, past or present.

It is the policy of the Catholic Church across England & Wales to report all allegations of abuse to statutory authorities, regardless of whether the abuse occurred recently or in the past, or whether the accused person is living or deceased.

If you are in any role within the Catholic Church in England & Wales you must refer allegations directly to the diocesan Safeguarding Office, or directly to the police.

Please note the Safeguarding office is open Monday to Friday between 9am to 5pm. Emails and phone calls are not regularly monitored outside of these times.

If you are concerned about the welfare of a child or adult at risk, do not delay in contacting the police, using 999 if a child or adult is believed to be in immediate danger.

Victim and Survivor Voices

The diocese encourages victims and survivors of abuse to come forward and supports them to do so. The Elliott Review (2020) focussed on the importance of the voice of victims and survivors in shaping safeguarding services in the Church. "To provide an effective safeguarding service, it is imperative that the voice of those that have been harmed through their involvement with the Church, is heard and learnt from. We will respect and value their opinions, seeing them as wise consultants. All engagement will be done with humility, compassion, and empathy in the realisation that there is much to learn. Engaging with survivors will be approached in a way that reflects their needs, and at all times their wellbeing will be central".

The diocesan Safeguarding Office responds to victims and survivors professionally and in a sensitive way, understanding that sharing and disclosing information can be distressing. The office and its team provide a safe point of contact for any individual to raise safeguarding concerns and will facilitate appropriate support. The Shrewsbury Diocese Victim & Survivors Commitment document can be viewed at <https://www.dioceseofshrewsbury.org/safeguarding-victim-survivor-commitment-from-bishop-mark-davies/>

Safe Spaces

This is a free and independent support service, providing a confidential, personal, and safe space for anyone who has been abused through their relationship with either the Church of England, the Catholic Church of England and Wales or the Church in Wales. The First Light charity have been commissioned to run this national service, providing remote support through a helpline, live chat service and website. Remote support is provided for as long as the survivor needs. This can be advocating for the survivor, giving them support, providing information (including information on church and police procedures), understanding individual needs, and jointly working on individual support plans. If face-to-face support is also required, contact and referrals will be made with appropriate local organisations depending on need.

How can Safe Spaces help?

You can contact the Safe Spaces team Tel: 0300-303-1056, safespaces@firstlight.org.uk

Free Online Safeguarding Training

The Catholic Church is dependent on Clergy, Religious and lay people using their skills and talents to nurture and support the wider Catholic community. Some will be paid employees, but the majority undertake work on a voluntary basis, with many seeing their caring and support contribution as part of their Christian responsibility and ministry. Everybody has a role to play in safeguarding within their community and it is for this reason that the Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency (CSSA) has produced a free of charge e-learning package to raise safeguarding awareness.

Have you completed your essential safeguarding training?

If you are a volunteer in the Catholic Church, you have a responsibility for keeping people safe. Volunteers who are in roles with children or vulnerable adults are required to complete safeguarding training.

Level 1 - Basic Safeguarding Awareness.

Level 2 - Intermediate Safeguarding Training.

Level 3 - Advanced Safeguarding Training

(All volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults MUST complete Level 3).

The Management of Health and Safety in the Diocese of Shrewsbury

The Diocese seeks to honour its legal and moral obligations in all matters relating to Health and Safety by having a comprehensive approach that endeavours to deal with every level of diocesan activity.

Direction and responsibility rests initially with the Diocesan Trustees Health and Safety Sub-committee. This group manages and directs all matters relating to Health and Safety, thereafter, overall compliance rests with the Financial Secretary and day to day implementation and advice is undertaken by the designated Health and Safety Officer.

At a parish level, according to our Health and Safety Policy, the Parish Priest is responsible for managing the day to day health and safety matters within their parish, including the production of suitable risk assessments for activities pertaining to their parish, supported and assisted by their appointed volunteer Health and Safety Representative(s)/Assistance who have delegated duties for maintaining good health and safety practices and act as a point of contact between the parish and the Diocese Health and Safety Officer.

Each Church holds a copy of the Diocesan 'Health and Safety File' containing the Diocese Health and Safety Policy, Safety Guidance Notes, Risk Assessment templates and forms, for Parish reference and use. It is also an appropriate place to hold each churches Asbestos Surveys, Fire Risk Assessment Reports, Statutory Inspections, Health and Safety Inspection reports and Parish Activity Risk Assessments etc.

Our programmes of in-house Health and Safety Audits and Fire Risk Assessment Reviews are ongoing into their concluding year. These audits and reviews advise and report on the Parish compliance with legislation and good practice.

We are still engaging with external consultants for Asbestos Surveys Reviews and Initial Fire Risk Assessments for a small number of premises.

The Health and Safety Officer provides assistance to Parishes on special events that they may be organising; assisting in the preparation of Event Safety Plans and Event Risk Assessments. Over the last year these have included: A visit of the Relics of St. Columba to St. Annes, Rock Ferry; A walking Pilgrimage from St. Albans, Macclesfield to St Joseph Eucharistic Shrine, Stockport and opening Holy Name Church for participation in the Wirral Council Heritage Open Day.

There are also many things that Parishes can do to mitigate the risks that we are all exposed to from time to time by following simple guidelines and having in place a series of routine checks. This is where our valued volunteer Health and Safety Representatives/Assistance make their vital impact. Each Parish Priest is encouraged to recruit such designated volunteers to assist them in meeting their health and safety responsibilities.

It is important that these checks are carried out at regular intervals and recorded as they can form an essential account of the care we take of people and places.

If the following questions are regularly asked then many problems and hazards can be eliminated.

Are the emergency exits and escape routes clearly marked and unlocked when the premises are in use.

Are fire extinguishers inspected annually, are people aware of how and when to use fire extinguishers successfully

Are flammable materials safely stored.

Is the electrical installations inspected at least every five years and are the portable electrical appliances checked annually [PAT]

Is the gas installation inspected annually

Is the emergency lighting tested monthly

Is the lightning protection checked annually

Are the locations of all stop cocks and meters known and recorded

Is asbestos present in the building and if so where is the management plan for that asbestos kept and is the plan reviewed regularly.

Are all necessary safety signs clearly displayed?

Are all routes internal and external inspected weekly and are they free from trip and slip hazards? Is the lighting adequate in all public areas?

Are all trees, gravestones, and boundary walls inspected annually or after storms or serious events.

Are roofs inspected monthly or after storms for slipped slates and tiles and is vegetation growth removed promptly from gutters and valleys.

Are all hazardous materials such as cleaning products labelled and securely stored.

Are all keys and pass codes accounted for and kept safe.

Are parish accident books/forms completed of all incidents including near misses.

If there are specific concerns by any parish please contact the Health and Safety Officer.

Data Protection in 2025: Upholding the Law and Protecting the Faithful

Personal data is any information that relates to a living individual who can be identified, directly or indirectly, from that data. This includes names, contact details, photographs, donation records, or anything relating to a person's religious life and pastoral care.

In the UK, the handling of such data is governed by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. These laws require that personal data is used lawfully, fairly, and transparently; collected only for specific purposes; limited to what is necessary; accurate; stored securely; and retained only for as long as needed. For the Diocese, this covers a wide range of activity, from parish administration to safeguarding, catechesis, and the sacraments.

In June 2025, the data protection landscape evolved further with the introduction of the Data Use and Access Act 2025 (DUAA). This new law amends parts of GDPR and related regulations to reduce administrative burden, support responsible innovation, and clarify the rights and duties of organisations, while retaining the core principles of privacy and protection.

Key Legal Changes under the DUAA

Access Requests (DSARs): DSARs continue to be an important provision of GDPR as everybody has the right to access their own personal data held by an organisation. If you would like to make a DSAR, please contact me in writing with the details. If parishes, clergy or staff receive a DSAR, this should be passed to me as soon as possible so that it can be responded to appropriately. There are strict time limits for responding, so it is important that any requests are passed on immediately. Requests can be verbal, by email, text message (or similar), social media, or indeed by letter, so please be aware that they can come in any format. The Diocese must now conduct only "reasonable and proportionate" searches when responding to data access requests. If identity or scope needs to be confirmed, a new "stop the clock" rule allows more time to respond.

Recognised Legitimate Interests: Certain tasks, such as safeguarding, crime prevention, and public health, are now classed as "recognised" legitimate interests, meaning they do not require a full balancing assessment before data can be lawfully processed.

Automated Decision-Making: The DUAA relaxes some restrictions on automated decisions, though such methods must still include meaningful human involvement, especially where sensitive (special category) data is involved, such as religious belief or health information.

Research & Archives: Broad consent is now permitted for long-term archiving and historical research, including genealogical and parish history projects. In some cases, privacy notices may be omitted if providing them would require disproportionate effort.

Parish Communications & Cookies: Some types of cookies and analytics tools no longer require explicit consent. Churches and charities may now use a "soft opt-in" for email communications to individuals who've previously interacted with them, so long as opt-out options are clear.

ICO Powers & Complaints Handling: The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) now has expanded enforcement powers. All organisations, including churches, must also provide a process for individuals to raise concerns and ensure timely responses.

What This Means for the Diocese

These legal changes offer opportunities to streamline how we manage data in parishes, schools, and diocesan offices, especially in areas like safeguarding, email communications, and historical archives. However, they also require continued vigilance. We must regularly review privacy notices, procedures for handling data requests, and how we engage with third-party platforms.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

AI is reshaping the way organisations in the UK manage, analyse, and protect information, while also presenting fresh challenges for data protection. AI can strengthen security frameworks by supporting advanced threat detection, automating compliance checks, and identifying risks before they escalate. However, because AI systems rely on large volumes of personal and organisational data, they raise important concerns around transparency, fairness, and lawful processing under GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. To strike the right balance, AI must be used with strong governance, accountability, and privacy-by-design principles, ensuring that technological progress enhances, rather than compromises, public trust in data protection within the Diocese.

Conclusion

Above all, data protection remains a matter of pastoral care. As we adapt to changing laws, we do so not only out of legal obligation but as a reflection of our deeper commitment: to treat each individual's information with dignity, integrity, and respect.

If you have any queries, please contact me at the Curial Office. The Information Commissioners Office (ICO) website also has a wealth of information on data protection and can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

SHREWSBURY DIOCESAN (MARRIAGE) TRIBUNAL – A BRIEF OVERVIEW

Each diocese is required by the Church to have a Tribunal, which has the principal duty of giving a fair answer to questions concerning marriage. Most commonly the Tribunal is asked to make a judgement on the validity of a marriage which has broken down irretrievably. People who seek the services of the Tribunal have usually been through a civil divorce and in many cases, they have received counselling. The Tribunal is not a counselling service but may signpost you towards organisations or charities which could help.

The starting point of any enquiry is to establish if a marriage is valid, that is a marriage between two baptised people, which has been consummated. If in fact one of the parties to a broken marriage was not baptised, or if the marriage had not been consummated, the Tribunal will be able to help the parties to seek the dissolution of the marriage. If it was not a valid marriage, the Tribunal will declare it null and void, and the parties would then be free to marry.

Is this just a Catholic Divorce?

Certainly not; a divorce is a civil legal statement that a marriage has ended. The teaching of Christ himself is that a true marriage is for life and that no one can bring it to an end, even when the couple can no longer live amicably together. However, sometimes the bond between a man and woman created by the sacrament of Matrimony falls short of the full requirements of the sacrament. In other words, at the time of the marriage they both need to be free, not physically or emotionally impeded in any way, aware of the implications of marriage and able to take on its responsibilities. It happens sometimes that one or other of these elements is missing when the vows are exchanged and the contract is entered into; in such a case, however worthy the parties' intentions, a sacramental bond is not created, and the sacrament can be declared invalid. The parties can then be declared free to enter into another, sacramental, marriage.

We never heard of annulments in the old days. Is it getting easier?

Marriage has not changed, but our understanding of it is developing all the time. Together with the insights of modern psychology there is a growing awareness that some people are not able to make the commitment that marriage requires. As Tribunals have come to greater understanding, we can more easily recognise where marriages are in fact null and void.

What about the children? Will an annulment mean they become illegitimate?

No. In Canon Law children are legitimate if their parents are married at the time of their child's birth, even if that marriage is later annulled. Obviously, the decisions of the Tribunal have no effect in the law of England, and so if they are considered legitimate in civil law before the annulment is granted, they will remain so afterwards.

People who are divorced cannot receive the sacraments. Is this true?

No. The fact that a person is divorced is not a bar to receiving the sacraments. If a divorced person remarries during the lifetime of their partner, or lives with someone else as man and wife, they should not receive Communion. If their former partner dies however, or if they receive an annulment, they are free to marry and to continue receiving the sacraments.

Can a Catholic who wants to marry a divorced non-Catholic do so?

Not unless the non-Catholic has received an annulment. The Church recognises the marriages of non-Catholics as binding marriages in every sense. If the marriage of two non-Catholics breaks down neither is free to marry again in the eyes of the Church unless an annulment has been granted by the Catholic Tribunal. This is true even if the two non-Catholics had been married only in a Register Office, or in a Civil Marriage in a hotel or somewhere else.

Would it not be easier to forget the past and let divorced people marry again without all this fuss?

The Church must speak with the voice of Christ, and his teaching is very clear: what God has joined together, let no one separate. The Church has therefore to uphold and protect the bond of marriage. At the same time, we are often faced with the reality of relationships breaking down, and from the very earliest days the Church has tried to help such people. That is the purpose of the Tribunal: to help such people. While remaining true to the teaching of Christ, the Tribunal will establish facts about a marriage and to draw a conclusion from those facts. In this way, the parties can be declared free of the bond of marriage if it can be shown that theirs was never a true marriage.

Is there a cost?

No, the Tribunal does not charge for its service. It is funded by the Diocese, itself a charity, and it costs around £1,500 on average per case for the services of lay staff and in overhead costs. Petitioners are invited to make a contribution towards these costs if they are in a position to so do. However, no case is turned down on financial grounds.

How does one go about getting an annulment?

You can either speak to your local priest and ask him to help you to present a case to the Tribunal, or you can contact the Tribunal direct, our official title is:

The Shrewsbury Diocesan Tribunal, and we can be contacted at the Presbytery, Our Lady's, Cavendish St, Birkenhead, Wirral CH41 8AQ. 0151 670 0097 tribunal@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

25 Years (2001-2026)

Canon Jonathan Mitchell ..... 21 December 2001

*We thank you, Lord, for every priest who has faithfully
given his life “for the salvation of his brothers and sisters.”*

*We give thanks for those priests who have brought us your Word of truth, the grace of your Sacraments
and, above all, the supreme gift of the Holy Eucharist.*

*Lord Jesus, who called the Apostles to follow you, we ask you to raise up new and generous vocations to the Priesthood in our time.
Open the hearts of a new generation to your call.
Enable them not to be afraid but to recognise the joy of giving the whole of their lives in love
Through the same Christ our Lord.
Amen*

OTHER JURISDICTIONS

ORDER OF VIRGINS

Order of Consecrated Virgins

The Order of Virgins is a special expression of Consecrated life that blossomed anew in the Church after the Vatican Council. Its roots are ancient dating back to the dawn of Apostolic times. The ideal, truly lofty in itself, demands no special external change, each one remaining in her own life context in the world. An essential "rule of life" defines the commitment each one assumes, with the Bishop's consent. Our principal duty is to live totally for Christ in practising penance, works of mercy, apostolic works and prayer.

SECULAR INSTITUTES

Members of Secular Institutes are men and women who are dedicated by vow or promise, while living normal secular lives.

Caritas Christi:

Caritas Christi is an international secular institute for women in which members make a commitment for life to be totally given to God. Out of love they choose to live a celibate life in order to dedicate their love in its completeness to God, the Church and all people. Their service is given in the circumstances of their everyday lives. They remain lay people. If you are single or widowed and would like more information, write to: Caritas Christi, c/o Mrs Janet Horsfield, 11 Lightbourne Road, Sale M33 5FG Website: ccinfo.org

Leaven:

A Carmelite Secular Institute for single or widowed women who seek to dedicate themselves to God in their present circumstances in the world through the vows of poverty, celibacy and obedience according to Gospel values which are expressed in the constitutions of the Institute. There is a period of formation in accordance with Canon Law and all members meet for retreats and renewal weekends centred on Carmelite spirituality.

Order of Franciscans Secular (OFS)

Saint Francis of Assisi left us 'a Dream to dream and a Journey to challenge everyone'. All Franciscans are inspired by him to follow Christ. The Order of Franciscans Secular belongs to this family. In their secular state, members permanently commit themselves to live the Gospel as Francis did, following his Rule approved by the Pope. The OFS is open to the laity and diocesan clergy. There are more than 1,300 secular Franciscans in Great Britain. Gathering in fraternities, they strive to grow in the love of God and in peace with each other. In this way, they aspire to be faithful disciples of Christ.

Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites

The Carmelite family of Friars, Nuns and Secular members have a special charism to witness the importance of contemplative prayer. This way of life is lived by all. For the Secular members (both married and single) who live their life in the world, this entails a commitment to follow Christ according to one's state of life and a special 'Rule of Life' based on Carmelite tradition. The Carmelite way of life is an invitation to a deep friendship with Christ inspired by St Teresa of Avila and St John of the Cross. The monthly meetings are an opportunity for silent prayer, formation and building friendships which help strengthen our commitment.

OBITUARIES

Fr Denis Maher (1940-2024)

Father Denis Maher died on 17th October 2024 at Tameside Hospital, Ashton-Under-Lyne. He was in his 84th year, and in the 60th year of his Sacred Priesthood.

Denis was Born in Thurles, Co Tipperary on 12 April 1940, where he was educated and trained for the Priesthood at St Patrick's College. He was Ordained at Thurles Cathedral on 14 June 1964.

He was one of the dedicated Irish Priests who served on the English Mission. Denis was a Priest with many pastoral gifts, a great communicator and a wonderful Parish visitor.

I remember an occasion when I concelebrated at a funeral Mass with him and then observed him speaking to the family and others after the funeral. I soon realised that he had actually gone out and visited many of these people in the weeks prior to the funeral, a sign of his pastoral commitment.

Alongside these pastoral and social gifts, Denis was also a man of prayer, a dedicated Priest and someone who strived to live the Gospel each day. In the days following his death, kind wishes and expressions of sadness were received from the many Parishes in which he had served as Parish Priest, including St Vincent's, Bramhall, Our Lady of Fatima, Barnton and St Hugh's, West Timperley.

Fr Denis began his ministry as an Assistant Priest at St Saviour's, Great Sutton (1964-70), then served at St Peter's, Hazel Grove, St Lawrence, Birkenhead and St Joseph's, Stockport, but perhaps he will be best remembered for his work and ministry at the Parish of St Paul's, Hyde from 1996 to 2015.

During this long placement Denis became involved in the investigation, trial and subsequent imprisonment of the serial killer, Dr Harold Shipman. Denis was initially sceptical about the allegations against Harold Shipman but soon came to realise the depth of the enquiries that were being made. However, even as attitudes to Shipman started to change, Denis was always conscious of the need to avoid divisions in the Parish as Shipman was the Doctor of a large number of Parishioners and some didn't want to believe what was being said about him. Denis gained a higher profile in the media due to his night-time visits to Hyde Cemetery for exhumations and later he bravely gave evidence against Shipman at the trial.

His pastoral work and spiritual life told him to make an offer to visit Harold Shipman in prison, but this was not possible and Shipman eventually took his own life. In the years that followed I noted the great respect given to Denis from local Politicians, local people and the medical community for his hard work at this difficult time.

Following these tragic events, Denis' ministry in Hyde returned to that of the dedicated Parish Priest serving his community. He continued his work in building up the Parish and was always very persuasive in appointing new readers and ministers of Holy Communion and other parishioners to new positions in the Parish. Denis had a knack of reassuring people who didn't realise that they had the ability to do this work and gave them all the encouragement that they needed.

Denis eventually reached retirement age in 2015 and enjoyed his retirement with a fair amount of travelling, particularly to the USA where he had sometimes worked on placement, particularly at the Holy Family Parish in South Pasadena in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles from 2016 until 2022. In the Shrewsbury Diocese he remained resident at St Paul's Presbytery, Hyde and when he was home he was always available to offer supply to those Priests who asked him.

Fr Denis passed away on 17th October 2024 surrounded by his loving family who had travelled from England and Ireland. Denis, having received the final Sacraments from Father Isidore Madueke and myself, passed away gently at around 9 o'clock in the evening at Tameside Hospital. Denis will be remembered by so many people as a dedicated and talented Priest, a great visitor and communicator.

May he rest in peace.

Fr Gerard Ignatius McGuiness (1938-2025)

It is apposite that this obituary is written on the Feast of St Ignatius Loyola, the 31st July and what would have been Fr Gerard Ingatius McGuiness' 88th birthday. Fr Gerard was often known by many as 'Fr Ged' although he personally preferred to be addressed as Fr McGuiness or Fr Gerard. I also know among friends and close colleagues he used 'Ignatius' or 'Iggy'. It is because of his preferences that I will refer to him as Gerard and not some form of formal affectation.

Gerard McGuiness was born and raised in Sale in the borough of Trafford, alongside his three brothers and four sisters (the eldest, Frank, and youngest brothers both becoming priests). Gerard attended his local parochial Catholic school, St Joseph's Sale, where his father was the headmaster, before spending a brief time at St Bede's Grammar School in Manchester. At the tender age of fourteen in 1952 he was accepted as a student by Ushaw College where he was to spend the next eleven years.

He made several lifelong friends among whom he would number Fr Joseph Donlan and Fr Tom Keyworth. Gerard became Fr Gerard when he was ordained priest in his home parish church of St Joseph's, Sale on Sunday 16th June 1963 by the Right Reverend Eric Grasar, the 8th Bishop of Shrewsbury.

Education and seminary formation prepares a man to be ordained a priest, however sacred ordination is only the beginning. Then follows the work of growing into priesthood, and learning the skills necessary to becoming a good pastor. Gerard began his priestly life as an assistant priest in St Joseph's Upton (1963-1967) and then at St Theresa's, Blacon. It was during his years as a newly ordained priest that Gerard became a golfer, meeting those fellow curates who were expected to leave the presbytery on their day off and found fraternity in playing golf and shelter the clubhouse.

Fr Gerard attended Cambridge University, studying Modern History within the University's department of education. This prepared Gerard to take up a teaching role in the newly established Diocesan Grammar School of St Augustine's in Sharston Mount (Wythenshawe) from 1969 until 1974. There he joined his brother Mgr Frank McGuiness (headmaster) and fellow diocesan priests on the teaching staff: Frs Bob Abbot, Harry Stratton, Austin Smith, and Peter Phillips. Fr Gerard served during the heyday of St Augustine's, arriving two years after the foundation and leaving two before its closed (it was amalgamated into a new Catholic Comprehensive, which later became St Paul's). Fr Gerard returned to full time parish ministry in 1974 at St Werburgh's Chester, and then on to St Mary's Crewe.

Fr Gerard's very first appointment as a Parish Priest was in Shropshire. He was appointed Parish Priest in 1976 of Saint Mary's, Shifnal, which then also included RAF Cosford. This appointment lasted six years before Fr Gerard moved 'up north' to St Monica's, Appleton in 1982 where he served for the next nine years. Fr Gerard, whose love of study remained with him, was then granted a sabbatical year where he read for an MA at Bangor University in 1991. After gaining his Masters degree, between 1992-1993 he took up appointments on the Wirral at Our Lady's, Birkenhead and then at Saint Paul's, Beechwood.

Fr Gerard returned to Shropshire with his appointment as Parish Priest of St Winefride's, Monkmoor in 1993 and it was here where he was to remain until his retirement in 2007 and the amalgamation of the three parishes in Shrewsbury which followed.

'Retirement' is a figurative description for many of our 'retired' priests and Fr Gerard was very much part of the working parochial clergy in Shrewsbury. Fr Gerard undertook the weekly celebration of Mass in Extraordinary Form in Shrewsbury as well as covering other Masses in the parish schedule. He also had a personal ministry as a priest and as a personal friend to former parishioners offering care, the sacrament of confession and spiritual direction to a number of people. In a certain sense he was the presbyteral 'grandfather figure' of Catholic Shrewsbury. Gerard would often phone me, to advise me that 'N' was in hospital or would visit them himself.

I would often visit him for a chat (as did other priests) and take him a Christmas gift of a bottle of Hennessy (not any other cognac!) for which he was always appreciative. As time progressed, sadly age started to take its toll and he spent a number of periods in hospital before then finally moving into Montgomery House Nursing Home where he was visited by friends both lay and clerical up until his death.

Fr Gerard was a man who bore his academic and intellectual abilities lightly. A man who knew his own mind, with a particular sense of humour and fun. A priest of that generation which spanned the period before, during, and after the Second Vatican Council. He was one of those priests who are now fast disappearing, characters from a period of our diocesan life and collective memory. As a young priest I would listen to the folklore, stories and memories concerning the previous generation of presbyteral and episcopal characters from our diocesan history.

It is a testament to Fr Gerard that many former parishioners were solicitous about his welfare and visited him (the priest that had visited them so often) right up until the end. This speaks to the symbiotic relationship between priest and his parishioners in which both have a duty of care and mutual support for one another. To conclude let us ponder the gift of Fr Gerard's life (and our own particular vocation), in the words of St Ignatius Loyola:

"Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labour and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will. Amen."

May he rest in peace.

Monsignor Canon Peter Walton (1933-2024)

Monsignor Peter Walton was born in Liscard on 16th February 1933. He died on 21st October 2024 in his 91st year and in the 63rd year of his Priesthood.

Peter attended Saint Alban's Primary School, Liscard and was awarded a scholarship to Saint Anselm's College, Birkenhead for his secondary education. Peter passed the Bishop's Exam and was accepted to train for the Priesthood at St Cuthbert's College, Ushaw as a Junior Seminarian in 1947 and entered the Senior Seminary in 1952. From 1954 to 1957 he studied at the University of Durham.

Father Peter Walton was ordained to the Priesthood at Our Lady and the Apostles, Stockport on 4th June 1961. I remember being present in the congregation with my Mum and Dad as a seven year old. Following his ordination Father Peter Walton engaged in further studies at Cambridge University (1961-1962) before teaching at Ushaw College, Durham (1962 – 1973). I got to talk to Fr Peter on my first visit to Ushaw as an eleven-year-old. Serra, the organisation for fostering vocations to the priesthood, had arranged a Sunday coach trip for prospective seminarians and their fathers. We attended High Mass in St Cuthbert's chapel and then had a tour of the college and the grounds.

There were two Shrewsbury priests: Fr Vin Turnbull and Fr Peter Walton who made a point of talking to us that day and making us feel welcome. Fr Peter O'Neill came later. I got to know all three of them very well as they taught me Greek and Latin which, along with Mathematics taught by Fr Alec Barrass, were my favourite subjects at school and they all taught me for the seven years that I spent within those hallowed walls. I also became the student sacristan. This meant that Fr Peter Walton was my boss and I lived next door to him on President's Gallery in my final year in the house before I left to go to the English college in Rome.

Fr Peter taught at Ushaw for eleven years before returning to the Shrewsbury. Peter was happy to be back in the diocese. He asked to spend some time as a curate, as he felt unprepared after all those years at Ushaw to take on the full responsibilities of a parish priest. He was sent to Fr Ted Harrington at Our Lady's Stockport. He really enjoyed working with Ted for the two years he was there, 1973-75. It was, he said, a very rewarding experience to work with such a dedicated and warm-hearted pastor. Later Peter was sent to St Martin's Murdishaw as the first Parish Priest, where he was as happy as the day is long from 1975– 1981. In 1981 he was appointed Chairman of the School's Commission, 1981 – 1984, resident at Our Lady of Pity, Greasby and was appointed a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter.

Canon Peter Walton subsequently served as Parish Priest of Sacred Heart, Moreton for six months in 1984.

Then, to his considerable surprise, Peter was asked to return to Ushaw as president. He had to steer the college through very challenging times. He was not afraid to take decisive action where necessary. Having completed his term of office in 1991, Peter was anxious to return to pastoral work in the diocese and Bishop Gray named him as the new Parish Priest of St Joseph's, Sale in succession to Canon John Marmion. However, Peter was shortly summoned to see Cardinal Hume. The Cardinal wanted him to take on the leadership of the Beda College in Rome, a seminary for men of more mature years, the previous Rector having had to stand down due to ill health. Peter reluctantly agreed but would only be there for a little over a year.

He was now even more keen to take up his appointment at Parish Priest at St Joseph's, Sale and there he served until his retirement. Peter enjoyed his retirement on the Wirral near his family. He was a valued member at the local priests' Sunday lunch and continued to help and support the clergy and people of the local parishes. He loved living in his bungalow on Lymington Road in Wallasey, but fortunately, when the time came that he needed additional support, he made a good transition to Lighthouse Lodge where he was very well cared for until his death.

May he rest in peace.

CAFOD (Catholic Agency for Overseas Development)

We are an international development charity, the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England & Wales and part of Caritas International. At CAFOD, our mission is to work alongside the world's poorest people. We work without prejudice, we don't preach, and we pride ourselves on our diversity. We believe our Catholic values are best shown through our love for others, and by working for justice and an end to poverty.

CAFOD's vision, mission and values draw directly from Catholic Social Teaching, Scripture, Liturgy, the Gospel and the tradition of the Church. Catholic Social Teaching is at the heart of what we do and who we are. We are part of a Church network with a local presence in 165 countries and territories. As one of the largest aid networks in the world, by mobilising the power of the Catholic community in England & Wales we can help people in remote areas, in war zones and who are discriminated against. The Church often reaches the poorest people, in areas where social care and government structures aren't so strong.

CATENIAN ASSOCIATION

'I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.' Cardinal St John Henry Newman

Founded in Manchester in 1908 the Catenians are an international network of Catholics who meet regularly to enjoy each other's company, and to help and support each other and their communities. Catenians often have a role helping in the life of their parish and enjoy the friendship of their clergy and actively support vocations.

There are over 5,600 members within the UK, and across the Diocese there are a large number of Circles. Each Circle provides a varied social programme. Regular, relaxed events – sports activities, quiz nights, family fun days, charity fundraisers, and other social events – providing friendship, advice, opportunities, a listening ear and, when necessary, financial support via the Association's Benevolent Fund.

The Association was founded with a focus on the provision of development, training and opportunity for Catholic youth throughout the world. Today members continue that support led by its special-purpose charity the Catenian Bursary Fund (www.cateniansbursary.com) which offers financial support for young people to do something wonderful for others.

But since Christian charity is fundamental to our members, Circles also raise thousands of pounds for other good causes, both Christian and secular.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMUNITY IN ENGLAND & WALES

Christian Life Community (CLC) is not so much an organisation, but a way of life, inspired by the spirituality of St Ignatius of Loyola, for people who want to understand more deeply how God is at work in their everyday lives. Members embrace this way of life as a means of enabling them to bring together their faith and their lives; becoming aware of how God is working in them. Some come to CLC without any prior experience of Ignatian spirituality and others come after discovering Ignatian spirituality in various ways, such as weeks of guided prayer or retreats. We meet regularly in small groups to share and listen to how God is working in our lives. We aim to grow spiritually through daily prayer; support each other in community, through the ups and downs of ordinary life; and discover how God is calling us to serve him. Christian Life Community is made up of sixty national communities worldwide. We do not have a rule book, but a set of flexible General Principles which help to give shape to our lives.

CURSILLOS IN CHRISTIANITY

Very often, because we lead such busy lives, we do not have the time to pause and ask ourselves the questions:

- Who is Jesus to me?
- Why is my faith so important to me?
- What am I doing about my prayer life?
- How am I sharing my faith with others?

Pope Benedict reminded us that the Gospel must become life in the person - the person is to BE and BECOME the good news. Cursillo enriches and deepens our relationship with Christ. It gives us confidence to live as a Christian in our everyday life, loving one another as Christ loves us. Cursillos is a Church Movement approved by Pope Paul VI in 1966 who made St Paul its Patron Saint. The word Cursillo means 'Short Course'.

The experience enables-

- An encounter with God,
- An encounter with yourself,
- An encounter with others.
- An opportunity to experience, develop and share your 'gifts' in friendship with others.
- To enable people to discover and fulfil their personal vocations.

EQUESTRIAN ORDER OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE OF JERUSALEM LIEUTENANCY OF ENGLAND AND WALES

The Order of the Holy Sepulchre was first established under papal patronage in the twelfth century as a body of knights to defend the Church in the Holy land. In the nineteenth century Blessed Pius IX reconstituted the Order to support through prayer, pilgrimage and charitable giving the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem. In our times, the need for solidarity with the 'living stones' who maintain the catholic faith in the Holy Land does not diminish. The Lieutenancy of England and Wales is part of a worldwide organization of 30,000 knights and dames, priests and bishops, aiming to keep the faith alive and well where it first began.

FRIENDS OF THE HOLY LAND (FHL)

The Friends of the Holy Land (Registered Charity Number: 1130054) was established as a National Charity in 2009 and operates with the full backing and blessing of Catholic and Anglican Bishops in England and Wales.

The Charity aids the Christians in the Holy Land as it seeks to raise awareness of the challenges they experience, encourages prayers to be offered for their intentions, generates and channels financial resources to provide for a sustainable future and encourages pilgrim visits to the Holy Land including meeting with the local communities.

Support in the Holy Land includes organising repairs to deteriorating homes; financing the development and operation of a Day Care Centre for the elderly in Bethlehem; providing 'seed corn' funding for new businesses to bring employment in particular to the youth; offering help with medical bills and school fees, providing regular support to those families in most desperate need. The FHL is organised through Groups within Parishes in Anglican and Catholic Dioceses in England and Wales. A National Management Committee meets regularly and reports to the Trustees. It ensures there is accountability for all funds raised and distributed in the Holy Land by the DHL and its Holy Land partners.

LEGION OF MARY

A worldwide apostolic organisation for men and women, normally parish-based. The primary work of the Legion of Mary is that of the Church — to evangelise. Active members meet weekly to pray together, learn more about the Faith and organise work visits in the parish under the direction of the parish priest, all in union with Our Lady. Coming together in this way helps members to discover and deepen the joy of the Gospel message. It builds a sense of community and inspires greater confidence and enthusiasm for living and sharing the Gospel message with others. In their work, members invite others to become active in parish life, gently encourage those who have lapsed to return to the practise of their faith and invite those outside the Church to discover the treasures of the Catholic Faith. They also visit and support sick and isolated members of the parish community. Auxiliary members do not undertake active work but support the work of the Legion of Mary by a commitment to prayer.

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

A chance for married couples to deepen their love for one another and for them and their priests to grow closer to parish family and God.

Marriage Encounter is a weekend experience for couples who have a good relationship, to enrich and improve their awareness of each other and their marriage. The weekend is spent together, away from all the distractions of the modern world, so that the couple have the fullest opportunity to focus on their marriage in total privacy. The weekend gives them the chance to realise how important their unique relationship is to each other, their families, their parish, and the world, and how this fits in to God's plan. Priests also have an opportunity to renew their relationships with their parish or community and to gain a deeper appreciation of their vocation. Weekends are held at various centres throughout the country with residential, non-residential and online experiences. We also hold Engaged Encounter weekends which are an excellent and worthwhile preparation for the Sacrament of Matrimony.

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL (England & Wales)

The St Vincent de Paul Society (SVP) is an international organisation operating in 150 countries, and has over 700,000 members. The Society's aim is to enable members to turn their Christian concern for others into practical action by helping people in need in their neighbourhood. Our Society also helps overseas by transferring aid to Vincentians in poor countries.

In England and Wales the SVP gives support to the homeless, refugees and asylum seekers, sick and lonely people, and indeed anyone who needs to feel the love of Christ in their lives. We also run special works including support centres, children's summer camps, caravan holiday homes for families, furniture and clothing stores, and charity shops.

In the Diocese we have conferences in many parishes, as well as Mini Vinnies in most primary schools and Youth SVP in most high schools and 6th form colleges.

We run two children's holiday camps each year and we have a static holiday caravan in north Wales which we use to provide free holiday accommodation for families in need. For further information about these contact the Central Council President.

We are a Catholic society, but we also have a strong ecumenical ethos. As such, we welcome members from all denominations that share our commitment to Christian values. We also co-operate actively with organisations such as Local Authority Social Services Departments, Citizens Advice Bureaux, prison chaplaincies, and other bodies working in the same field as ourselves.

If you can spare some time to help us in this important work for God and His friends in need, please contact your parish priest for further details.

YOUNG CHRISTIAN WORKERS & IMPACT

The Young Christian Workers (YCW) is an international movement for young people run by young people. It aims to train and form young people (11-30) to make sense of their faith in their everyday lives and responsibilities so that they can act more fully in their own unique daily mission towards a more just and Christian society. Impact is a programme developed by the YCW for younger members. It places strong emphasis on action led by young people themselves and personal development. It aims to help them explore the link between faith and life in a way which is fun, innovative and empowers them to action. The programme is ideal for post confirmation groups, school groups and general youth work.

YOUTH 2000

Youth 2000 seeks to draw young people into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, lived at the heart of the Catholic Church. It does this primarily through weekend retreats, an annual summer festival and through both online and in-person formation programmes. The young people are introduced to the essentials of the Catholic faith in a lively and vibrant way: Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, Confession, Scripture, Devotion to Our Lady. These retreats are opportunities for young people to experience the love of God, to receive the grace of conversion, to witness their peers actively living their faith and to begin living anew the Christian life for themselves.

I enjoy using Caspar because it puts the parishioners at the heart and centre of Parish Administration.

*Fr Derek Turnham,
St Anne's, Wendover*

It can seem daunting when one is faced with all the administration that comes with running a parish, as if there is no time for anything else.

That is where Caspar comes in!

Caspar is an easy-to-use system that takes away the burden of parish admin and allows more time for pastoral ministry.

*Fr Brendan Seery,
Chancellor,
Northampton Diocese*
