Preface

Last year, and the end of 2020, were very much taken up with the Synodal Process. There was engagement at the level of parishes, dioceses, national bishops' conferences and continental conferences. This year, 2023, the Ordinary General Assembly of the Bishops Synod will take place in October. Even as I am writing this (October 2022) the Synod has been extended to include a second session in October 2024. This is so that the theme of a Synodal Church, because of its breadth and importance, might be the subject of prolonged discernment not only by the members of the Synodal Assembly but by the whole Church. So, if we thought that the Synodal Process was a one-off, a flash-in-the-pan, then we had better think again.

Another important moment in our own diocese is the annual Lourdes Pilgrimage. However, this year, it is celebrating a significant birthday – it is 70 years since the diocese began a pilgrimage to Lourdes in its own name. It is definitely a moment to remember all those who have taken part in it over the years. It is also an opportunity to celebrate the joyful and poignant moments, the friendships and support that have been given and received; in other words, all the graces that have come to so many through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes. May this year's pilgrimage be equally blest and become a moment of encounter with the Lord through his mother for all who will take part in it.

May I take the opportunity to thank all who have been involved in preparing and causing this Year Book to be published and disseminated. Also, those who constantly keep our website up to date. It appears a simple task to us who read and use them, but it demands constant work and expertise. Thanks to all.

Whatever the year ahead has in store for us, I pray for all: "May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace." (Numbers 6.24-26)

Yours in blessed hope

YORK'S BEST KEPT SECRET SINCE 1686

At a time when it was illegal to be Catholic, and only boys received a formal education, a group of religious sisters established this secret convent, and were the first to educate girls in the country. Today, it is the oldest living convent in England.

 Middlesbrough Diocesan Archives is the main central repository for historical records relating to the diocese and the churches within its present boundaries. As well as primary source documents, the archives contain a library of books on Catholic Church history. While this is a private collection, not open every day, visitors are welcome by prior appointment. Contact should be established in the first instance by telephoning or writing to the archivist. Enquiries are welcome and the archivist will do his best to answer these either by letter or by arranging for enquirers to visit the archives and view records for themselves. For those researching family history, be aware that although many older sacramental registers are held here, others remain in parishes. Please note also that a fee will be charged for searches carried out by the archivist on behalf of family historians at a rate of £20 for each hour or part thereof, and printed copies of certificates cost £5 each. There is no charge for visiting the archives, or for baptismal certificates required for the purpose of marriage.

INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE AND SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE

SECULAR INSTITUTES

CARITAS CHRISTI

Caritas Christi is an International Secular Institute of the Pontifical Rite for single or widowed women in which members make a commitment to be given to God for life. Out of love they choose to live a celibate life in order to dedicate their love in its completeness to God, the Church and all people. Their service is given in the circumstances of their everyday lives, home and work. They remain lay people.

Enquiries to: Fiona Wraith, 41 Means Drive, Burradon NE23 7NS.

THE GRAIL SECULAR INSTITUTE

The Grail Secular Institute offers a particular way of life to single or widowed Catholic women. Those who belong make a formal commitment to live out their baptismal promises through the channel of the Grail and its mission. There are two ways of belonging, as members of the Grail Community or as individual members (Companions). All members seek to find God in their everyday life situations.

Community members live together expressing a simple, uncluttered and celibate lifestyle.

They aim to be open, to heal and to release the gifts of those they meet. They are accountable to those with whom they live and see all that they undertake as enabling people to grow towards their full potential. Companions of the Grail live independently and follow their chosen occupation. This makes specific demands on each person but also provides challenge, support and guidance. They meet regularly in area groups and aim to be alert to developments and needs in both Church and society so as to bring an informed response to daily situations. Companions and the Grail Community spend time together each year to share more deeply the ethos and mission of the Grail. For further information contact; Mary Leavy. SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

MADONNA HOUSE APOSTOLATE

Madonna House is an Apostolic Family of lay women, lay men and priests. We are a family in the Church dedicated to loving and serving Christ in all people. We make lifetime promises of poverty, chastity and obedience. Our main house and training centre is in Combermere, Canada. Approximately 200 members serve in 17 field houses in six countries. In 1985, Madonna House was invited to take responsibility for St Bede's chapel in Robin Hood's Bay and to develop a Pastoral Centre at this location. At present there are four members in residence. People are welcome to drop in for a chat and cup of tea, to spend quiet time in prayer or make a personal retreat. Our house is also open for groups to come. Sometimes it is for Mass and a talk and a get together, perhaps a packed lunch or shared meal. Sometimes it is for a day of recollection. Young people are welcome to come for an experience of community life. Please call to book a day. Members are also available to travel elsewhere in the diocese to give talks. Please contact: Madonna House, Thorpe Lane, Robin Hood's Bay, YO22 4TQ, tel: (01947) 880169,

THIRD ORDERSCARMELITE DISCALCED SECULAR ORDER (OCDS)

Carmelite Discalced Seculars (OCDs) are members of a lay community called to live 'in allegiance with Jesus Christ'. Under the protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and inspired by the teaching of St Teresa of Avila, St John of the Cross, St Thérèse of Lisieux and other Discalced Carmelite saints, they seek to infuse prayer and life with apostolic zeal. God may be calling you to a vocation as a Discalced Carmelite Secular. We meet the first Saturday of every month at Christ the King Church, Trenchard House, Thornaby, TS17 0EG. Contact Nora Borg on (01642) 761504.

CARMELITE THIRD ORDER SECULAR (TOC)

The Carmelite Third Order Secular welcomes lay people and diocesan clergy seeking to be contemplatives by God's grace, forming praying communities at the service of God's people. Carmelite Tertiaries and enquirers in Middlesbrough Diocese are welcome to attend the monthly meetings of York Carmelite Spirituality group. For further information contact the Third Order national secretary, e-mail verrington@btinternet.com

SECULAR FRANCISCAN ORDER (OFS)

The Secular Franciscan Order, founded by St Francis of Assisi, is an order within the Catholic Church. Its members, of which there are more than 500 in the UK alone, make a lifetime profession to join the order but remain in their secular state living in the world. Their rule and life is dedicated to observing the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the secular world by going from Gospel to life and life to Gospel. They support each other in their endeavours by gathering regularly in local fraternities and in the spirit of the beatitudes they seek to share the love of God with all people and all of Creation.

THE ORDO

THE ORDER TO BE OBSERVED IN THE PRAYING OF THE DIVINE OFFICE AND THE CELEBRATION OF MASS FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 2023

INTRODUCTION

The Calendar which follows combines the General Roman Calendar with the English National Calendar and Middlesbrough Diocesan Supplements. Parishes should add to this their Titular Feast and the Anniversary of Dedication or Consecration. Both of these are celebrated as Solemnities. Should they coincide with Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, Easter Week or any other solemnity, they are transferred to the nearest free day. If it is considered pastorally beneficial the Mass may be transferred to the nearest Sunday, provided this is an ordinary Sunday of the year.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MASS AND DIVINE OFFICE SUNDAY

The Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide are Solemnities. On these Sundays no other celebration may replace that of the Sunday.

The Sundays of Christmastide and Sundays in Ordinary Time are Feasts. These can be replaced by an occurring Solemnity. Sundays in Ordinary Time can also be replaced by Feasts of the Lord but by no other Feasts. On Sundays which are Feasts, the Mass of the Sunday may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or Ritual Mass, but other Masses may only be celebrated on the directions of, or with the permission of the Bishop.

At Mass on Sundays there are three Readings, and the Gloria, except in Advent and Lent, and the Creed are said. The Office starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said, except in Lent.

SOLEMNITIES

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Three Readings are used, and the Gloria and Creed are said. Except on Holy days of Obligation, a Funeral Mass may be celebrated, but no other Mass may replace that of the Solemnity.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. It starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said. At Midday Prayer the complementary Psalms are used, except on Sundays. Night Prayer after Evening Prayer I and II of Sunday is used.

FEASTS

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Two Readings are used except on Sundays. The Gloria is said, but the Creed only on Sundays. The Mass may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or ritual Mass but no other celebration.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Evening Prayer I is only said on Sundays. At Midday Prayer the Psalms of the day are said with the Antiphons of the Season or day. Night Prayer of the day is said.

OBLIGATORY MEMORIALS

MASS: The Opening Prayer is from the Proper or appropriate Common. If the other prayers are not proper, they may be taken from the Common or the Mass of the day. Unless at least one Reading is strictly Proper, the Readings of the Day are used. If no proper Preface is indicated the Preface of the Season or of the weekday is used. A Mass of the Dead may replace that of the memoria, as soon as notice of death is received, on the day of final burial and on the first anniversary. A Ritual Mass may be celebrated. Votive Masses may be only celebrated for exceptional pastoral reasons.

OFFICE: If any part of the Office is proper, then this is said. If not proper, the concluding prayer at Office of Readings, Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer is taken from the Common, the Invitatory Antiphon and at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Hymn, Reading, Short Responsory, Benedictus/ Magnificat Antiphons and Intercessions from either the Common or the Office of the Day, and remainder from the Office of the Day.

OPTIONAL MEMORIALS

Optional Memorials should only be celebrated when there is genuine local devotion. It is not correct to celebrate all or even most of optional memorias. When celebrated, they are celebrated in the same way as obligatory memorias.

MEMORIALS DURING PRIVILEGED SEASONS

Memorials are not celebrated during Holy Week or Easter Week. During Lent, between 17th and 24th December and during the Octave of Christmas, all Memorial are optional. If celebrated, they are celebrated in the following way:

MASS: The Collect of the Memoria is said. The rest is of the Mass of the day.

OFFICE: In the Office of Readings the Reading of the Memoria is added as a third Reading, followed by its responsory and the concluding prayer of the Memoria. At Morning and Evening Prayer, the Antiphon and concluding Prayer of the Memoria may be added after the concluding prayer of the day.

WEEKDAYS

ADVENT, CHRISTMASTIDE, LENT AND EASTERTIDE

A Proper Mass is provided for each weekday during these seasons, and this should be used on all ordinary weekdays. The Mass of the day may only be replaced under same circumstances as the Mass of an Obligatory Memoria (see above). In the Office, the Psalms are taken from the four week Psalter, the rest from the Proper of Seasons.

ORDINARY WEEKDAYS

The Prayers at Mass may be taken from ANY Sunday of the Year, not just the previous Sunday or from a Votive Mass or one of the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions. Votive Masses, including Masses for the Dead may be celebrated, but these should be used sparingly. In particular the weekday Readings should NOT be omitted too frequently or without good reason. When it is necessary to omit the weekday readings, the readings for the whole week may be rearranged so that only the less significant passages are omitted and the theme of the weekday readings is not destroyed.

THE LECTIONARY

In the Lectionary the SUNDAY READINGS for 2023, commencing on the First Sunday of Advent 2022 are taken from YEAR A

THE WEEKDAY READINGS, commencing on MONDAY JANUARY 9th, 2023 are taken from YEAR 1.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS

There is always a choice to be made as to which Eucharistic Prayer and Preface is to be used. A helpful explanation may be found in the 'Letter on Eucharistic Prayers' - contained in 'Vatican II Documents' edited by Flannery pp 233-240.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER I has special 'communicantes' which highlight the major feast or rite being celebrated.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS I, II and III may be used with any Preface. However, Eucharistic Prayer II has its own Preface, and this may be used even when there is a seasonal Preface.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER IV may not be used on Feasts with their own Preface, nor may another Preface be used. The reason for this is that Eucharistic Prayer IV is modelled on the Eastern tradition which has irreplaceable Prefaces. Unlike the other Prefaces which end with the Praise of Angels and Saints for Redemption in Christ, the Preface of Eucharistic Prayer IV is in praise of God Himself - Jesus Christ not being mentioned until after the Sanctus.

The EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS for MASSES OF RECONCILIATION may be used especially as Masses with a Unity, Peace, and Penitential theme.

MASS FOR THE PEOPLE

The obligation of Missa pro Populo applies on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation.

- iv) By means of publicity in parish newsletter etc.

Choice of Liturgical Texts

I) Sunday between 18th and 25th January.

ONE Mass for the Unity of Christians.

II) Mission Sunday

ONE Mass for the spread of the Gospel.

III) Remembrance Sunday

ONE Mass for the dead of two World Wars.

IV) On a Sunday arranged locally.

ONE Mass 'After the Harvest.'

At all Masses the readings corresponding to the Mass being celebrated should be used whether this is the Mass of the day or one of the Masses for various Needs and Occasions.

The Homily on Days of Prayer

As the homily is an integral part of the liturgy, on a Day of Prayer, the homily or a major part of it, should be related to the readings that are used at the Mass, and not given over entirely to the intention of the day of Prayer.

This is Dristy, 12, with her mother, Rupali, in southern Bangladesh. Dristy loves gardening and growing fruits and vegetables.

Rupali learnt eco-friendly farming skills with help from CAFOD's local experts, and Dristy learnt by watching her.

Dristy is now passing these techniques on to her friends, who have now begun gardens of their own.

"What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?"

Pope Francis, Laudato Si (#160)
