Preface

As I write this preface to the Diocesan Year Book for 2022, there seems to be so much uncertainty surrounding us. By the time this work has been published, will Covid19 be under control, a thing of the past even, or will we be experiencing restrictions to our freedom in order to protect the NHS and ourselves from its scourge? Will we, or won't we?

I am in the process of visiting parishes in the diocese whose parish priests should have or are about to retire from active ministry. In discussion with the parishes, we have to face up to the facts that there may not be a resident priest living there in the future. Perhaps there will be priests who will help us from other countries. Perhaps the parishioners will take a stronger leading role in ministering within the parish community. Will we, or won't we?

The Synodal Process has just begun. Part of me feels really animated and excited about the prospect of allowing the Spirit to speak to us, to speak to the Churches. Where will the Spirit guide us? What new paths will be opened to us? Another part of me wonders if I/we have the energy and enthusiasm to respond positively to the invitation, or will it pass us by and not touch us in anyway. Will we, or won't we?

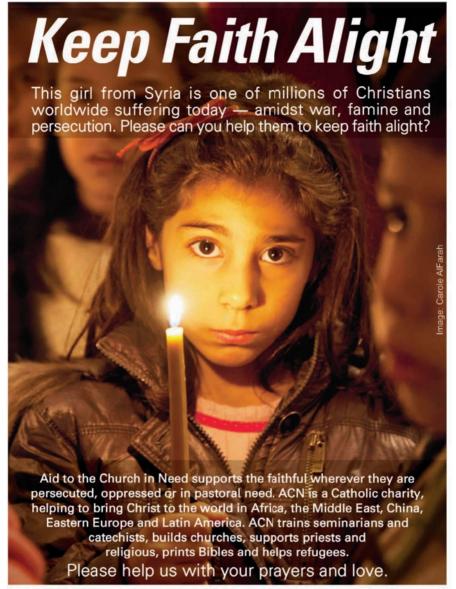

So many uncertainties, so many unknown possibilities, so many opportunities, so much effort demanded – will we, or won't we? Well, I don't know. But I do know that our God will always provide what is necessary. He always has in the past, he does now, and I HOPE that he will do so in the future. I know that Jesus walks at our side just as he walked with the downhearted disciples on the road to Emmaus and whose hearts burned within them as he spoke the words of Scripture to them. I know that Holy Spirit has been poured into our hearts at our baptism and confirmation and that same Spirit still speaks to the Churches, to the People of God today. With God there is no "will we, or won't we?" Jesus tells the disciples after the Resurrection, and he tells us today: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations. And behold, I am with your always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28.19-20)

A great thankyou to all who have made this publication possible; those who have collated the information, those who have designed and printed it, those who have published it and caused it to be disseminated and all those who support it in any way. May the Lord reward them as only He knows how, and may He bless us all as we journey together with humble confidence into 2022

Yours in blessed hope

Highlights of the Year

Pupils from All Saints School in York were among many schoolchildren in the diocese who supported CAFOD's Eyes of the World campaign, ahead of the COP26 climate change talks in Glasgow in November 2021. They are pictured here outside York Minster – Photo by Lars Karlsson

St Aelred's, York, parishioner George was finally able to celebrate making his First Holy Communion after being one of the many children who had their big day postponed when the country went into lockdown. He is pictured with his parish priest, Father Bill Serplus.

St John of Beverley parish priest Canon David Grant was delighted to meet Pope Francis in St Peter's Square. Canon Grant, who was on sabbatical at the Venerable English College, had accompanied the new rector, Father Stephen Wang, and the seminary's first year students to the Holy Father's weekly general audience.

Bishop Terry celebrated Mass to welcome the Daughters of Divine Love as parish sisters at St Wilfrid's Church in Hull. He is pictured with the sisters and parish priest Father Ivan Dawson.

Parishioners from across the diocese turned out to say an emotional farewell to Father Pat Day as he retired back to his home town, Derry. The celebration was held at St Alphonsus' Church Hall in North Ormesby, Middlesbrough, where Father Pat has ministered in recent years.

Bishop Terry blesses a blue plaque commissioned by Hull City Council to mark the Daughters of Charity's contribution to the city. Hundred of grateful parishioners turned out to a service at St Vincent's Church as the order left Hull after 131 years of service.

Middlesbrough Diocesan Archive is the main central repository for historical records relating to the diocese and the churches within its present boundaries. As well as primary source documents the Archive contains an extensive library of books on Catholic Church history. While this is a private collection, not open to the public on a regular basis, visitors are welcome by prior appointment. Contact may be established in the first instance by writing to the archivist at the above address, or by email or by leaving a telephone message. Enquiries are welcome and the archivist will do his best to answer these either by letter or by arranging for enquirers to visit the archives and view records for themselves. For those researching family history it should be pointed out that, although many older sacramental registers are held there, others remain in parishes. Please note also that a fee will be charged for searches carried out by the archivist on behalf of family historians at a rate of £19 for each hour or part thereof. There is no charge for visitors to the archives who carry out their own searches or for baptismal certificates needed for the purpose of marriage.

The mission of the Society of the Little Flower is to promote devotion to St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, Carmelite Nun and Doctor of the Church. Through prayers and donations, friends of St. Thérèse enable Carmelites to continue her "Shower of Roses" in their ministries throughout the world and in the education of young Carmelites.

The generous donations raised by members of the Society and distributed through the Carmelite Curia in Rome have supported projects in countries such as Kenya, Cameroon, the Philippines, Indonesia, China, East Timor, Mozambique, Peru, Brazil and Vietnam.

INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE AND SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE

SECULAR INSTITUTES CARITAS CHRISTI

Caritas Christi is an International Secular Institute of the Pontifical Rite for single or widowed women in which members make a commitment to be given to God for life. Out of love they choose to live a celibate life in order to dedicate their love in its completeness to God, the Church and all people. Their service is given in the circumstances of their everyday lives, home and work. They remain lay people.

Enquiries to: Fiona Wraith, 41 Means Drive, Burradon NE23 7NS.

Website: caritaschristi.co.uk

THE GRAIL SECULAR INSTITUTE

The Grail Secular Institute offers a particular way of life to single or widowed Catholic women. Those who belong make a formal commitment to live out their baptismal promises through the channel of the Grail and its mission. There are two ways of belonging, as members of the Grail Community or as individual members (Companions). All members seek to find God in their everyday life situations.

Community members live together expressing a simple, uncluttered and celibate lifestyle. They aim to be open, to heal and to release the gifts of those they meet. They are accountable to those with whom they live and see all that they undertake as enabling people to grow towards their full potential. Companions of the Grail live independently and follow their chosen occupation. This makes specific demands on each person but also provides challenge, support and guidance. They meet regularly in area groups and aim to be alert to developments and needs in both Church and society so as to bring an informed response to daily situations. Companions and the Grail Community spend time together each year to share more deeply the ethos and mission of the Grail. For further information contact; Jackie Rolo. The Grail Centre, The Hermitage, Cheriton Road, Winchester, Hants, SO22 5HW, tel: (01962) 859870, e-mail: i.rolo@grailsocietv.org.uk

THE SECULAR INSTITUTE OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL (THE LEAVEN)

A secular institute for single women and widows who wish to consecrate themselves completely to God following the traditions and spiritual life of the Carmelite family. For information: The Secretary, The Leaven, Aylesford Friary, Kent, ME20 7BX, tel: 01582 766580 e-mail theleavensi@gmail.com, website: theleaven.org.uk

SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

MADONNA HOUSE APOSTOLATE

Madonna House is an Apostolic Family of lay women, lay men and priests. We are a family in the Church dedicated to loving and serving Christ in all people. We make lifetime promises of poverty, chastity and obedience. Our main house and training centre is in Combermere, Canada. Approximately 200 members serve in 18 field houses in six countries. In 1985, Madonna House was invited to take responsibility for St Bede's chapel in Robin Hood's Bay and to develop a Pastoral Centre at this location. At present there are four members in residence. People are welcome to drop in for a chat and cup of tea, to spend quiet time in prayer or make a personal retreat. Our house is also open for groups to come. Sometimes it is for Mass and a talk and a get together, perhaps a packed lunch or shared meal. Sometimes it is for a day of recollection. Young people are welcome to come for an experience of community life. Please call to book a day. Members are also available to travel elsewhere in the diocese to give talks. Please contact: Madonna House, Thorpe Lane, Robin Hood's Bay, YO22 4TQ, tel: (01947) 880169, e-mail: madonnahouserhb@gmail.com, website: www.madonnahouse.org

THIRD ORDERS

CARMELITE DISCALCED SECULAR ORDER (OCDS)

Carmelite Discalced Seculars (OCDs) are members of a lay community called to live 'in allegiance with Jesus Christ'. Under the protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and inspired by the teaching of St Teresa of Avila, St John of the Cross, St Thérèse of Lisieux and other Discalced Carmelite saints, they seek to infuse prayer and life with apostolic zeal. God may be calling you to a vocation as a Discalced Carmelite Secular. We meet the first Saturday of every month at Christ the King Church, Trenchard House, Thornaby, TS17 0EG. Contact Nora Borg on (01642) 761504.

CARMELITE THIRD ORDER SECULAR (TOC)

The Carmelite Third Order Secular welcomes lay people and diocesan clergy seeking to be contemplatives by God's grace, forming praying communities at the service of God's people. Carmelite Tertiaries and enquirers in Middlesbrough Diocese are welcome to attend the monthly meetings of York Carmelite Spirituality group. For further information visit laycarmel.org or contact the Third Order national secretary, e-mail verrington@btinternet.com

SECULAR FRANCISCAN ORDER (OFS)

The Secular Franciscan Order, founded by St Francis of Assisi, is an order within the Catholic Church. Its members, of which there are more than 500 in the UK alone, make a lifetime profession to join the order but remain in their secular state living in the world. Their rule and life is dedicated to observing the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the secular world by going from Gospel to life and life to Gospel. They support each other in their endeavours by gathering regularly in local fraternities and in the spirit of the beatitudes they seek to share the love of God with all people and all of Creation.

THE ORDO

THE ORDER TO BE OBSERVED IN THE PRAYING OF THE DIVINE OFFICE AND THE ### INTRODUCTION

The Calendar which follows combines the General Roman Calendar with the English National Calendar and Middlesbrough Diocesan Supplements.

Parishes should add to this their Titular Feast and the Anniversary of Dedication or Consecration. Both of these are celebrated as Solemnities. Should they coincide with Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, Easter Week or any other solemnity, they are transferred to the nearest free day. If it is considered pastorally beneficial the Mass may be transferred to the nearest Sunday, provided this is an ordinary Sunday of the year.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MASS AND DIVINE OFFICE

SUNDAY

The Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide are Solemnities. On these Sundays no other celebration may replace that of the Sunday.

The Sundays of Christmastide and Sundays in Ordinary Time are Feasts. These can be replaced by an occurring Solemnity. Sundays in Ordinary Time can also be replaced by Feasts of the Lord but by no other Feasts. On Sundays which are Feasts, the Mass of the Sunday may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or Ritual Mass, but other Masses may only be celebrated on the directions of, or with the permission of the Bishop.

At Mass on Sundays there are three Readings, and the Gloria, except in Advent and Lent, and the Creed are said. The Office starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said, except in Lent.

SOLEMNITIES

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Three Readings are used, and the Gloria and Creed are said. Except on Holy days of Obligation, a Funeral Mass may be celebrated, but no other Mass may replace that of the Solemnity.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. It starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said. At Midday Prayer the complementary Psalms are used, except on Sundays. Night Prayer after Evening Prayer I and II of Sunday is used.

FEASTS

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Two Readings are used except on Sundays. The Gloria is said, but the Creed only on Sundays. The Mass may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or ritual Mass but no other celebration.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Evening Prayer I is only said on Sundays. At Midday Prayer the Psalms of the day are said with the Antiphons of the Season or day. Night Prayer of the day is said.

OBLIGATORY MEMORIALS

MASS: The Opening Prayer is from the Proper or appropriate Common. If the other prayers are not proper, they may be taken from the Common or the Mass of the day. Unless at least one Reading is strictly Proper, the Readings of the Day are used. If no proper Preface is indicated the Preface of the Season or of the weekday is used. A Mass of the Dead may replace that of the memoria, as soon as notice of death is received, on the day of final burial and on the first anniversary. A Ritual Mass may be celebrated. Votive Masses may be only celebrated for exceptional pastoral reasons.

OFFICE: If any part of the Office is proper, then this is said. If not proper, the concluding prayer at Office of Readings, Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer is taken from the Common, the Invitatory Antiphon and at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Hymn, Reading, Short Responsory, Benedictus/ Magnificat Antiphons and Intercessions from either the Common or the Office of the Day, and remainder from the Office of the Day.

OPTIONAL MEMORIALS

Optional Memorials should only be celebrated when there is genuine local devotion. It is not correct to celebrate all or even most of optional memorias. When celebrated, they are celebrated in the same way as obligatory memorias.

MEMORIALS DURING PRIVILEGED SEASONS

Memorias are not celebrated during Holy Week or Easter Week. During Lent, between 17th and 24th December and during the Octave of Christmas, all Memorial are optional. If celebrated, they are celebrated in the following way:

MASS: The Opening Prayer of the Memoria is said. The rest is of the Mass of the day.

OFFICE: In the Office of Readings the Reading of the Memoria is added as a third Reading, followed by its responsory and the concluding prayer of the Memoria. At Morning and Evening Prayer, the Antiphon and concluding Prayer of the Memoria may be added after the concluding prayer of the day.

WEEKDAYS

ADVENT, CHRISTMASTIDE, LENT AND EASTERTIDE

A Proper Mass is provided for each weekday during these seasons, and this should be used on all ordinary weekdays. The Mass of the day may only be replaced under same circumstances as the Mass of an Obligatory Memoria (see above). In the Office, the Psalms are taken from the four week Psalter, the rest from the Proper of Seasons.

ORDINARY WEEKDAYS

The Prayers at Mass may be taken from ANY Sunday of the Year, not just the previous Sunday or from a Votive Mass or one of the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions. Votive Masses, including Masses for the Dead may be celebrated, but these should be used sparingly. In particular the weekday Readings should NOT be omitted too frequently or without good reason. When it is necessary to omit the weekday readings, the readings for the whole week may be rearranged so that only the less significant passages are omitted and the theme of the weekday readings is not destroyed.

THE LECTIONARY

In the Lectionary the SUNDAY READINGS for 2022, commencing on the First Sunday of Advent 2021 are taken from YEAR C

THE WEEKDAY READINGS, commencing on MONDAY JANUARY 10th, 2022 are taken from YEAR 2.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYERS

There is always a choice to be made as to which Eucharistic Prayer and Preface is to be used. A helpful explanation may be found in the `Letter on Eucharistic Prayers` - contained in `Vatican II Documents` edited by Flannery pp 233-240.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER I has special `communicantes` which highlight the major feast or rite being celebrated.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYERS I, II and III may be used with any Preface. However, Eucharistic Prayer II has its own Preface, and this may be used even when there is a seasonal Preface. EUCHARISTIC PRAYER IV may not be used on Feasts with their own Preface, nor may another Preface be used. The reason for this is that Eucharistic Prayer IV is modelled on the Eastern tradition which has irreplaceable Prefaces. Unlike the other Prefaces which end with the Praise of tradition which has irreplaceable Prefaces. Unlike the other Prefaces which end with the Praise Angels and Saints for Redemption in Christ, the Preface of Eucharistic Prayer IV is in praise of God Himself - Jesus Christ not being mentioned until after the Sanctus.

The EUCHARISTIC PRAYERS for MASSES OF RECONCILIATION may be used especially as Masses with a Unity, Peace, and Penitential theme.

At all Masses the readings corresponding to the Mass being celebrated should be used whether this is the Mass of the day or one of the Masses for various Needs and Occasions.

The Homily on Days of Prayer

As the homily is an integral part of the liturgy, on a Day of Prayer, the homily or a major part of it, should be related to the readings that are used at the Mass, and not given over entirely to the intention of the day of Prayer.

In Eucharistic Prayer I, the communicantes, Hanc Igitur and Qui Pridie are proper. At the end of Mass, the blessing and dismissal are omitted, and the Blessed Sacrament is carried in solemn procession to the Altar of Repose, where there is solemn Adoration until no later then midnight. The altar is stripped, without any ceremony, any crucifixes which cannot be removed being veiled. Those who attend this Mass do not say Evening Prayer.
