BISHOP PETER'S FOREWORD

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The text in the Roman Pontifical for the Ordination of a Bishop addresses the candidate thus: "Always be mindful of the Good Shepherd, who knows his sheep and is known by them and who did not hesitate to lay down his life for them. As a father and brother, love all those whom God places in your care."

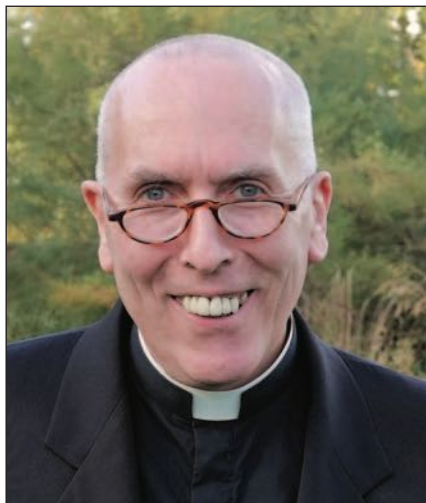

In the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, I greet you joyfully as your new bishop, conscious that I am called to be "Teacher, Priest and Shepherd".

I have come from Wales, where I was born and nurtured within the embrace of a loving family and a strong local community, living at the head of the Rhymney Valley. The floor of the valley had the remnants of coal pits that had ceased production in the 50s and 60s. The hillsides sustained sheep farming and the hilltops were my playground, providing views of the yet higher escarpments of the Brecon Beacons. I left my home to undertake my seminary formation upon the wide expanse of the Castilian Plain in central Spain, a suitable preparation for the horizons of East Anglia. I was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Cardiff in 1984.

Alongside the central thread of my parish ministry, I have been heavily involved in vocational formation, in the provision and sustenance of Catholic education and in the arena of safeguarding. Trusting in God's providential grace and mercy, I rejoice to be in your midst as your bishop. I have to admit that East Anglia is the part of England I know least, but my education will be swift over the coming year regarding its geography and history.

The announcement of my appointment came on the Feast of St John XXIII and marked the sixtieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council. This commemoration reminds us that Pope Francis has called us all to participate in the Synodal process of deliberation and reflection so that we might better embrace and implement the vision and teaching of the Council.

In the statement which I delivered in St John's Cathedral on October 11 at the announcement of my appointment, I reminded myself and all those listening that the Lord loves us beyond measure, that he is calling us to a particular service and that he entrusts to us the 'Good News' which must be shared with the whole world. Whether we be young or old, let us recognise that the voice of the Lord is consistent and insistent when he calls us to follow him wherever he leads.

In communion with the whole diocese, I give thanks to Almighty God for the apostolic ministry of Bishop Alan over the past nine years. He has been a faithful servant and a most generous pastor. I wish to thank him for the warmth of the welcome he has extended to me as his successor and I will undoubtedly be drawing upon his wisdom and experience in the days ahead. We wish him a happy and fruitful retirement as he settles into his new home in Cambridge.

Bishop Alan has informed me regarding the pattern of events and achievements that have marked the past year in the life of our diocese. There was rejoicing last September in Peterborough when the St John Henry Newman School was opened, the first new Catholic school to be built in England in over a decade. We offer our gratitude and congratulations to all those who contributed to the success of this enterprise. The past year brought many people back to the pathways of pilgrimage. The National Catholic Shrine in Walsingham received large crowds, not least our own Diocesan and Children's pilgrimages. We look forward to further recovery in the coming year.

The past year saw many of our parishes proactively addressing the needs of our Ukrainian brothers and sisters in the midst of their great suffering. In relation to this great pastoral effort, we are particularly grateful for the coordinating role exercised by St Olga's Greek Catholic Church in Peterborough.

I was delighted to hear of the opening of the St Rosalie Rendu House in Norfolk, a project run by the SVP that addresses the needs of the homeless. Two other houses for the homeless have been opened in Cambs, an initiative undertaken in partnership with the charity Hope into Action. We can also report on the opening of the beautiful cedarwood Special Needs Unit at St Edmunds Primary School in Bury St Edmunds.

The past year brought some significant personnel changes to the Diocesan Curia: Paul Raynes is Director of Operations and Finance; Dr Andy Stone is Director of Education; Dr Anthonia Braithwaite is Marriage and Family Life Co-ordinator; Fr Alan Hodgson is Cathedral Dean; Fr Paul Keane is Catholic Chaplain to the University of Cambridge, based at Fisher House; Fr Toby Lees OP is Director of Radio Maria England; Sophie, Louise and Elliott joined Hamish and Ciaran in the Ignite Youth Team. My thanks to them all for their dedication in service to the life of the diocese.

The Holy Father has now made clear that the Synod will be celebrated across two sessions, one in 2023 followed by another in 2024. This expansion will enable a more effective engagement with the agenda. The Synodal Pathway has already born fruit through patterns of deep reflection, the collation of a spectrum of opinions and the establishment of enhanced communication. As we commit ourselves to the ongoing process we can look forward to great fruitfulness in service to the great work of evangelisation.

I am so looking forward to meeting you all, in our parishes and schools, in our religious houses and chaplaincies. I know that I am joining a vibrant diocese, diverse in make-up yet united in purpose. I offer you the assurance of my prayers and I ask that you keep me at the heart of yours. May God's graceful blessing be upon all our endeavours.

Rt Rev Peter Collins, Bishop of East Anglia

The Diocese of East Anglia is a suffragan diocese within the Province of Westminster, erected on 13 March 1976 by the decree Quod Ecumenicum of Pope Paul VI, using territory taken from the Diocese of Northampton, which was created in 1850. After the Reformation, the area of East Anglia was soon placed under the care of the Vicars Apostolic of the Midland District, and later of the Eastern District, until the hierarchy was restored by Pope Blessed Pius IX. Today, the Diocese incorporates the English counties of Norfolk, Suffolk and Cambridgeshire and the city of Peterborough.

THE BISHOP

V The Rt Rev Peter Gwilym Collins was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Cardiff on July 14, 1984. He served in Cardiff and Bridgend and was appointed as Vice Rector at the Royal English College, from 1989-94. In 2001 he became Dean of the Metropolitan Cathedral in Cardiff. He was appointed as Bishop of East Anglia in October 2022 and ordained at St John's Cathedral on December 14, 2022.

The Bishop's Predecessors

IV: The Rt Rev Alan Stephen Hopes BD AKC converted to Catholicism in 1994 and was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Westminster the following year. He was ordained to the episcopate by Cardinal Murphy-O'Connor in 2003, as Titular Bishop of Chester-le-Street, and serving as auxiliary bishop in Westminster. He was appointed Bishop of East Anglia in 2013 and was installed in Norwich on July 16.

III The Rt Rev Michael Charles Evans was ordained Bishop of East Anglia by Cardinal Murphy-O'Connor in 2003 and served the Diocese until his death in 2011. His corporal remains are buried in St John's Cathedral in Norwich.

II The Most Rev Peter David Smith was ordained Bishop of East Anglia by Cardinal Hume in 1995 and served as bishop until 2001, when he was translated to the See of Cardiff. In 2010, he became Archbishop of Southwark, until his retirement in 2019. He died in 2020 and is buried in Southwark Cathedral.

I The Rt Rev Alan Charles Clark was the first bishop of the new Diocese, from its creation in 1976 until his resignation in 1995. He was previously Titular Bishop of Elmham and Auxiliary Bishop of Northampton. He died in 2002 and is buried in Walsingham.

Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies (CCRS)

The Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies (CCRS) is managed and awarded by the Board of Religious Studies on behalf of the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales. Any person who is or wishes to be involved in Catholic education and formation may apply for this course. This includes those involved in Religious Education in schools, Parish Catechesis and other ministries in the Church and anyone who wishes to follow the course for faith development or personal interest. The course seeks to ensure that participants have at least a basic knowledge and understanding of the beliefs of the Catholic Faith. It also provides a basis for further study.

The course is designed for teachers in Catholic schools; that they may have a basic understanding of the Church, its teaching and way of life to enable them to contribute to the maintenance of the ethos of the Catholic school. It is also for catechists in order to give them a basic understanding of the faith of the Catholic Church as a foundation for their catechetical ministry, and for adult members of the Church to enable them to continue to grow in understanding as they live their Catholic faith.

LISTENING AND PRAYER MINISTRY

This is a lay-led service for parishioners in need. Helpers are trained to handle situations such as bereavement, health issues, family and relationship problems, faith issues, depression, abuse, anxieties, workplace difficulties and life problems, amongst others. Over 18s only. Pairs of trained Helpers listen to and pray with those in need, either in local parish rooms or online on Zoom, to talk through their personal concerns in a Catholic context. All Helpers have undergone training in prayer, listening, spiritual guidance, safeguarding and GDPR.

Tel: 01603 957653. All calls are confidential and calls will be returned within 48 hours. This number is not a crisis line but a booking system.

CARITAS EAST ANGLIA

Caritas East Anglia supports the poor and the marginalised in three ways: by promoting Catholic Social Teaching; through project grants and emergency aid; and by supporting those involved in social outreach. Our diocese is a member organisation of Caritas Social Action Network (CSAN) which is an agency of the Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales.

Catholic Social Teaching is the teaching of the Church on social responsibility, based on Papal Encyclicals and other documents. These reflect upon Jesus' command to 'love your neighbour as yourself' (Mk 12:31) and show us how to share God's love by our actions towards all our sisters and brothers. Articles exploring CST can be found in the diocesan paper and on our website: www.rcdea.org.uk/catholic-social-teaching

Financial assistance is available in two forms to those in need.

The St Edmund's Fund provides crisis grants to individuals or families.

Alive in Faith grants are awarded to support local social outreach projects within parishes, examples of which can be seen on the diocesan website:

www.rcdea.org.uk/caritas-east-anglia

For details of both funds, please contact your parish priest.

Be part of our global network.

The Catenian Association welcomes new members to our international social network of Catholic men committed to friendship, family and Faith.

Our local Circles are active throughout the U.K., Ireland, Australia, Malta, India, Bangladesh, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

Our U.K. Circles raised over £250,000 in the past year for local charities as well as supporting the Association's two in-house charities; the Benevolent Fund which supports members and their families and the Bursary Fund which sponsors young persons in projects contributing to wider society at home and abroad.

Our Circles meet monthly and arrange activities both for members and their families, including meals together, barbecues, picnics, theatre visits, music and sporting events.

Golf societies throughout the Association join together in a National Golf Championship week every year and the Catenian Caravan and Camping Fellowship have a popular range of special events

DECEMBER 2022: Bishop Peter Collins was ordained as the fifth Bishop of East Anglia during a Mass at St John's Cathedral in Norwich.

Bishop Alan lays his hands on Dcn Gianluca Savini during his Ordination Mass.

Deacon Gianluca Savini

Bishop Alan ordained Gianluca Savini at St John's Cathedral in Norwich in July as a permanent deacon for the diocese. Eldred Willey reports.

■ Gianluca Savini will be serving at Our Lady and the English Martyrs, Cambridge. He is married to Erminia and they have four children.

He was born in Italy, near Ravenna, and raised by his grandmother Angiulina, while his parents were working. The grandma's house was beside the church of St Joseph in Fiumazzo and very often the local priest, Don Pio, would come to chat and relax.

Angiulina was a woman of great faith. Gianluca was raised as Catholic, and she had always found peace and joy being in the church.

After college, he wanted to understand big questions such as 'why we are here', 'what is the purpose of life' and he thought that Theoretical Physics was the key to understand the universe and therefore our Creator, God, and therefore be happy.

He spent about 22 years studying physics and was a researcher at Sussex University (as lecturer), Osaka University (JSPS fellow) and Cambridge University.

One day, while working at the university, his heartbeat rose to 120 beats/minute and this continued for about three months. Suddenly he realised that his work was not fulfilling anymore, and he took the difficult decision to leave academia.

He started his own business, buying and selling online, to have more time to think. Running a business was easier than being a scientist, but at the same time he had more responsibilities and soon new problems arose.

This was the time he first questioned God and understood that following Jesus was the key to understanding the universe, our Creator, and to being happy.

He asked God what he should do to follow Jesus, and the answer was simple: "Stay closer to the priest at the altar as much as you can". This was his call for the diaconate, in early 2013.

He started to serve at Mass as altar server while pondering and discerning this vocation. Other big problems arose, and he questioned God again and again, and every time his faith became stronger and stronger.

In the 2017, he spoke with Rev Patrick Cleary, the diocesan Director of Vocations, about his call for the diaconate and at the end of that year he submitted his application to be considered for the permanent diaconate.

His thought about his vocation is to always live your life in full, and aim for the top, we are children of God, the Most High, and thus nothing is impossible for us. Gianluca's ordination took place on Saturday July 2.

Roof Detail of St Mary's, Great Yarmouth

St Mary's, Great Yarmouth

St Peter the Apostle, Gorleston

Our team is proud to support our Diocese of East Anglia in care and stewardship for its renowned heritage. We are an award-winning architectural practice and heritage consultancy, founded in Cambridge, and deliver accomplished and sustainable projects on all building types, particularly those of the highest heritage value. We are active in our region, assessing buildings through Quinquennial Inspections, scheduling repairs, and managing sensitive changes and improvements. Our recent projects include window repairs at St Peter the Apostle in Gorleston and retiling of the Quire and Nave at St Mary's in Great Yarmouth. Both well-loved churches are now protected for the future, equipped to continue serving their active congregations. We are looking forward to helping communities across East Anglia maintain their heritage in 2023.

Queen Elizabeth II

Bishop Alan pays tribute to the extraordinary dedication and life of service of Queen Elizabeth II, who was inspired by her strong Christian faith.

■ The sudden death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II at the age of 96 on September 8, shocked and saddened us all across the nation, the Commonwealth and the world.

The Queen, throughout her life, has made an incredible impression on all whom she has met and on a multitude of those she has not.

In 1947, five years before she ascended to the throne, the then Princess Elizabeth promised the people of Britain and the Commonwealth that “my whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service.”

She kept that promise, with extraordinary dedication for over 70 years. In her service of the nation and the Commonwealth, in her witness to family life, in her love for people and her work for the common good, she has been an inspiration to so many of us.

In her turn, all that she did was underpinned and inspired by her profound Christian faith, a faith which she publicly proclaimed: “For me, the life of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace... is an inspiration and an anchor in my life.”

We thank God for her life, her dedicated service and witness. And we continue to pray for her that God will grant her a place of light, peace and rest in his Presence, reunited with her beloved Prince Philip.

Fr Martin Kitchener Orme

Tributes have been paid following the death of Ipswich priest, Fr Martin Orme (1927-2022), who recently celebrated 25 years in the Catholic priesthood, writes Fr Russell Frost.

■ Despite his middle name, Martin was too young to take up arms in World War II, but immediately after that conflict he obeyed the “call up” from God to serve in the Church. His initial training for the Anglican ministry was undertaken at King’s College, London, gaining the Bachelor of Divinity degree (and Associate of King’s College) in 1950.

Later Martin was to gain the BA degree of the Open University in 1975, for his thirst for truth was never quenched. Sadly the work and material he had assembled for a Master of Arts degree through Heythrop in his eighties was all lost through a computer glitch.

After two curacies in the North-West he volunteered for service in the Royal Navy, and this was his ministry for the next 20 years or so, moving to be Chaplain of the Royal Hospital School at Holbrook in Ipswich in 1978, retiring from there in 1987.

After a few years as Priest-in-Charge of St Mary at the Elms in Ipswich, he and his wife, Jean, made the courageous decision to be received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. Jean supported Martin magnificently throughout their married life, at the same time pursuing her own career as a nurse and midwife, and raising their six children.

Fr James Walsh, then Parish Priest of St Mary Magdalen, Ipswich, suggested to Martin (by then aged nearly 70) to offer himself to the Bishop of East Anglia for ordination to the Catholic priesthood. Bishop Peter Smith was delighted to accept, and in March 1997, Martin was ordained.

His wisdom, experience and integrity were of the greatest support to Fr James, and later to Fr Michael Griffin and Fr Russell Frost.

Ten years later, Martin judged the time had come for him to “retire” finally, to actually worship side-by-side with his wife. They lived in the parish of St Pancras, Ipswich, and Martin was inevitably pressed into service again by Fr Sam Leeder. Only the advancing dementia of Jean brought this era of self-sacrifice to a close.

Jean died in 2021 and Martin followed just a year later, dying on Tuesday, October 18. It would have delighted him that he died on the Feast of St Luke, the gospel-writer, for the prime purpose of any priest is to proclaim the Gospel of Christ, the Good News of salvation. In this, Martin excelled, in word and in deed, and his eloquence and skill have brought many to love and serve the Lord.

Fr Jeremy Davies

Fr Jeremy Davies, a priest of the Diocese of Westminster who was living in Walsingham, passed away on November 5. Mgr Martin Hayes, Vicar General of Westminster, writes.

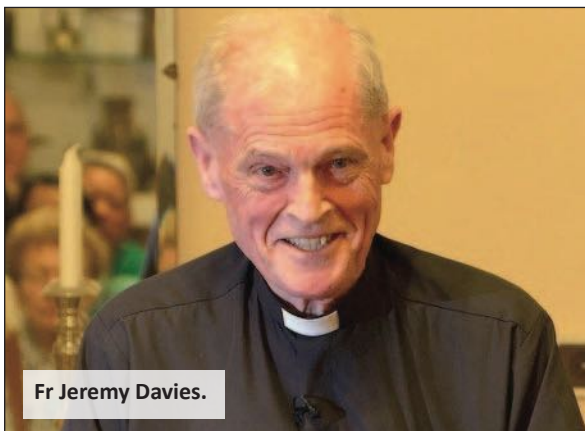

■ Fr Jeremy Ponsonby Meredyth Davies touched the lives of countless people because of his ministry as a priest and his writings, talks and witness. His specialist ministry, as a priest trained and mandated for ministry as an exorcist, brought comfort and healing to people over many years.

Born in Wimbledon, London, on March 25, 1935, and ordained to the priesthood in Rome on April 15, 1974, Fr Jeremy died peacefully close to his beloved Walsingham at the age of 87 having served as a priest for 48 years.

Jeremy became a Catholic in 1966 at the age of 31 when he was baptised at the church of St Charles Borromeo, Ogle Street. His was a ‘conditional baptism’ because it was not known if he had already been baptised. His parents were not Catholic. His mother, Elizabeth, tragically died in a plane crash when Jeremy was 18. His father, Idris, was a successful garage proprietor.

Jeremy did well at school. He was educated at King’s School, Canterbury, than at St Edmund Hall, Oxford from 1954 – 57. He graduated in English Language and Literature. He then worked in the market research office of an advertising agency for two years, followed by a job as an air steward with a commercial airline for a year.

When he was about 25, Jeremy had serious thoughts about becoming a Catholic. A good friend from university days had done so and encouraged Jeremy. In 1961 he began studies as a medical student at St Bartholomew's Hospital in London where he was based until qualifying in 1967. By then he was a Catholic, convinced that joining the Church was the right decision, often recalling the date of his baptism, October 21, 1966, as the happiest day of his life.

Newly qualified, Dr Davies spent time overseas practising in mission stations and for six months worked as a House Surgeon at Redhill General Hospital. His thoughts about becoming a priest developed during his time as a medical student. He was encouraged to complete his studies and then to pursue the possibility of a vocation to the priesthood. This he did and was accepted as a student for the Diocese of Westminster by Cardinal John Heenan and sent to Rome.

At the Pontifical Beda College, Rome, where Jeremy was a seminarian from 1970 – 74, he was described by the Rector as 'an outstanding person and excellent in all respects. Above all, he saw his time in Rome as a time for discernment of God's will for his life. On December 15, 1973, he was ordained to the diaconate and to the priesthood on April 15 the following year. Fr Jeremy was then appointed to Westminster Cathedral where he joined the team of chaplains from 1974 – 76.

His next appointment was to St Mary's, Cadogan Street in Chelsea and he then went to St James's, Spanish Place in 1979 where he served as Assistant Priest until 1997. It was during this time that Fr Jeremy undertook training for the ministry of exorcist, returning to Rome for this. He was mandated for this ministry by Cardinal Hume in 1987. Six years later he and others established the International Association of Exorcists.

While based at Spanish Place, Fr Jeremy became increasingly involved with the Pro-Life Movement. In 1984 he established the annual Pilgrimage of Reparation and Prayer for the Sanctity of Life held in Walsingham. Fr Jeremy's next appointment was to Puckridge and Old Hall Green in Herts where he served as Parish Priest from 1997 – 2005.

In April 2005, Fr Jeremy moved to live at Our Lady Help of Christians, in Luton, where he assisted in parish ministry and with time for talks, conferences and workshops. He travelled widely in Europe, America, Australia and Africa and maintained contact with numerous people by writing letters, always by hand. In March 2021 he moved from Luton to Walsingham.

In October Fr Jeremy moved from Walsingham to nearby Fakenham where his increased need of care could be met. On November 5, Fr Jeremy died peacefully.

Fr Francis Leeder

Fr Francis ‘Sam’ Leeder, who served as a priest at St Pancras in Ipswich for almost 45 years, died on February 13, aged 82.

■ Bishop Alan Hopes writes: “In the death of Fr Sam Leeder we have lost an example of a true pastor who gave himself totally to the people of his parish, St Pancras in Ipswich, where he served both as an Assistant and later as the Parish Priest for a total of 45 years. The Diocese is grateful to him for his deep commitment to the Church and to the priesthood and offer their prayers and sympathy to his niece and nephew who survive him. May he rest in peace.”

Fr Leeder was recovering in Ipswich Hospital following a knee operation and was undergoing physiotherapy when he died unexpectedly from a heart attack. He had received Communion from Bishop Alan on the day before he died.

Fr Francis Leeder with his retirement cakes in 2019.

He had first gone to St Pancras in 1963 before moving to St John’s, Norwich (now the cathedral) in 1970 and then to Woodbridge in 1973 before returning to St Pancras where he served as parish priest until retiring in 2019, aged 80, to live in Melton.

Fr Joseph Welch, the current parish priest at St Pancras writes: “Fr Leeder was a very devoted and much-loved parish priest. His first placement as a curate was at St Pancras under, first, Canon John Thompson, then Fr Edward McBride, and finally Fr Norman Smith, during which time he re-formed the 12th Ipswich Scout Group.

“How even to begin to recount the countless thousands of kindnesses and amusing anecdotes? Stories abound about railways, boating, scouting, pubs, Tavern Evenings, and roundabouts. His quirky ways will be remembered by many, and for years to come.” “Sam had a strong faith which led him to be totally committed to his parishioners,” remembers Fr Pat Cleary, “especially those less fortunate. Those who were sick were always well looked after as well as those who sought his wise council. He was always generous, perhaps over generous to people at the door looking for help.

“Had it not been for Sam I doubt I’d be a priest today, so I owe him a lot, I’m sure many would say the same for a variety of reasons.”

At the time of his retirement Fr Leeder said: "I have had a great life. People have been so kind to me. I shall leave St Pancras with many happy memories and warm feelings as a result of the support that I have enjoyed from parishioners."

"He was reluctant to retire," writes Stephen Griggs, who served as parish chairman for many years. "I recall him saying he would have been happy to leave St Pancras when they carry me out in a box. He possessed an ability to uphold the teachings of the Catholic faith without being judgemental and exuded unlimited compassion. Never fearful of mixing with the secular world, he was well known in the world of sailing on the Deben."

"Fr Leeder was a real role model," writes Julian Wong. "He kept the church open all the time. I went there to pray a lot, and that was how I became a Catholic."

"Many people in the town will remember him," writes Stephen Donaghy. "His good humour and twinkling smile. May he rest in peace."

A requiem Mass for Fr Leeder was celebrated on February 16 at St Pancras in Ipswich.

Fr John Fowler

Retired Diocese of East Anglia priest, Fr John Fowler, has died after more than 60 years of ministry in the Catholic and Anglican churches. Fr Tony Shryane pays tribute.

■ John was ordained as a priest in the Catholic Church for the Diocese of East Anglia by Bishop Peter Smith on the Feast of Our Lady of Walsingham, September 24, 1999, at the Church of St Etheldreda's, Ely.

After ordination in the Anglican Church he was placed at St Sidwell's in Georgetown, Guyana, on November 2 1961.

He was moved shortly afterwards, in January 1962, to live in the North West District. Here there were no roads and so he went everywhere by boat. Cecily and John were married in 1963.

They moved back to England in 1965. Later in 1965 they returned to Guyana to St Paul's Plaisance but this was only for four years.

After a short break John returned to St Paul's for a further six years. At this time he became Archdeacon, with all the responsibilities attached to that post.

Back in England, he also served in Sydenham and Coventry and again in Guyana before moving to Bedford in 1990. John retired from a fruitful and varied ministry in the Anglican Church from St Michael's Bedford and moved with his wife Cecily and their son Andrew to a small house in Sutton near Ely in September 1995.

John and Cecily and Andrew were Received into the Catholic Church in Ely, on December 23, 1995.

During his time in Ely he was well loved for his generosity and cheerfulness. He continued to help out and supply so that other clergy could get away. He was a regular visitor to Addenbrookes Hospital as part of the Chaplaincy team.

Fr John retired to Wellingborough in 2007 and although he still helped, he finally was unable to continue through ill health. After various visits to Kettering General and with care at home he died at home on August 5.

Sister Pat Robb CJ

A tireless campaigner for justice and peace, Sister Pat Robb CJ also worked in war zones, in schools and as the chair of the Diocese of East Anglia Justice & Peace Commission for 12 years. Sister Gemma Simmonds CJ pays tribute.

■ After becoming a Catholic and training as a nurse, Pat went on to South Africa in 1960, often finding herself sitting with the black Africans in church. Deciding to do a midwifery training, she boarded a ship home, where she was pestered by two Irish nuns to visit their convent to see 'what it's like to be a nun'. She said she was entering the sisters from her old school, and true to her upbringing, felt she had to keep her word.

But her missionary vocation never left her, and she returned to midwifery, finally landing in Zimbabwe. She was then asked to go to Mozambique, Angola, Rwanda, Tanzania and on to Goma in the Congo and then Burundi where she witnessed horrors during the genocide.

Her career in African war zones ended with brutal suddenness when a bout of cerebral malaria necessitated her repatriation to England.

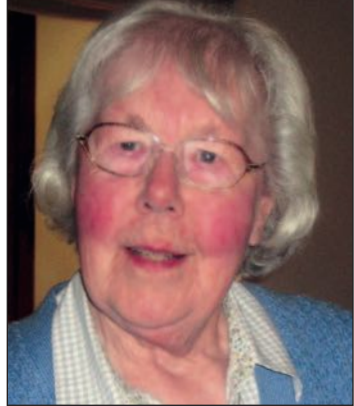

In May 1999 she moved to a flat in Cambridge, working first at Whitemoor High Security Prison and then in chaplaincy at the Oakington Immigration Detention Centre until its closure in 2010. She died in St Joseph's care community in York on May 21.

Sr Monica Wyard DJ

Tributes have been paid to Sr Monica Wyard DJ, who served as a teacher and catechist in Northampton and East Anglia Dioceses.

■ Monica was born in Hampstead on the May 26, 1931. She was educated at St Joseph's Convent Grammar School in Abbey Wood, and in 1948 started her formation as a Daughter of Jesus. In 1956 she joined the Abbey Wood community, where she taught Home Economics. In 1976, the Northampton Diocese was divided to form a new Diocese of East Anglia, and Sr Monica became responsible for the retreat house in Massingham.

In 1997 she moved to North Walsham, then in 2011 to Lincoln Gate in Peterborough. She soon found herself responding to many calls on her giftedness and generosity. She often said: "I'd like to do more, but I don't have the breath." And it was this shortness of breath that made her subsequently accept a place in Longueville Court. In the few final weeks she was in Longueville, Monica was peaceful and full of praise for the care she received.

Michael Hope - Open Christmas

Bishop Alan celebrated a requiem Mass at St Benet's in Beccles for Michael Hope who, with wife Rosie, founded Open Christmas in Norfolk.

■ Michael attended Downside School and then went on to Loughborough University to study engineering. He met his future wife Rosie while working in London; they married in 1964 and lived in Cambridge, having three children, Hetie, Louisa and James.

It was after they moved to Thurton in Norfolk in 1982 that he and Rosie began running the Open Christmas initiative in Norwich. In 1992 Michael threw himself into charitable and community-based work and was for many years a trustee of St John's Cathedral, helping to oversee the planning and building of the Narthex.

After Rosie died in 2019, and his mobility declined due to a painful foot condition, Michael remained stoic despite the isolation of the pandemic; but it was immensely frustrating for someone used to being so active. It was comforting for his family that Fr Alvan was able to anoint him before he died..

Sr Katrin Foerster

Sr Katrin Foerster, of Quidenham Carmel, died on February 7. Born a Jew, she converted to Christianity in her early teens and was noted for her characteristic smile. Fr John McGowan pays tribute.

■ Sr Katrin had such humanity and gift for friendship. I met her when she was in Sclerder Carmel, Cornwall.

As a child, she was sent to England on the Kindertransport. Her mother then married a Dutchman. The couple went to the Netherlands and brought Katrin and her sister from London. But then the Nazis invaded. The two girls were arrested and put in a camp in preparation for transportation to a concentration camp. The parents managed to bribe a guard and the girls escaped. They spent the rest of the war in hiding.

Sometime after, Katrin decided to be baptized and later she became a Carmelite nun. She was sent to Iceland, where she spent many years. She then came to England and joined Sclerder Carmel. Sadly, Sclerder had to close in 2014 and Sr Katrin spent the final years of her life in Quidenham, Norfolk.

Sr Mary Catherine Maguire

Sr Mary Catherine Maguire passed away during the summer after a long and active life. Sr Mary Francis Ridler and friends pay tribute.

■ Sr Catherine was born in Ballyshannon, Donegal, Ireland, and educated by the Mercy Sisters in Ballyshannon. She enjoyed taking her home leave with her family, siblings and later her nephews and nieces who called her Aunty nun.

Sr Catherine came to Chesterfield to become a student teacher but became a postulant there in January 1955. She was clothed in Swaffham and went to Vienna in 1963 to make her final vows.

She worked hard all her life almost until the time when she fell and broke her hip in January 2022. As well as teaching, looking after boarders and managing the finances she also cleaned the school buildings in the holidays.

Her death on July 20 was a very peaceful one in hospital, she slipped away to join her bridegroom while the Sisters recited rosaries at her bedside.

Auditors Statement to the Trustees of The Roman Catholic Diocese of East Anglia

We have examined the summarised financial statements set out on this page.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Auditors

The Trustees for the preparation of the summarised financial statements. The Auditors have agreed to report on their consistency with the full financial statements, on which we reported on 31st October 2022.

Basis of opinion

We have carried out the procedures we consider necessary to ascertain whether the summarised financial statements are consistent with the full financial statements from which they have been prepared.

Opinion

In our opinion the summarised accounts are consistent with the full accounts of the Diocese for the year ended 31st December 2021.

Price Bailey LLP 24th November 2022

Notes to the Accounts

1. The activities of the Diocese are largely undertaken through its parishes and schools. Of the overall charity finances summarised above, parishes accounted for over 77% of income and approximately 62% of expenditure with some 66% of the Diocesan charity's net assets being held at parochial level.

The work of the parishes involves amongst other things the pastoral care of the Roman Catholic and general community of the parish and maintenance and upkeep of places of worship.

2. Although it benefits from many enthusiastic and faithful volunteers, priests and religious, the Diocese of East Anglia is not financially well off. It has limited reserves or investments of its own, receives relatively small amounts through legacies and donations and has historically been reliant on raising income from its parishes. This it does by levying charges based as a percentage of parish offertory collections.

The income which it receives is used to pay for the organisation and administration of all Diocesan activities, for repairs and building works at its schools, for the training of future Diocesan priests and deacons and to support retired priests.

3. An ongoing fund-raising campaign, Alive in Faith, has been undertaken since February 2015. This has four primary aims to provide funding for the following:

- Training of future priests
- Support of retired clergy
- Special parish projects
- Social outreach

4. During the year ending on 31 December 2021, a total of over £6.3 million was committed in pledges over five years, and £638,066 income from these pledges was recognised in the year. Expenditure in this year was £841,806 on Seminarians, Retired Priests, Parish Projects and Social Outreach grants.

Total fundraising costs over the five years are expected to be around 18% of the amount raised.

5. At 31 December 2021, the Diocese's reserves, including parishes, stood at £34.7m. Of this, £5m is restricted to particular uses and £3.5m has been designated by the Trustees for certain specific purposes.

6. Of the remaining reserves, parochial funds amount to £22.9m, of which £14.4m is represented by fixed assets in the form of churches and other property which are required for the purposes of the Diocese and could not be realised without undermining its work.

This leaves free parochial reserves of £8.5m which represents around 20 months' total parochial expenditure and levy charges. This level of reserves is considered necessary by the Trustees to enable the parishes to conduct their work in an orderly and efficient manner as well as providing income through investments to supplement the amounts received by donations.

7. General reserves at the Diocese increased from £3.37m to £3.38m. These are free reserves whose use is unrestricted and represent approximately two years' total unrestricted Diocesan expenditure. This is considered necessary in order for the Diocese to fulfil its objects, to continue supporting and advising parishes and schools.

8. The Stewardship and Fundraising Coordinator continued to work with all our parishes to encourage parishioners to reflect on their call to be "Faithful Stewards of God's Gifts."

A number of parishes held successful stewardship campaigns in 2021, resulting in increased volunteering and offertory income.

Sunday March 5 – Lent Friday Fast (March 3)

An optional collection. Send money to: CAFOD Romero House, 55 Westminster Bridge Road, London SE1 7JB

CAFOD Friday Fast Days in Lent and October are NOT weekend second collections. They are an opportunity for the faithful to fast on a particular Friday and to then donate any monies saved through such fasting to CAFOD in the envelopes distributed the weekend before. It is not envisaged that the faithful will be asked to give additional money in a second collection whilst the CAFOD envelopes are being collected in, unless the Parish or the Parish Priest chooses to hold an optional second collection specifically for the work of CAFOD.

MISSIONARY ORDERS

There is an annual mission appeal by one or more religious orders dedicated to missionary work overseas.

Stella Maris provides seafarers and fishers with pastoral and practical support, information and a listening ear. It is an agency of the Catholic Church, and relies on donations.

East Anglia Diocesan Archives Can we help you?

The Catholic Church is bound by Canon Law to document, maintain, and organise its history, religious and cultural heritage. This is an important and urgent task to be undertaken in Diocese and Parishes alike.

Are you involved in maintaining and archiving material in your parish, or, would you like to be? If so, can we help you?

Diocesan Archivists, Michael and Gillian Hill, are based at St John's Cathedral in Norwich. Please contact us at:

If you have a relative or a friend or are being admitted to hospital, please ensure that you indicate that you or they are a Catholic, and also would like the Catholic Chaplain to be informed of your presence in hospital. Otherwise, the Catholic Chaplain will not know that a Catholic patient is in the hospital. The secular authorities are not permitted to tell the Church if a patient is Catholic, and, according to secular rules and regulations, chaplains and parish priests are not permitted to communicate with one another regarding your presence in hospital without your permission. It is also good practice to inform hospital staff that you would like receive visitors, as some hospitals will not permit visitors who are not close family without prior permission from the patient.

Please inform: The hospital chaplain
Your parish priest
The nursing staff at the hospital upon arrival

DIOCESAN AND NATIONAL ORGANISATIONS AND SOCIETIES

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

Directly under the Holy See, ACN supports the faithful wherever they are persecuted, oppressed or in pastoral need. ACN helps to bring Christ to the world through prayer, information and action, and is at work in around 140 countries throughout the world.

The charity undertakes thousands of projects every year including transport for clergy and lay Church workers, construction of church buildings, funding for priests and Sisters and support for seminarians. Since 1979, over 51 million copies of the Child's Bible have been printed in 193 languages and distributed worldwide.

ASSOCIATION FOR LATIN LITURGY

The aims of the Association for Latin Liturgy are:

- To understand the aims of Vatican 2 and its implementation.
- To support parishes wishing to re-introduce some Latin and Plainchant into worship or some of the wide range of Liturgical music available based on the chant.
- To support parishes wishing to further develop the use of chant
- To support priests and deacons to be able to sing parts of the liturgy.
- To encourage and enable singing teaching and training in choirs.
- To provide general advice and suggestion about music and the liturgy.

Members of the Association will accept invitations to parishes or deaneries and work with them to support the music and liturgy at any suitable event; choir practices or day events working to a programme agreed jointly.

CAFOD

CAFOD is the official overseas development and relief agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales. In over thirty countries they reach people in poverty with practical help. In witness to Gospel values CAFOD works to:

- Reach those in greatest need, save lives and relieve suffering.
- Challenge and transform the structures and behaviours that drive poverty, injustice and harm the natural world.
- In emergencies provide immediate relief and long-term re-building programmes.

CAFOD focuses on clean water, sanitation, sustainable livelihoods and peace-building. Support can be offered through donations, prayer, volunteering and campaigning. CAFOD's Lent Family Fast Day is on Friday March 3 and Harvest Fast Day is on Friday October 7 and donation envelopes will be available in churches.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMUNITIES

Christian Life Communities are small groups of people who meet regularly to help each other deepen their life of prayer. CLC's special characteristic is the spirituality of St Ignatius of Loyola, helping members to integrate prayer and action in their daily lives. We also work to promote the common good in public life and it is vital that the Catholic voice continues to be proclaimed in public. We liaise with the wider Christian community on issues of common interest.

RACHEL'S VINEYARD

Rachel's Vineyard is a healing ministry for those who are suffering from the trauma of abortion/s, both women and men.

The retreat weekend offers a supportive, confidential and non-judgemental environment where painful post-abortive emotions can be explored and God's love and compassion can be experienced. Participants who have often felt deep anger towards themselves or others, are able to receive forgiveness and a renewed hope.

Our weekend retreat offers a unique sensory based programme which integrates emotional, psychological and spiritual dimensions. It is built around Scripture, reflection, group sharing and the Sacraments, providing a safe and effective recovery process for anyone suffering after an abortion experience, open to all.

SECULAR FRANCISCAN ORDER - EAST ANGLIAN REGION

Secular Franciscans - are a fraternity of Catholic lay men and women, and diocesan clergy.

At the heart of the Secular Franciscan Order is St Francis' call to lead the Gospel life. Secular Franciscans strive to live the Gospel in our lay state, gaining inspiration from the example and writings of St Francis. We seek to deepen, in the light of faith, the values and choices of life. We strive to lead lives of continuing conversion - through a life of penance, evangelical simple living, and prayer - supported by programmes of formation. Visitors to our meetings can be assured of a warm welcome. Further information about the Secular Franciscans is available on our National Fraternity website: www.ofsgb.org.

STELLA MARIS

Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea) is the official maritime agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain. Stella Maris is a registered charity (No 1069833) reliant on the annual Sea Sunday appeal and donations to sustain its ministry. Ninety percent of world trade is carried by ship; however, seafarers and fishers often work in dangerous conditions suffering loneliness, deprivation and even exploitation. Stella Maris deploys chaplains and ship visitors who welcome merchant seafarers and fishers to our shores and provide for their pastoral and practical needs – regardless of creed or nationality.

Catholic seafarers and fishers are also given the opportunity to receive the sacraments. In addition, Stella Maris provides chaplains on board cruise ships, works to maintain seafarers' centres inside ports, and collaborates with industry bodies to speak up for seafarers' and fishers' rights. Stella Maris relies on a network of valued contacts and volunteers to sustain its development.

If any parish would like to hear more about offering prayer, volunteering or financial support to help the work of Stella Maris please email: info@stellamarismail.org.

DIOCESAN CALENDAR FOR EAST ANGLIA 2023

“Christ’s saving work is celebrated in sacred memory by the Church on fixed days throughout the course of the year. Each week on the day called the Lord’s Day the Church commemorates the Lord’s resurrection. Once a year at Easter the Church honours the resurrection of the Lord and his blessed passion with the utmost solemnity. In fact, through the yearly cycle the Church unfolds the entire mystery of Christ and keeps the anniversaries of the saints.”

(GNLY 1)

Preliminary Notes

- This Calendar is based on the GENERAL ROMAN CALENDAR, the NATIONAL CALENDAR as contained in the Roman Missal (2010) and the revised DIOCESAN CALENDAR.
- The titular and anniversary of dedication of each church are kept as Solemnities. Lest they be overlooked, it is advisable to mark them in this Calendar.
- Local observances are permitted of Saints or Beati connected in some way with the locality, as through birth, ministry, death, or custody of major relics. The Bishop should be consulted in each instance.
- On the ‘green’ ferias per annum (of the year) a wide choice of Mass formula is available: EITHER of any of the 34 Sundays per annum (with the prayers of the Sunday selected, or of another Sunday, or those provided ad diversa), OR of any Saint mentioned on that day in the Martyrology, OR of any votive Mass or Mass ad diversa, OR of any Mass for the dead (provided that the daily Mass formula is only used when the Mass is, in fact, applied for the dead).
The Requiem Mass which forms part of the funeral rite is allowed on any day except the Paschal Triduum, the Sundays of Advent, Lent and Easter, and the Holydays of Obligation.
- The Gloria is said on all Sundays (apart from Advent and Lent), Solemnities, Feasts, and other solemn celebrations, but not on Memorials. The Credo is said on Sundays and Solemnities, and is also allowed at other solemn celebrations.
- THE LECTIONARY. On Sundays, Cycle A (Year 1) is to be used until the First Sunday of Advent, when Cycle B (Year 2) begins. The weekday readings are of Year 1. Attention is drawn to the section headed ‘Principles of Choice’ in the introduction. A decided preference is expressed for continuous readings, as provided for the weekdays throughout the year, even though a Memorial occurs (apart from the few instances noted in the Calendar of a strictly proper reading). The 1981 Lectionary provides readings for Feasts observed in this country (Vol II, pp 1316 and fol). For other Solemnities and Feasts lacking proper readings, the appropriate Common should be used, while suitable readings may be chosen for special celebrations.
- As Eucharistic Prayer IV must always be used with its own preface, the days on which it may not be used have been indicated by the note ‘Not EP IV’.
The Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation also have integral prefaces, and may not be used on Sundays or days when EP IV is not permitted.
- Parish priests are bound to offer Mass for their people on all Sundays and Holydays of Obligation.

■ The necrology includes all clergy of the former Northampton Diocese from the year 1850. Places in parenthesis are where priests died or retired from. Any errors or omissions in the necrology of diocesan clergy should be notified to the Bishop's Personal Assistant.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

Introduction

In the Catholic tradition the human experience of time is used as a way of engaging us with the saving mystery of Christ's passion, death and resurrection. The cycle of days, weeks and the whole year is, for this reason, of supreme importance in Christian worship.

Each week, on the day called the Lord's Day, the Church commemorates the Lord's resurrection. Once a year, at Easter, the Church honours this resurrection and passion with the utmost solemnity. Through the yearly cycle the Church unfolds the entire mystery of Christ and keeps the anniversary of the saints.

All other celebrations need to find their proper place in the Calendar so that the principal mysteries of the redemption do not lose their appropriate prominence.

Amongst these other celebrations, from the earliest times have been the rogation and ember days, days of prayer for particular need or in thanksgiving for particular blessings of the Lord. Since 1972, the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales has preferred to drop all distinction between ember and rogation days, and to speak simply of Days of special prayer.

In 1972, six such days were introduced, but in the years which followed the number of such days increased to such an extent that they risked intruding on the celebration of the liturgical year, and especially on the celebration of the Lord's Day on Sundays. Subsequently the Bishops' Conference concluded that from Advent 1996 these Days of special prayer be subsumed into and replaced by a Cycle of Prayer.

The Cycle of Prayer seeks to preserve the integrity of the Sunday liturgy, without losing sight of the importance of being united with the universal or local Church in praying and working for important intentions. It seeks to do this by encouraging the faithful to pray for the intentions set out in the Cycle in their personal prayers throughout the period specified, and not only at Mass on a particular day.

The Cycle of Prayer is based on a division of the year into six periods, three of these being the principal liturgical seasons of Advent/Christmas; Lent and Easter and the other three being divisions of Ordinary Time, namely Winter, Summer and Autumn.

Each of these six periods is allocated its proper series of intentions for prayer, which may be taken up by both individuals and parishes and other groups throughout the season. Each individual intention also has its particular focal point, ie a particular celebration or Day of Prayer ordered by the Holy See.

How might a parish keep the Cycle of Prayer?

Outside of the Liturgy

■ Intentions for the whole period might be listed in the parish newsletter or printed on a prayer card so as to help individual parishioners keep in mind and pray for the intentions for that period.

- Publicity and informational material might be displayed on parish noticeboards.
- Prayer-foci may be placed in an appropriate place in the Church – following the example of the candle symbol popularised by Amnesty International.
- Parish meetings might be arranged so as to better inform parishioners about the particular objects of the intention (eg peace, Christian unity, the place and role of women in the Church and the world, the sick, sea-farers, racial justice, prisoners and their families). This will also give the opportunity for parishioners to learn how they might become actively involved in working for the fulfilling of the intentions for which they pray.
- Retiring collections might be taken to support particular forms of pastoral activity.

Within the Liturgy - Mass

- On the Day of Special Prayer itself, and especially on Sundays, it is appropriate to announce the Day of Special Prayer in the opening remarks at the beginning of Mass, and for the special intention to be included in the Prayer of the Faithful (Bidding Prayers). Care should be taken that the remaining petitions of the Prayer of the Faithful should be formulated in accordance with the norms given in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.
- When a Day of Prayer or other observance falls on a Sunday, the Mass and Lectionary texts of the Sunday are normally to be used.
- On weekdays the use of suitable 'Masses for Various Needs and Occasions' or 'Votive Masses' should be considered to support the marking of the Day of Prayer. The readings assigned for each day in the Lectionary for weekdays should not be omitted too frequently and without sufficient reason. It is often more fruitful to explore any special intentions through the readings assigned to the day, than to choose from the Common those which may appear at first sight more appropriate to the intention.
- The homily at Mass is necessary for the nurturing of the Christian life. It should develop some aspect of the readings from the scriptural readings or liturgical texts of the Mass, while taking into account the mystery being celebrated or the needs proper to the listeners. The homily should not be narrowly confined to the intention of the Cycle of Prayer alone, nor be replaced by a non-homiletic talk or an appeal for money.

Other Liturgies and Celebrations

- When it is desired to have a form of extended prayer for one of the intentions in the Cycle of Prayer, serious consideration should be given to holding a special non-eucharistic service for that purpose, such as a Vigil, the Evening Prayer of the Church, a Liturgy of the Word, or a procession with litanies.
- Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, 'which must clearly express the cult of the Blessed Sacrament in its relationship to the Mass', should also be considered. It should be noted that there is specific provision within this rite for special prayers.
- When considering how particular intentions are to be presented and marked within a parish, every effort should be made to extend the invitation to participate in this to all members of the parish, including the younger members of the parish, and the housebound.

Each of the 52 parishes within the Diocese of East Anglia will be allocated one week during the year during which to pray, not only for the Intentions of the National Cycle of Prayer, but also for Vocations to the Priesthood and to the Religious Life, and the Needs and Intentions of the Diocese. During this week, each Parish shall also have the opportunity to celebrate 40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration, including as they do so, the specific prayers and initiatives of the New Evangelisation.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

During Ordinary Time – (Winter) i.e. up to Lent, we are asked to pray for these intentions:

Peace on Earth: especially on 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time and on Racial Justice Day which occurs three Sundays before the 1st Sunday of Lent. The World Day of Prayer for Peace is marked on 1 January. As this day is when the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God and it is the beginning of the new year in England, the day is transferred to 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. There may be a collection on this day for the work of Pax Christi. The day of prayer for Racial Justice is organised by the ecumenical Churches' Commission for Racial Justice. Within the Catholic Church material is distributed by Catholic Association for Racial Justice (CARJ) for whom a collection may be taken on this day.

Prayer:

O God of peace, who are peace itself and whom a spirit of discord cannot grasp, nor a violent mind receive, grant that those who are one in heart may persevere in what is good and that those in conflict may forget evil and so be healed.

Roman Missal

Christian Unity: especially during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: 18–25 January. The Week of was originally begun in 1908 by the American Episcopalian clergyman Paul Wattson who later became a Catholic. The Week begins on 18 January and ends on 25 January—the Feast of the Conversion of St Paul. Material for the Week of Prayer is prepared in collaboration by Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and The Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches. Each year this material is produced by Christians in a different country.

Prayer:

May the divisions among Christians be overcome so that we may hasten to your eternal Kingdom in the perfect communion of the Church

cf. Roman Missal

Openness to the Word of God: especially on 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Sunday of the Word of God takes place on the third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter, issued motu proprio, 'Aperuit illis', published on 30 September 2019, establishes that 'the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God'

Prayer

Blessed Lord, who caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Book of Common Prayer

Prayer

All-wise God, as you have granted us to drink with delight from the Word that leads us to know you, in your goodness grant us also to come at length to you, source of all wisdom and stand for ever before your face.

Based on a prayer of the Venerable Bede

Victims of Trafficking: especially on feast of St Josephine Bakhita — 8 February. St Josephine Bakhita is the Sudanese Saint who at the age of nine was kidnapped and sold into slavery. She suffered terribly at the hands of her kidnappers so much so that she forgot her birth name. Her kidnappers gave her the name 'Bakhita' which means 'Fortunate'.

Prayer

O God, who led Saint Josephine Bakhita from abject slavery to the dignity of being your daughter and a bride of Christ, grant, we pray, that by her example we may show constant love for the Lord Jesus crucified, remaining steadfast in charity and prompt to show compassion.

Roman Missal

The Sick and Those Who Care for Them: especially on World Day of Prayer for the Sick — 11 February. 11 February is the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. On this day the Church is asked to pray and give attention to the sick and those who care for them. Each year the Holy Father writes a message.

Prayer

Accept the prayers we offer for our brothers and sisters who are ill, that, having been anxious for them in their danger, we may rejoice at their recovery of health.
cf. Roman Missal

The Unemployed: especially on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday. The Day of Prayer for the Unemployed was organised by Church Action on Poverty. They have renamed their day as Poverty Action Sunday. Caritas-Social Action is the agency in the Catholic Church which acts an umbrella for many diocesan and local organisations concerned with poverty and other social issues.

Prayer

O God, the source of human dignity, in your image every person is fashioned and by your Son all people are redeemed.
Make us honour the work of your hands, that we may reverence you in those whom the world considers least and serve you in all whom society neglects.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

Lent we are asked to pray for these intentions:

Candidates for the Sacraments: especially on the Sundays of Lent

For those preparing to be initiated into the Church at Easter, Lent marks the final stage of preparation, the period of Purification and Enlightenment. It begins with the Rite of Election on the First Sunday of Lent. During the season of Lent the Scrutinies are celebrated on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays in preparation for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. Many parishes will also receive candidates for Reception into the Church.

‘The people of God, as represented by the local Church, should understand and show by their concern that the initiation of adults is the responsibility of all the baptised.’

‘During Lent, the period of purification and enlightenment, the faithful should take care to participate in the rites of the scrutinies and presentations and give the elect the example of their own renewal in the spirit of penance, faith, and charity. At the Easter Vigil, they should attach great importance to renewing their own baptismal promises.’ RCIA 9

The celebration of other Sacraments, such as Confirmation and First Holy Communion, will often take place within the Easter season so that candidates for these Sacraments will also be preparing in Lent. These candidates should also be remembered in the prayers of the community.

Prayer

Father of love and power, it is your will to establish everything in Christ and to draw us into his all-embracing love.

Guide the elect of your Church, strengthen them in their vocation, build them into the kingdom of your Son, and seal them with the Spirit of your promise.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Needy and Hungry of the World; especially on Lenten Fast Day —Friday of the first week in Lent.

The agency for overseas development, CAFOD, encourages the Church in England and Wales to use the Friday of the first week in Lent as an opportunity to remember the needy and hungry of the world. The day is an opportunity to practice the three Lenten disciplines of Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving which derive from the proclamation of the Word on Ash Wednesday.

The proceeds from the practice of fasting on the Friday are usually collected at Mass on the 2nd Sunday of Lent.

Prayer

All powerful Father, God of goodness, you provide for all your creation.

Give us an effective love for our brothers and sisters who suffer from lack of food.

Help us do all we can to relieve their hunger, that they may serve you with carefree hearts.

Roman Missal

World Day of Prayer; especially on 1st Friday in March

The World Day of Prayer is a worldwide movement of Christian women who come together to observe a common day of prayer held on the first Friday in March each year, and who, in many countries, have a continuing relationship in prayer and service. Through the World Day of Prayer women are encouraged to become aware of their talents and use them in the service of the wider community.

Prayer

Father, you have given all peoples one common origin, and your will is to gather them as one family in yourself.

Fill the hearts of all women with the fire of your love and the desire to ensure justice for all.

Hear the prayers offered you by women throughout the world for an end to all division, and a human society built on love and peace.

Roman Missal (adapted)Penitents and Wanderers:

The twin themes of Lent are baptism and penance. Lent is a time of reflection and preparation for Easter. Many parishes offer opportunities for the celebration of the Sacrament of Penance in the Lenten season. In recent years some parishes have explored using the Lenten period as a time to assist those returning to the Church after a period of not being active in the life of the Church. This reflects the ancient practice of the Order of Penitents which reached its end on the morning of Holy Thursday.

Prayer

God of power and might, we praise you through your Son, Jesus Christ, who comes in your name.

He is the Word that brings salvation.

He is the hand you stretch out to sinners.

He is the way that leads to your peace.

God our Father, we had wandered far from you, but through your Son you have brought us back.

You gave him up to death so that we might turn again to you and find our way to one another.

THE SACRED PASCHAL TRIDUUM

The celebrations of the Sacred Triduum are to be carried out in cathedral and parochial churches and only in those churches in which they can be performed with dignity, that is, with a good attendance of the faithful, an appropriate number of ministers, and the means to sing at least some of the parts. Consequently, it is desirable that small communities, associations and special groups of various kinds join together in these churches to carry out the sacred celebrations in a more noble manner (Norms for the Sacred Paschal Triduum, Roman Missal p. 329 #3).

A priest may not celebrate the rites of the Sacred Triduum on his own.

MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER W

Gl. Pf of Eucharist I. "In communion with, Therefore, Lord" and "On the day before" pr. Not EP IV.

The Mass of the Lord's Supper is celebrated in the evening; crosses may be veiled in white and the altar decorated with flowers in moderation. The tabernacle should be entirely empty and sufficient hosts consecrated for today and tomorrow. The Altar of Repose should be decorated with flowers and candles. While the Gloria is sung, all the bells in the church are rung and then remain silent until the Gloria of the Easter Vigil. During the same period, the organ and other musical instruments may be used only to support the singing. The Washing of Feet may take place during the Mass. Following the Prayer after Communion, the Blessed Sacrament is taken to the Altar of Repose where it is kept in a tabernacle. Solemn Adoration may not continue after midnight. After the Blessed Sacrament has been transferred, the altar is stripped of all cloths, cross and candles.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

During Easter we are asked to pray for these intentions:

New Members of the Church: The Easter Vigil is the usual time to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) with Adults. The Easter Season is therefore the time for post-baptismal catechesis or 'mystagogy' with the newly baptised or 'neophytes'.

'This is a time for the community and the neophytes together to grow in deepening their grasp of the paschal mystery and in making it part of their lives through meditation on the Gospel, sharing in the Eucharist, and in doing works of charity.'
RCIA 234

In many communities and dioceses, the Easter Season is a privileged time to the Sacraments of First Communion and Baptism.

Prayer

Father, you give your Church constant growth by adding new members to your family. Help us put into action in our lives the baptism we have received in faith
Roman Missal

Vocations: Especially on World Day of Prayer for Vocations — 4th Sunday of Easter

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations is held each year on the Fourth Sunday of Easter. In the Gospel of John read on this Sunday, in each of the three years, Jesus speaks of himself as the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd who has come so that people may have life to the full, the one who lays down his life for his sheep, the one who knows his sheep — they recognise his voice.

Prayer

Father, in your plan for our salvation you provide shepherds for your people.

Fill your Church with the spirit of courage and love.

Raise up worthy ministers of your altars and ardent but gentle servants of the gospel.

Roman Missal

Human Work: Especially on St Joseph the Worker — 1 May

The commemoration of St Joseph the Worker on 1 May was instituted by Pius XII in 1955. It proposes the example and intercession of Joseph as worker and provider.

Prayer

God our Father, creator and ruler of the universe, in every age you call men and women to develop and use their gifts for the good of others.

With St Joseph as our example and guide, help us to do the work you have asked and come to the rewards you have promised.

Roman Missal (adapted)

The Right Use of the Media: Especially on World Communications day — the seventh Sunday of Easter

‘Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation’ is the message of the Gospel on the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. The Solemnity offers the starting point for understanding the right use of the media. The day is established by the Pontifical Council for Social Communications and each year there is message from the Holy Father

Prayer

Father of light, from whom every good gift comes, send your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of your wisdom open the horizons of our minds.

Loosen our tongues to sing your praise in words beyond the power of speech, for without your Spirit men and women could never raise their voice in words of peace or announce the truth that is Jesus the Lord

Roman Missal

The Church: Especially at Pentecost

Throughout the Season of Easter the first reading at Mass is taken from the Acts of the Apostles. Luke tells the story of the early Church from the Ascension and Pentecost to the early missions of the apostles.

‘When the work which the Father gave the Son to do on earth was accomplished, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost in order that he might continually sanctify the Church. Then "the Church was openly displayed to the crowds and the spread of the Gospel among the nations, through preaching, was begun." As the "convocation" of all men for salvation, the Church in her very nature is missionary, sent by Christ to all the nations to make disciples of them.’ Catechism 767

‘Those who with God’s help have welcomed Christ’s call and freely responded to it are urged on by love of Christ to proclaim the Good News everywhere in the world. This treasure, received from the apostles, has been faithfully guarded by their successors. All Christ’s faithful are called to hand it on from generation to generation, by professing the faith, by living it in fraternal sharing, and by celebrating it in liturgy and prayer.’ Catechism 3

Prayer

God our Father, in all the churches scattered throughout the world you show forth the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

Through the gospel and the Eucharist bring your people together in the Holy Spirit and guide us in love.

Make us a sign of your love for all people, and help us show forth the living presence of Christ in the world.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

During Ordinary Time (Autumn), i.e. from September to Christ the King, we are asked to pray for these intentions:

The Harvest: the Fruits of Human Work and the Reverent Use of Creation; especially on World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation (1 September) and on last Sunday in September or whenever Harvest Festivals are held.

"The annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation will offer individual believers and communities a fitting opportunity to reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live."
(Pope Francis, Letter inaugurating World Prayer of Care for Creation)

The Church has long celebrated the agricultural harvest. This intention also includes all human work. In all circumstances of human life there are choices to be made regarding the environment and our reverent stewardship of the God's gift of creation. "The external deserts in the world are growing, because the internal deserts have become so vast. Therefore the earth's treasures no longer serve to build God's garden for all to live in, but they have been made to serve the powers of exploitation and destruction" (Benedict XVI, homily at Inaugural Mass, 2005).'

Prayer

O Lord, good Father, who in your providence have entrusted the earth to the human race, grant, we pray, that with the fruits harvested from it we may be able to sustain life and, with your help, always use them to promote your praise and the well-being of all.

Roman Missal

Students and Teachers: especially on Education Day — 2nd Sunday of September

The day of prayer for Education is organised ecumenically by the Education agencies of the various denominations.

In the Catholic Church material is distributed by the Catholic Education Service.

There may be a collection for the Agency on this Sunday.

Prayer

God is the source of all wisdom and knowledge.

Let us ask him to bless those who seek to learn and their teachers.

For students, that the Spirit of God may grant them the gifts of wisdom of understanding.

For teachers, that they may share their knowledge with gentleness, patience, and concern for their students.

Book of Blessings

The Spread of the Gospel: especially on Evangelii Gaudium: 3rd Sunday in September and World Mission Day: the penultimate Sunday in October

Evangelii Gaudium is on the 3rd Sunday in September. Material for the day is prepared by the Home Mission Desk. There may be a collection to support the work of the agency.

World Mission Day is on the penultimate Sunday in October. A Mass 'for the Spread of the Gospel' may be celebrated on this Sunday. Each year the Holy Father writes a message for World Mission day. In England and Wales material is produced for parishes by the Pontifical Mission Societies. There may be a collection for their work on this day.

Prayer

O God, whose will it is that all should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, look upon your abundant harvest and be pleased to send workers to gather it, that the Gospel may be preached to all creation and that your people, gathered by the word of life and sustained by the power of the Sacraments, may advance in the path of salvation and love.

Roman Missal

Justice and Peace in the World: especially on Harvest Fast Day: 1st Friday in October.

The Harvest Fast Day is one of two such days organised by CAFOD. The money offerred from the fasting is usually collected at Mass on the following Sunday.

Prayer

O God, who show a father's care for all, grant, in your mercy, that the members of the human race, to whom you have given a single origin, may form in peace a single family and always be united by a fraternal spirit.

Roman Missal

Prisoners and their Families: especially on Prisoners Sunday (2nd Sunday on October) and in Prisons Week: 2nd Week in October

Prisoners Week was a Catholic initiative begun in 1975 by Bishop Victor Guazelli which has since gained ecumenical support and observance. It reflects the work of the Prison Advice and Care Trust which builds on its origins as the Bourne Trust — the Catholic Prisoner's Aid Society. The Sunday and the following week seek to focus attention not only on the needs of prisoners but on all those involved the field of prison care, prisoners families, victims of crime, prison staff and many volunteers.

Prayer

Almighty and merciful God, to whom alone the secrets of the heart lie open, who recognize the just and make righteous the guilty, hear our prayers for your servants held in prison, and grant that through patience and hope they may find relief in their affliction and soon return unhindered to their own

Roman Missal

All Victims of War: especially on Remembrance Sunday: 2nd Sunday in November

Remembrance Sunday falls on the Sunday nearest Armistice Day, 11 November, which marks the end of the First World War. On this day are remembered all those who gave their lives for their country, all who suffered and died through acts of war and those who were left behind to grieve and mourn. In England and Wales one Mass for the Dead may celebrated on this Sunday.

Prayer

O God, merciful and strong, who crushes wars and casts down the proud, be pleased to banish violence swiftly from our midst and to wipe away all tears, so that we may all truly deserve to be called your children.

Roman Missal

Young People: especially on Christ the King: 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The Church in England and Wales has marked the contribution of young people on Christ the King for many years. Universally it is marked on Palm Sunday. In many parishes it is an opportunity to focus on the role of young people in the Sunday liturgy and in the life of the parish. Over the last few years material prepared to assist the day has used the live simply campaign. There may be a collection for diocesan and national youth services on this day.

Prayer
O God, who gave one origin to all peoples and willed to gather from them one family for yourself, fill all hearts of all young people, we pray, with the fire of your love and kindle in them a desire for the just advancement of their neighbour, that, through the good things which you richly bestow upon all, each human person may be brought to perfection, every division may be removed, and equity and justice may be established in human society.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

During Advent and Christmastide, we are asked to pray for these intentions:

Migrants and Refugees: especially on 3 December.

On December 3rd the Church commemorates St Francis Xavier. This is the day chosen by the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People to mark World Migration Day. Each year there is a message from the Holy Father reflecting on the 'signs of the times'.

"Asylum seekers and refugees - I wish to underline how the tendency is to stop at the question of their arrival while disregarding the reasons for which they left their native land." [Benedict XVI - Message for World Migration day 2005]

Prayer

Lord, no one is a stranger to you and no one is ever far from your loving care. In your kindness watch over refugees and exiles, those separated from their loved ones, young people who are lost, and those who have left or run away from home. Bring them back safely to the place where they long to be and help us always to show your kindness to strangers and those in need.

Roman Missal: For Refugees and Exiles

Expectant Mothers: especially on 4th Sunday of Advent

The Gospel on the 4th Sunday of Advent focusses on the role of Mary in our salvation. Over the three year cycle the gospel tells of the betrothal of Mary to Joseph, the Annunciation and the Visitation. The stories prepare us for the Birth of our Lord at Christmas.

Prayer

God has brought gladness and light to the world through the Virgin Mary's delivery of her son.

Grant the prayer of all mothers to be as they ask for the birth of a healthy child. May they safely deliver a son or daughter to be numbered among your family, to serve you in all things, and to gain eternal life.

This is Dristy, 12, with her mother, Rupali, in southern Bangladesh. Dristy loves gardening and growing fruits and vegetables.

Rupali learnt eco-friendly farming skills with help from CAFOD's local experts, and Dristy learnt by watching her.

Dristy is now passing these techniques on to her friends, who have now begun gardens of their own.

“What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?”

Pope Francis, Laudato Si (#160)

FAMILY FAST DAYS

LENT: FRIDAY 3 MARCH 2023

HARVEST: FRIDAY 6 OCTOBER 2023

CAFOD is the overseas aid agency for the Catholic Church in England and Wales. We help people to live with dignity, support their families and flourish. Through our Church network we reach people and places others can't, helping those who need help most. We believe everyone must have the opportunity to thrive.
