Preface

Looking back over the last year, one could be forgiven for feeling saddened, even hopeless. When will we ever learn? Surely reflecting on the past should help us to avoid the same mistakes in the present and so lay better foundations for the future. Yet there are still wars, almost on our doorsteps – Ukraine and Russia, Israel and Palestine. I grew up with the ever-present threat of nuclear war. However, for most of my adult life that threat seemed to have receded, only to have raised its ugly head again in our days.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace.

That is the blessing that is pronounced in the Mass for the Motherhood of Mary on January 1 every year, and this year is no exception. Peace – something for which we all yearn. Yet it seems to be beyond our grasp as human beings. Jesus reminds us: Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Real peace does not have its origins in this world, it is divine, of God. It is to the Prince of Peace that we must turn and beg for this great gift or as we are reminded by the Second Vatican Council, ...unless enmities and hatred are put away and firm, honest agreements concerning world peace are reached in the future, humanity, will perhaps be brought to that dismal hour in which it will experience no peace other than the dreadful peace of death. Peace is not merely the absence of war; nor can it be reduced solely to the maintenance of a balance of power between enemies.... (Gaudium et Spes)

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

let all the peoples praise you.

May God still give us his blessing

till the ends of the earth revere him. (Ps 66[67])

A great thank you to all who have made this publication possible; those who have collated the information, those who have designed and printed it, those who have published it and caused it to be disseminated and all those who support it in any way. May the Lord reward them as only He knows how, and may He bless us all as we journey together with humble confidence into 2024.

Yours in blessed hope

Bishop of Middlesbrough

STEP INTO A WORLD OF SECRECY & SPIES

in the UK's oldest living convent...

This convent was established in secret in 1686, when Catholicism was illegal.

It is home to the religious sisters now known as the Congregation of Jesus, who opened the first school for girls in the country- all while hiding their true identity.

But, how were they never discovered? How has this convent survived? Visit us to find out more!

Enquiries are welcome and the archivist will do his best to answer these either by letter or by arranging for enquirers to visit the archives and view records for themselves. For those researching family history, be aware that although many older sacramental registers are held here, others remain in parishes. Please note also that a fee will be charged for searches carried out by the archivist on behalf of family historians at a rate of £20 for each hour or part thereof, and printed copies of certificates cost £5 each. ## INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE AND SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

INSTITUTES OF CONSECRATED LIFE

SECULAR INSTITUTES

CARITAS CHRISTI

An international secular institute for women in which members make a commitment for life to be totally given to God. Out of love they choose to live a celibate life in order to dedicate their love in its completeness to God, the Church and all people. Their service is given in the circumstances of their everyday lives, home and work. They remain lay people. If you are single or widowed and would like more information, write to Fiona Wraith, 41 Means Drive, Burradon NE23 7NS.

THE SECULAR INSTITUTE OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL (THE LEAVEN)

A secular institute for single women and widows who wish to consecrate themselves completely to God following the traditions and spiritual life of the Carmelite family. For information: The Secretary, The Leaven, Aylesford Friary, Kent, ME20 7BX, tel: 01582 766580 email theleaven@gmail.com, website: theleaven.org.uk

SOCIETIES OF APOSTOLIC LIFE

MADONNA HOUSE APOSTOLATE

Madonna House is an apostolic family in the Church of lay women, lay men and priests, dedicated to loving and serving Christ in all people. We make lifetime promises of poverty, chastity and obedience. Our main house and training centre is in Combermere, Canada. Approximately 200 members serve in 16 field houses in six countries. In 1985, Madonna House was invited to take responsibility for St Bede's Chapel in Robin Hood's Bay and to develop a pastoral centre. There are four members here. People are welcome to drop in for a chat and cup of tea, to spend quiet time in prayer or make a personal retreat. Our house is also open to groups. Sometimes it is for Mass and a talk and a get-together, perhaps a packed lunch or shared meal. Sometimes it is for a day of recollection or an experience of community life. Please call to book a day. Members are also available to travel elsewhere in the diocese to give talks. Contact: Madonna House, Thorpe Lane, Robin Hood's Bay, YO22 4TQ, tel: (01947) 880169, email: madonnahouserhb@gmail.com, website: madonnahouse.org See us on Facebook for events. ### THIRD ORDERS

CARMELITE DISCALCED SECULAR ORDER (OCDS)

Carmelite Discalced Seculars (OCDs) are members of a lay community called to live 'in allegiance with Jesus Christ'. Under the protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and inspired by the teaching of St Teresa of Avila, St John of the Cross, St Thérèse of Lisieux and other Discalced Carmelite saints, they seek to infuse prayer and life with apostolic zeal. God may be calling you to a vocation as a Discalced Carmelite Secular. We meet the first Monday of the month at Christ the King Church, Trenchard House, Thornaby, TS17 0EG. Contact Nora Borg on (01642) 761504.

CARMELITE THIRD ORDER SECULAR (TOC)

The Carmelite Third Order Secular welcomes lay people and diocesan clergy seeking to be contemplatives by God's grace, forming praying communities at the service of God's people. Carmelite Tertiaries and enquirers from the diocese are welcome to attend the monthly meetings of York Carmelite Spirituality group. For further information email verrington@btinternet.com.

SECULAR FRANCISCAN ORDER (OFS)

The Secular Franciscan Order, founded by St Francis of Assisi, is an order within the Catholic Church. Members, of which there are more than 500 in the UK, make a lifetime profession to join the order but remain in their secular state living in the world. Their rule and life is dedicated to observing the Gospel in the secular world by going from Gospel to life and life to Gospel. They support each other by gathering regularly in local fraternities and in the spirit of the beatitudes they seek to share the love of God with all people and all of Creation. For further information, email info@ofsgb.org or visit ofsgb.org.

THE ORDO

THE ORDER TO BE OBSERVED IN THE PRAYING OF THE DIVINE OFFICE AND THE CELEBRATION OF MASS FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 2024

INTRODUCTION

The Calendar which follows combines the General Roman Calendar with the English National Calendar and Middlesbrough Diocesan Supplements.

Parishes should add to this their Titular Feast and the Anniversary of Dedication or Consecration. Both of these are celebrated as Solemnities. Should they coincide with Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, Easter Week or any other solemnity, they are transferred to the nearest free day. If it is considered pastorally beneficial the Mass may be transferred to the nearest Sunday, provided this is an ordinary Sunday of the year.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MASS AND DIVINE OFFICE

SUNDAY

The Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide are Solemnities. On these Sundays no other celebration may replace that of the Sunday.

The Sundays of Christmastide and Sundays in Ordinary Time are Feasts. These can be replaced by an occurring Solemnity. Sundays in Ordinary Time can also be replaced by Feasts of the Lord but by no other Feasts. On Sundays which are Feasts, the Mass of the Sunday may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or Ritual Mass, but other Masses may only be celebrated on the directions of, or with the permission of the Bishop.

At Mass on Sundays there are three Readings, and the Gloria, except in Advent and Lent, and the Creed are said. The Office starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said, except in Lent.

SOLEMNITIES

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Three Readings are used, and the Gloria and Creed are said. Except on Holy days of Obligation, a Funeral Mass may be celebrated, but no other Mass may replace that of the Solemnity.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. It starts with Evening Prayer I. The Te Deum is said. At Midday Prayer the complementary Psalms are used, except on Sundays. Night Prayer after Evening Prayer I and II of Sunday is used.

FEASTS

MASS: Prayers, Readings and Preface are taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Two Readings are used except on Sundays. The Gloria is said, but the Creed only on Sundays. The Mass may be replaced by a Funeral Mass or ritual Mass but no other celebration.

OFFICE: The Office is taken from the Proper or appropriate Common. Evening Prayer I is only said on Sundays. At Midday Prayer the Psalms of the day are said with the Antiphons of the Season or day. Night Prayer of the day is said.

OBLIGATORY MEMORIALS

MASS: The Opening Prayer is from the Proper or appropriate Common. If the other prayers are not proper, they may be taken from the Common or the Mass of the day. Unless at least one Reading is strictly Proper, the Readings of the Day are used. If no proper Preface is indicated, the Preface of the Season or of the weekday is used. A Mass of the Dead may replace that of the memoria, as soon as notice of death is received, on the day of final burial and on the first anniversary. A Ritual Mass may be celebrated. Votive Masses may be only celebrated for exceptional pastoral reasons.

OFFICE: If any part of the Office is proper, then this is said. If not proper, the concluding prayer at Office of Readings, Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer is taken from the Common, the Invitatory Antiphon and at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Hymn, Reading, Short Responsory, Benedictus/ Magnificat Antiphons and Intercessions from either the Common or the Office of the Day, and remainder from the Office of the Day.

OPTIONAL MEMORIALS

Optional Memorials should only be celebrated when there is genuine local devotion. It is not correct to celebrate all or even most of optional memorias. When celebrated, they are celebrated in the same way as obligatory memorias.

MEMORIALS DURING PRIVILEGED SEASONS

Memorias are not celebrated during Holy Week or Easter Week. During Lent, between 17th and 24th December and during the Octave of Christmas, all Memorias are optional. If celebrated, they are celebrated in the following way:

MASS: The Collect of the Memoria is said. The rest is of the Mass of the day.

OFFICE: In the Office of Readings the Reading of the Memoria is added as a third Reading, followed by its responsory and the concluding prayer of the Memoria. At Morning and Evening Prayer, the Antiphon and concluding Prayer of the Memoria may be added after the concluding prayer of the day.

WEEKDAYS*ADVENT, CHRISTMASTIDE, LENT AND EASTERTIDE

A Proper Mass is provided for each weekday during these seasons, and this should be used on all ordinary weekdays. The Mass of the day may only be replaced under same circumstances as the Mass of an Obligatory Memoria (see above). In the Office, the Psalms are taken from the four-week Psalter, the rest from the Proper of Seasons.

ORDINARY WEEKDAYS

The Prayers at Mass may be taken from ANY Sunday of the Year, not just the previous Sunday or from a Votive Mass or one of the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions. Votive Masses, including Masses for the Dead may be celebrated, but these should be used sparingly. In particular the weekday Readings should not be omitted too frequently or without good reason. When it is necessary to omit the weekday readings during a particular week, on account of some particular celebration, it is permissible to either combine parts omitted with other readings or to decide which readings are to be given preference over others.

THE LECTIONARY

In the Lectionary the SUNDAY READINGS for 2024, commencing on the First Sunday of Advent 2023 are taken from YEAR B

THE WEEKDAY READINGS, commencing on TUESDAY 9th JANUARY, 2024, are taken from YEAR 2.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS

There is always a choice to be made as to which Eucharistic Prayer and Preface is to be used. A helpful explanation may be found in the `Letter on Eucharistic Prayers` - contained in `Vatican II Documents` edited by Flannery pp 233-240.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER I has special `communicantes` which highlight the major feast or rite being celebrated.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS I, II and III may be used with any Preface. However, Eucharistic Prayer II has its own Preface, and this may be used even when there is a seasonal Preface.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER IV may not be used on Feasts with their own Preface, nor may another Preface be used. The reason for this is that Eucharistic Prayer IV is modelled on the Eastern tradition which has irreplaceable Prefaces. Unlike the other Prefaces which end with the Praise of Angels and Saints for Redemption in Christ, the Preface of Eucharistic Prayer IV is in praise of God Himself - Jesus Christ not being mentioned until after the Sanctus.

The EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS for MASSES OF RECONCILIATION may be used especially as Masses with a Unity, Peace, and Penitential theme.

MASS FOR THE PEOPLE

The obligation of Missa pro Populo applies on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation.

NOTES ON THE OBSERVANCE OF DAYS OF SPECIAL PRAYER

Principal Means.

- i) Announcing it and urging people to pray for the intention.
- ii) By announcing it at the beginning of Mass.
- iii) By including the intention in the Prayer of the Faithful.
- iv) By means of publicity in parish newsletter etc.

Choice of Liturgical Texts

Normally the mass of the day is to be celebrated, especially on Sundays. Where a special Mass is permitted it is indicated in the Calendar. It is only permitted to replace the Mass of the Sunday on the following occasions:

- I) Sunday between 18th and 25th January.
ONE Mass for the Unity of Christians.
- II) Mission Sunday
ONE Mass for the spread of the Gospel.
- III) Remembrance Sunday
ONE Mass for the dead of two World Wars.
- IV) On a Sunday arranged locally.
ONE Mass `After the Harvest.`

At all Masses the readings corresponding to the Mass being celebrated should be used whether this is the Mass of the day or one of the Masses for various Needs and Occasions.

The Homily on Days of Prayer

As the homily is an integral part of the liturgy, on a Day of Prayer, the homily or a major part of it, should be related to the readings that are used at the Mass, and not given over entirely to the intention of the day of Prayer.
