I enjoy using Caspar because it puts the parishioners at the heart and centre of Parish Administration.

*Fr Derek Turnham,
St Anne's, Wendover*

It can seem daunting when one is faced with all the administration that comes with running a parish, as if there is no time for anything else.

That is where Caspar comes in!

Caspar is an easy-to-use system that takes away the burden of parish admin and allows more time for pastoral ministry.

ORDO

Pope Leo XIV

Robert Francis Prevost was born in Chicago, USA on 14 September 1955. He entered the Order of St Augustine and was ordained into the priesthood in 1982. During the 1980s and 90s he spent many years undertaking missionary work in Peru. In 2001 he was elected Prior General of the Order and later returned to Peru as Bishop of Chiclayo in 2015. In 2023, Pope Francis appointed him prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and president of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America. Later the same year, he was made a cardinal.

He was elected pope on 8 May 2025 and chose the name Leo XIV – the first ever United States citizen to become pontiff.

PROVINCE OF CARDIFF-MENEVIA AND WREXHAM

DIOCESE OF WREXHAM

ARCHDIOCESE OF CARDIFF-MENEVIA

A Brief History of the Welsh Province

The area covered by the Catholic Welsh Province today includes all of Wales and Herefordshire. Its Christian roots run deep, going back to the time of the Roman Empire. The martyrdom of Saints Alban, Julius, and Aaron in the third century marks the beginning of the story. Alban is believed to have died where St Albans now stands, while Julius and Aaron were probably martyred at Caerleon, just outside Newport.

Christianity spread steadily through Roman Britain until the legions withdrew in the early fifth century. While much of eastern Britain fell under Anglo-Saxon pagan rule, Wales stayed firmly Christian. This era produced many well-known saints including Illtyd, Dyfrig, David, and Teilo — names still seen in churches and place names today.

When Pope Gregory sent St Augustine in 597 to convert the Anglo-Saxons, he tried to bring the independent Welsh Church into line with Roman practices, especially the date for Easter. The Welsh resisted for over 150 years, until Bishop Elfodd finally persuaded his fellow countrymen in 768 to accept the Roman date.

After the Norman Conquest, the Welsh Church was reorganised. Four dioceses — St David's, Bangor, Llandaff, and St Asaph — were confirmed with bishops appointed by Norman rulers. Monasteries flourished, especially those founded by the Cistercians and later the mendicant orders such as the Franciscans and Dominicans.

The Reformation under Henry VIII changed everything. In 1536, the monasteries were dissolved and the Welsh dioceses became part of the new Church of England with the king at its head. For the next two centuries, Catholics faced heavy fines, loss of property, and even death for practising their faith. Some noble families, especially in Monmouthshire, sheltered priests and built hidden chapels to keep the Mass alive.

Relief came slowly, ending in Catholic Emancipation in 1829, which saw the lifting of most restrictions. From 1688, Wales and Herefordshire had formed part of the Western District, led by Vicars Apostolic appointed by Rome. In 1840 this became the Welsh District and in 1850 the Diocese of Newport and Menevia was created as a suffragan see of Westminster - its first bishop being was Bishop Thomas Joseph Brown OSB who took up residence at Belmont Abbey, which became an important centre for the diocese. In 1895 the Diocese of Newport was redefined to include Glamorgan, Monmouth and Hereford and in 1898 the Diocese of Menevia was established for the remaining territory.

In 1916 the Province of Cardiff was created with Cardiff as the Metropolitan Archdiocese and Menevia as its suffragan see. In 1987, recognising the distinct pastoral needs of North Wales, the Diocese of Menevia was divided once more to create the Diocese of Wrexham, headquartered at Wrexham Cathedral. Most recently, in September 2024, the Archdiocese of Cardiff and the Diocese of Menevia were united, creating the Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia - continuing the deep-rooted Catholic story of Wales and Herefordshire today.

Gweddï Dros Gymru

O Hollalluog Dduw a ddanfonodd, o'th anfeidrol ddaioni, dy unig-anedig Fab i ailagor porth y nef,
 ac i ddysgu inni dy adnabod, dy garu a'th wasanaethu.
 Trugarha wrth dy bobl sy'n byw yng Nghymru.
 Meithrin ynom y werthfawr ddawn ffydd,
 ac una hi yn yr un wir eglwys
 a sylfaenwyd gan dy ddwyfol Fab.
 Dyro inni'r gras i fod gyda'n gilydd yn dystion cywir i'th wirionedd, ac i fyw'n ffyddlon i'th gariad.
 Sancteiddia ni trwy sagrafennau dy Fab,
 a dwg ni i'th addoli mewn ysbryd a gwirionedd, fel y cawn dderbyn dedwyddwch tragwyddol
 gyda thi yn y byd a ddaw.
 Trwy'r un Iesu Grist em n Harglwydd.

Prayer for Wales

Almighty God, in your infinite goodness, you sent your only-begotten Son into this world to open once more the gates of heaven, and to teach us to know, love, and serve you.
 Have mercy on your people who dwell in Wales.
 Nourish in us the precious gift of faith,
 and unite us in the one true church,
 founded by your divine Son.
 Give us the grace to be loyal witnesses together to your truth,
 and to live faithful to your love.
 Sanctify us by your Son's sacraments, and bring us to worship you in spirit and in truth, so that we may come to have eternal happiness with you in the world to come.
 Through the same Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Mary, Help of Christians, pray for Wales.
 St David, pray for Wales.
 St Winefride, pray for Wales.
 All you Saints of Wales, pray for Wales.

Prayer for Herefordshire

Heavenly Father, in Christ your son you have shown your glory to the world.
 Guide the work of your church in Herefordshire.
 Helped by the prayers of Our Lady, and our martyrs and saints, may we proclaim your name, persevere in the faith,
 and bring salvation to those who do not know you.
 We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Martyrs, Pray for us
 St Ethelbert and Saint Thomas of Hereford, Pray for us
 St John Kemble and Martyrs of Herefordshire, Pray for us.

Our Lady of the Taper, Cardigan

National Shrine of Wales

The origins of the shrine starts with the discovery of a statue of Madonna and child being found on the banks of the river Teifi, with the Madonna holding a burning taper in her hand. The statue was taken to the local parish church but kept reappearing at the place where it initially appeared until a new church was built on the spot in 1158. The original shrine was destroyed on the orders of Thomas Cromwell in 1538.

In 1952, Bishop Petit commissioned a new statue which was placed in the Church of Our Lady of Sorrows. Fourteen years later it was moved to the newly built church of Our Lady of the Taper. Unfortunately, the statue wore badly and in 1986, a new statue, recast in bronze, was installed. The Shrine of Our Lady of the Taper was designated as the Welsh National Shrine of Our Lady by Pope Saint John Paul II.

The shrine is open 9am – dusk every day. Individuals have free access (except during fixed hours of worship) to make their devotions. Special pilgrimages for groups from parishes, schools, or societies are welcome.

Welsh National Pilgrimage to Our Lady of the Taper

Sunday 17th May 2026

Led by Rt. Rev. Peter Brignall, Bishop of Wrexham

Pilgrimage Programme:

- 1.30pm Confessions
- 2.30pm Rosary Procession
- 3.00pm Holy Mass
- 5.15pm Benediction & Blessing of the Sick

Listed Churches

Churches are living buildings, existing to offer worship to God and serve the mission of the church. Their vital role is both for the present and the future, but like all things they have a history too. Having a place within the community, that heritage is recognised by the building being listed. Listed buildings are classified in grades to show their relative importance

The listing of a church confers recognition of its special interest and unique character, but also brings responsibility; it is a criminal offence to alter, extend or demolish a listed building without consent. Works which affect the character of a listed building require Listed Building Consent. In the case of listed churches this consent, called a Faculty, is obtained from the Historic Churches Committee.

The Historic Churches Committee is established by the Bishops of the Province and its members are appointed by them. Members either have specialist knowledge of conservation matters or represent the interests of the Church. The committee operates to procedures developed under national planning laws. Parishes that include listed churches have received copies of the appropriate procedures and guidance on how to proceed.

Cardiff-Menevia Foreword

On 6th January 2026, Pope Leo XIV will formally end the Jubilee Year, which the universal Church celebrated last year as Pilgrims of Hope. Although the Jubilee will come to an end, hope does not come to an end. In the Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia we have many reasons to be hopeful as we reflect on the previous year and look forward to the year ahead.

We begin with renewed formation for the laity using the robust materials offered by the Catechetical Institute of Franciscan University, Steubenville. Through intentional study, prayer, and practical training, parishioners are encouraged to deepen their understanding of the faith and to grow as confident, joyful disciples. This diocesan initiative seeks to strengthen parish life, enrich ministries, and inspire a spirit of evangelization. By equipping lay leaders to serve with clarity and conviction, the Diocese hopes to cultivate a vibrant missionary culture that reaches families, and the wider community throughout the year.

Emmaus Youth Mission is a recent development in the life of the Archdiocese. It seeks to engage with, and to accompany, the young people of southern Wales and Herefordshire in their lives of faith, and to offer them a living encounter with Jesus Christ. The name of the initiative is taken from the passage in Luke's Gospel on the road to Emmaus - an experience of Jesus where he seemed a stranger to the two friends, but where he longed to have a deeper, interior relationship with them. So, too, for our young people (and for us all) - we believe that Jesus is already on the road with us, walking alongside us; but we do not always have eyes to recognise him. The work of Emmaus in our Archdiocese is based on three key principles: something real, not digital, in a world saturated in digital communications; an experience of 'washing feet', learning the beauty of service; and a primary focus on Jesus and his call, which feeds very naturally into the question of vocation. What is it that Jesus dreams of for our young people? What is it that is in the heart of God for them? Please pray for the work of Emmaus Youth, as it seeks to lead our young people into these deeper and life-giving questions.

As we grow as a mission-oriented diocese, increased participation of the lay faithful, following the synodal method, is demonstrated through the Diocesan Pastoral Advisory Council, which is an important forum for clergy and laity to work together to serve our joint mission of evangelisation.

These foci on prayer, youth, and the formation of the laity, are complemented by the hope we have in presbyteral renewal and vocations to the priesthood. We know our need of one another. The lay faithful know they need dedicated and holy priests if they are to live out their call as the Lord's missionary disciples; priests know they need inspiring and generous lay people to live out their calling. Let us continue to pray for one another.

Gathering together to Grow, to Learn, to Thrive

Throughout the year, the Archdiocese has created opportunities for people to come together learn, develop new skills and share each others experience.

Tireless Cultivators

In June, over 80 priests came together in Pontyclun for a Jubilee Gathering, marking a special chapter in the life of the newly united Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia. At the heart of the gathering was a spirit of pilgrimage, guided by the Jubilee prayer, "May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel ... may the grace of the jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven".

Building Safe Communities

Three safeguarding training days in Carmarthen, Miskin and Belmont provided another opportunity for clergy to get together. Led by Sarah-Jane Bailey, the training focused on prevention and understanding of radicalisation; how to spot and respond to early warning signs that might otherwise go unnoticed. "Low level concerns are often where safeguarding really begins," she explained, "they're the moments that might seem small at first but noticing them early can prevent much greater harm later". The sessions also covered recruitment, DBS processes and the safe use of social media platforms as well as providing an opportunity for those attending to raise issues for which they would value further training.

Sharing Experiences of Children's Liturgy

Sharing Experiences

Across the Archdiocese, scores of people contribute to the lives of their parish communities by offering their time and skills. In many churches, parishioners will see the children led away for their own special liturgy as part of Sunday Mass. In June, St David's Deanery (Cardiff) held a meeting – both for those involved in children's liturgy and people thinking of setting the practice in place in their parish. Whilst different approaches were discussed, there was a consensus that children's liturgy is an act of worship aimed at bringing children close to Jesus and that those involved are walking with children through their faith journey. It is planned to make this an annual event.

Very different in tone, but of equal value, was the Bereavement Training Day organised by the Archdiocese's Family Life Commission. From Aberystwyth to Chepstow, Port Talbot to Cwmbran, representatives from 10 parishes met to learn more about setting up bereavement support in their parishes. The training was delivered by Care for the Family. Their expertise and insight provided practical tools and guidance for creating compassionate and effective bereavement ministries.

It's not always necessary to bring people together in a room to learn – as the social media training programme this autumn demonstrated. Delivered via Zoom and 'attended' by participants from across the Archdiocese and beyond, it offered advice on how parishes can unlock the potential of digital platforms through content creation, visual storytelling and community management.

Building a Spirit-led Church

In 2025 representatives from across the Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia met for the first gatherings of the new Diocesan and Deanery Pastoral Councils – an important step in shaping our shared mission and future direction.

Archbishop Mark opened the sessions by reflecting on what he has heard in recent listening meetings across our communities. His message was clear: the Church must be mission-first, people-centred, and guided by the Holy Spirit.

At the inaugural meeting in Miskin, the Archbishop was joined by Father Matt Roche-Saunders, Director of Priestly Vocations and Youth Mission, and David Evans, the Archdiocese's Chief Operating Officer, who together presented a comprehensive vision for the Archdiocese's future.

Pastoral Advisory Council

A major highlight was the openness shown around diocesan finances. David Evans' presentation in the first meeting gave representatives detailed insight into the diocese's financial position for the first time, revealing a healthy balance that reflects its mission-focused approach. One participant remarked, "It was good to hear that you start with mission, because mission is really about people – and people will improve the finances."

The October meeting then turned to prayer and formation. Dr Nora Killeen outlined plans for a new prayer foundation, encouraging every part of our mission to be rooted in daily prayer. The recent launch of Mother's Prayers has already sparked a strong response, with new groups forming across the Archdiocese.

Archbishop Mark described this work as a "spirit-led journey rooted in hope." The councils will continue to meet regularly, helping our parishes grow together in faith, prayer, and shared mission.

Youth and Schools

Emmaus Catholic Youth

A significant step forward for Youth ministry in the Archdiocese has been taken with the emergence this autumn of Emmaus Catholic Youth, led by Fr Matt Roche-Saunders, Director of Priestly Vocations and Youth Mission. The name is rooted in one of Scripture's most powerful encounters – the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35), ending with Christ revealing Himself in the breaking of bread. This transformative moment captures what Emmaus Catholic Youth desires for every young person: to know Jesus as the one who walks with them on their life's journey.

CAFOD encourages our young to "Live Simply"

The initiative launched with an Emmaus Discover Youth Retreat, a day long event for 13 – 17 year olds in November and an Emmaus Encounter Retreat, aimed at those aged 18 – 35 years is planned for 2026.

Living Simply

For many, our faith journey begins at school, and the influence of those early years can be profound. Two Catholic primary schools in the Archdiocese were honoured with CAFOD LiveSimply Awards, presented in recognition of their outstanding commitment to living simply, sustainably and in solidarity with those in need.

Christ the King Primary School in Cardiff and St Robert's Primary School in Aberkenfig undertook a range of faith-filled activities - community projects, fundraising and environmental initiatives - that encouraged pupils to take responsibility for the world around them.

Fanning the Flame of Love and Hope

In March, 150 young people from the diocese travelled up to London to attend Flame, the largest Catholic youth gathering in England and Wales where they heard from a range of speakers including Bear Grylls, who undoubtedly left a mark. Youth Leader, Diana said, "Thanks to all the inspiring speakers, we felt truly motivated to be unstoppable when it comes to fanning the flame of love and hope. Faith is alive in our youth – let's do our part to keep the flame lit and the hope alive."

Faith, Endurance and Friendship

The school summer holidays saw 36 sixth form students and staff from St Joseph's Catholic School and Sixth Form College, Port Talbot cycle some 500 miles along the Camino de Santiago, starting in St Jean Pied de Port in France and finishing at the Cathedral of St James in Santiago de Compostela. As Assistant Headteacher James Torrance, who took part in the challenge, commented, "the Camino challenges us physically, but more importantly it deepens our sense of community, purpose and prayer. It's not just about reaching Santiago; it's about who we become along the way".

Taking on the Camino Way

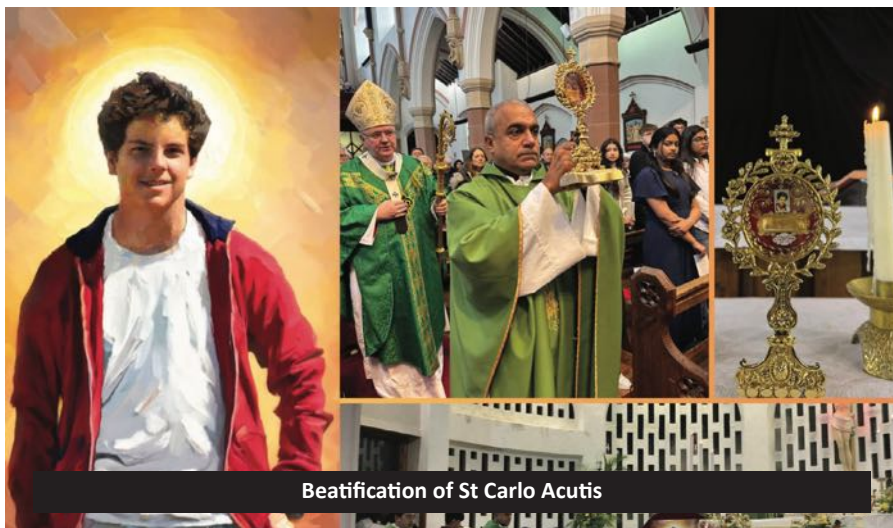

Pilgrims Sharing Together

Also making faith connections and deepening friendships were the 33 young adults from the diocese who joined over a million youth pilgrims in Rome during the Jubilee of Hope Youth Pilgrimage this summer. In addition to visiting a number of sights across the city and making a trip to Assisi, the group celebrated Mass daily.

Pilgrim Liz Mills reflected, “Central to each day was the opportunity to turn to fellow pilgrims to share what our daily prayer life looks like; what we were seeking from this pilgrimage; the intentions we brought with us; what our discernment journeys look like. Making faith connections with other young people – many of whom are already great friends – deepened both our existing friendships and our shared faith journey.”

Shared Faith and Quiet Reflection

During the year the Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia hosted two significant devotional events that brought parish communities together in prayer and reflection.

Beatification of St Carlo Acutis

In February, the Relic of Blessed Carlo Acutis toured South Wales and Herefordshire, brought from Assisi by Monsignor Anthony Figueiredo. The relic visited Cardiff, Belmont Abbey, Swansea and Merthyr, and over four days people gathered to venerate it and learn more about the young Italian soon to be canonised. His example of faith, simplicity and service, especially towards the poor, resonated strongly with many who attended.

Archbishop Mark and other clergy reflected on Carlo's deep love for the Eucharist - his "highway to heaven" - and how his life continues to inspire young people to live their faith with purpose. The visit concluded at Blessed Carlo Acutis Catholic School, Merthyr, where a First-Class Relic was presented to the school.

This summer, the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Taper in Cardigan hosted the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima and the relics of Saints Jacinta and Francisco on 2–3 August 2025. The visit marked the Centenary of the Five First Saturdays devotion, with Masses, veneration, talks and opportunities for prayer.

Both occasions highlight the continuing importance of devotion and community within the Archdiocese, offering moments of shared faith and quiet reflection.

Mercy, Humility and Service

The Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia came together in April to pray and reflect following the death of His Holiness Pope Francis. On 23rd April, the Metropolitan Cathedral of St David in Cardiff was filled with clergy, parishioners and visitors from across the Archdiocese for the Mass of the Resurrection. Archbishop Mark reflected on Pope Francis' life of mercy, humility and service, recalling his final blessing on Easter Sunday and a papacy shaped by care for the poor, the marginalised, and the Church worldwide.

"God will walk with us always, even in the most painful moments," Archbishop Mark said, echoing the Pope's own words and inviting the faithful to trust in God's enduring love. Similar services were held in parishes across the Archdiocese, allowing communities to come together in prayer and remembrance.

The Cathedral hosted Sung Vespers on 24th April, attended by civic, interfaith and ecumenical representatives. Archbishop Mark, who then travelled to Rome for Pope Francis' funeral on 26th April, was joined by a group of young pilgrims from the Archdiocese. Although the canonisation of St Carlo Acutis which they had been planning to celebrate had been postponed, they continued with their pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi, visiting historic churches and sites connected to the life of the saint and getting the chance to walk through the Holy Doors, opened for the Jubilee.

With the election of Pope Leo as the 267th pope, the Archdiocese now looks forward in hope, praying for his guidance and the continued mission of the Church.

Side by Side in Faith

Archbishop Mark led two significant ecumenical and interfaith events in 2025, demonstrating the Archdiocese's commitment to unity and dialogue across faith traditions.

In a Sung Vespers service at the Metropolitan Cathedral of St David, the Archbishop commemorated Pope Francis, joined by ecumenical and interfaith representatives, civic dignitaries, consular corps members, and religious from across the Archdiocese.

Reflecting on the Pope's life, Archbishop Mark quoted Francis' own words: "I am a saved sinner; a sinner who has been looked upon in love." He shared a personal encounter from 2022 when the Pope asked him to pray for him. "I said in Italian, 'a Galles – from Wales' and with a bright twinkle in his eye, tapping me on the arm, he said, 'Ah, that's good – thank you, thank you!'"

CARDIFF-MENEVIA

Ecumenical Pilgrimage Walk

The annual Ecumenical and Interreligious Pilgrimage in July brought together the Catholic Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia, the Church in Wales Diocese of Llandaff, and the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales. Beginning at St Padarn's Institute with reflections on pilgrimage and baptism from Archbishop Mark and Bishop Mary, participants walked through Bute Park and past Llandaff Cathedral, pausing at the well of Saint Teilo for prayers.

At St David's Cathedral, Archbishop Mark led a service of reaffirmation of baptism, drawing on an unexpected encounter with security removing railings for a Slayer concert. He placed the pilgrimage symbolically "between Slayer and Oasis" – turning away from evil towards the refreshment of Christian faith. Light refreshments followed at Cornerstone, concluding a day that celebrated unity across denominational boundaries.

A New Chapter for St Illtyd's Church

A celebration of thanksgiving took place at St Illtyd's Church and Community Centre on 19th July, marking the completion of a £950,000 restoration project attended by the local community, congregation, civic dignitaries and funders.

Water had been pouring into the Grade II listed building, threatening its structure. Thanks to community effort and generous funding, the project successfully re-roofed the church and introduced energy-saving improvements, including solar panels and new energy-efficient lighting.

Archbishop Mark spoke of the rich heritage of St Illtyd's, built by Irish migrants who fled the Great Famine of the 1840s. For over 185 years, the church has stood as a beacon of hope in Dowlais, growing into a vibrant centre for a diverse, multi-ethnic and multi-national community.

The restoration revitalised the church gardens to encourage wildlife, creating a welcoming space for reflection, with support from Merthyr Tydfil County Borough Council's Biodiversity Team and Keep Wales Tidy. Archbishop Mark paid tribute to volunteers including Canon Barry English, Deacon Garth and Gail Tasker, as well as Owen Collins and Zoe Oldman from the Archdiocese. He also presented an award to Kaya Gadjia, winner of the recent photography competition, with work from all young photographers displayed in the Community Centre.

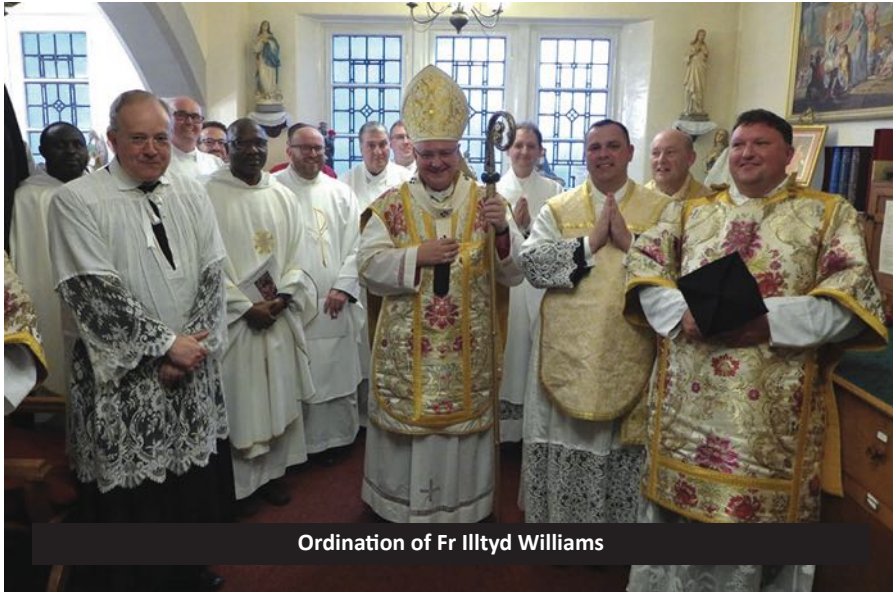

The celebration concluded with a barbecue in the July sunshine, marking the beginning of an exciting new chapter for this historic place of worship.

Joy at St Alban on the Moors

The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart was an occasion of great joy for the Cardiff Oratory and the Parish of St Alban's, Splott. The ordination to the Sacred Priesthood of Fr Illtyd M Williams was celebrated by Archbishop O'Toole. Fr Illtyd, a native of Cwmbran, is the first priest to be ordained from the Cardiff Oratorian community.

Oratorian Fathers and Brothers from across the UK and Canada were joined by the Vicar General, Canon Brian Gray, the Rector of St Philip's Seminary in Canada, and around 30 priests and brothers in the sanctuary.

The Archbishop, who celebrated the Mass, said the priestly ordination was "a cause of great joy for the Archdiocese, the Oratorian world-wide Federation, the Cardiff Oratory, and the Parish."

Ordination of Fr Illtyd Williams

It was the first ordination in St Alban's Church in over 50 years. Parishioners turned out in great numbers and, afterwards, filled the parish hall and a specially erected marquee for the reception hosted by the Oratory.

The next day, Fr Illtyd celebrated his first Mass. Afterwards, parishioners organised an international "bring and share" supper, which was also very well attended. Both evenings enjoyed fine weather, and the celebrations went on late into the night.

Fr Illtyd M. now serves as assistant priest at St Alban's Parish, as well as chaplain and foundation governor of St Alban's Catholic Primary School.

Cause for Hope

Catholic dioceses across England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland reported a sizeable increase in the number of adults joining the Church at Easter 2025. Archbishop Mark celebrated the Rite of Election at the Metropolitan Cathedral Church of St David in Cardiff and the Cathedral Church of St Joseph in Swansea with those to be received into the Church.

Rite of Election

75 catechumens and candidates attended in Cardiff, representing a 100% increase on the previous year, with their sponsors, friends and family. In Swansea there were 25, also an increase on the previous year.

In his homily, Archbishop Mark welcomed those preparing for baptism and full communion with the Catholic Church, reminding them that their journey is a response to God's call. Drawing on Pope Francis' reflection on his own faith, the Archbishop emphasised that when we seek God, we discover He has already been waiting for us. "Your name is already inscribed in His heart," he assured them.

Reflecting on Jesus' temptation in the wilderness, Archbishop Mark posed a Lenten question to all: "Who do I put first – God or myself?" He thanked the catechumens and candidates for making the decision to put God first as they seek to discover Him more deeply within the family of the Catholic Church, assuring them of the community's prayer and support.

OBITUARIES

Bishop Mark Jabalé OSB 1933-2025

Bishop Mark Jabalé, monk of Belmont Abbey for 73 years and Bishop Emeritus of Menevia, died on 5th June 2025, aged 91.

Born Jean Pierre Jabalé on 16th October 1933 in Alexandria, Egypt, to a Lebanese/French father and British/Greek/French mother, he was related through his mother, Arlette, to St Jean Vianney. His father, Jean, was MD of Fiat and Simca cars Europe. The young Jean came to England with ambitions to join the Navy, attending Belmont Abbey School, but the Lord had other plans – he joined the monastery instead, with one monk famously predicting he wouldn't last a month.

After studies in Fribourg and Strawberry Hill, where he played rugby and was affectionately known as the “Papist Witch Doctor”, he was ordained and taught at Belmont, serving as Housemaster, acting Headmaster, and later Headmaster. He also served as Headmaster of Alderwasley Hall in Derbyshire. In 1983 he travelled to Peru to establish the monastery's first foundation there, a mission that remained close to his heart. He returned to fundraise before being appointed Prior of Belmont in 1986 and was elected Abbot in 1993.

As Abbot, he faced the difficult task of presiding over the school's closure. In 2000 he was appointed Coadjutor Bishop of Menevia, succeeding Bishop Mullins in 2001 and serving until his retirement in 2008. He subsequently served as parish priest in Chipping Norton and Hendon, assisting with confirmations and saying Mass for religious communities. He lived for a time at Archbishop's House, Westminster, with his great friend Cardinal Nichols, before returning home to Belmont, where he loved praying the Office with the community.

Beyond his ecclesiastical duties, Bishop Mark was renowned for his extraordinary contribution to rowing. Despite never having sat in a boat, he learnt “from books, mainly” and went on to coach Oxford and transform Henley Royal Regatta by writing a computer programme for race results – well ahead of his time. In 1979, his coxless lightweight four won gold at the world championships in Bled, a triumph that almost didn't happen when funding was withdrawn at the last minute. His determination and ability to inspire others to achieve their best became legendary.

Bishop Mark's life was characterised by his zest for living, his love of good food and wine shared with friends, his passion for rugby (especially the French team, and the Welsh too), and his rock-solid faith – nothing overly pious or showy, but built on granite. He had a gift for leadership and teaching, creating lasting bonds of friendship and loyalty. His purpose, simply put, was to bring the joy of the Lord into the lives of others.

In his final years, he bore age and disability with patience and grace, supported lovingly by his monastic community. One friend's young son, upon hearing the Pope had died, believed it was Bishop Mark, asking if Mark would be Pope next – a story that delighted him. When Bishop Mark himself died, the boy picked flowers from the garden to bring to church, wanting to show how much he meant to him.

He is survived by his brothers Christian and Paul, nieces Aline, Nathalie and Isabelle and their families, and the monastic community of Belmont Abbey.

Mgr Michael Lewis 1947 – 2025

Mgr Clyde Hughes Johnson remembers

Michael Robert Lewis was born in North London and, at a young age, moved with his family to Bristol. Following school, he chose to go to rural Wales to study for a degree at UCW Lampeter and then the College of Librarianship in Aberystwyth. He had a phenomenal memory of the many books he read and also retained a clear judgement of each one. He was a walking Wikipedia.

In 1969 he became a Catholic and, in due course, offered himself for the priesthood in the Diocese of Menevia. He studied at Wonerish, an establishment he esteemed highly. Ordained in 1977, he served as curate in Rhyl and Flint and always regarded these as paradigms of what a Catholic parish should be.

In 1986, he was appointed Parish Priest of Burry Port but pined for the north. And so he was transferred back to what was now the Diocese of Wrexham and appointed to Queen's Park, Wrexham, an area with significant social problems.

Three years later, the Chancellor of Menevia arranged for his transfer back south to Brecon, where he felt more at home. Using his scholarly gifts, he wrote a well researched history of the Brecon Catholic community which had somehow survived since the Reformation.

Eventually, in 2004, he was moved to Llandrindod Wells where his mother had retired. Here, finally, he found his true niche and enjoyed a congregation who appreciated his many gifts and rode easily with his determined opinions, his quirky sense of humour and his particular version of liturgical propriety.

He suffered a devastating car accident at the age of 75 on the eve of retirement and almost lost his life. He pulled through but from then on his health was ruined. He struggled bravely onwards, despite much pain and disability, driving around his electric buggy until, finally, his heart gave way in the ongoing struggle.

He had been a faithful servant of Menevia, serving as Chancellor, advisor to many Bishops counsellor to the clergy and, indeed, their champion when called upon with his knowledge of Canon Law.

One dominant but largely hidden feature of his life was his pride in his Jewish ancestry, via his father's family. One Jewish relative said, "You know more about our faith than we do". One of his last wishes had been to write a spiritual reflection on the Holocaust; a brave man.

He was truly loved and respected by many friends, especially among the clergy, knowing now that we are unlikely to have such a knowledgeable, conscientious and supportive colleague again.

Deacon David O'Keefe 1950 - 2025

David O'Keefe was born on 10th June 1950. From an early age, he heard the call to serve, starting as an altar boy at the age of 10 and serving in this capacity at St Mary's Church, Merthyr for some 65 years.

After leaving school, he trained as an accountant and over the course of his professional career, worked for a number of major firms across South Wales including Hoover and Ford. In 1998, he commenced studies in Applied Theology at the Maryvale Institute, Birmingham and five years later applied for Archdiocese's Diaconate Programme. He was ordained as a Permanent Deacon on 24th June 2006.

As Abbot Bredan Thomas reflected at David's Requiem Mass, "His preaching, his baptising, his service at the altar—all of it was love in action. He cared for prisoners not as cases but as children of God. He cared for parishioners not as duties but as brothers and sisters. He cherished his family not as possessions but as treasures entrusted to him."

David leaves behind wife Pat, children Chris and Richard and grandchildren Anna and Kate.

Fr Liam Shore 1936 - 2025

Mgr Finbarr O'Leary remembers

The death of Fr. Liam J. Shore took place at the Sacred Heart Nursing Home in Crosspatrick, Co Kilkenny on the 16th of September 2025. He was born into the family of William and Elizabeth Shore, of Kiltown, Castlecomer with his brother Robert, and sister Johanna. According to his wishes his body has been donated to medical science teaching and research to University College Dublin. In lieu of any donations instead of flowers, he left instructions that the proceeds may be sent to the Friends of the District Hospital, Castlecomer.

I first met Liam as a mature student at Mt Melleray Seminary Co. Waterford in September 1958 where we both took the two-year pre-seminary, with our main subjects being Latin and English. It was in this same year that a priest from the Archdiocese of Cardiff, Canon Reidy came to the college to recruit students for the priesthood. Six students enlisted of which Liam was one of them. Following his studies in philosophy he studied theology at St John's College Waterford and was ordained priest in June 1967.

Fr. Liam's first appointment was to the parish of St. Mary's Merthyr Tydfil. After some years he was chosen to become parish priest of Abercynon. With time on his hands in this rather small parish, he decided to enlist in the Cardiff Institute to become qualified as a social worker. In recognition of his newfound skills, Archbishop Murphy appointed him as a chaplain to Cardiff prison. When on holidays Fr Liam used to ask me to provide him with a supply ministry. There I was informed of the quality of his pastoral care and gentle wry sense of humour, which brought a light into the gloomy walls and iron railings of the prison cells.

Due to rather poor health Fr Liam retired to Ireland and lived at Bowden's Court. He helped out both in his local parish of Castlecomer and the district hospital where he was chaplain. He was a member of Eiren's Own, the local G.A.A. club where he offered many years of service. He always took a lively interest in local and national politics which invariably entered his conversations. His decision to donate his body to the service of medical science reveals his spirit of generosity which characterized Fr. Liam.

While he will be sadly missed by family, friends and neighbours, his smile, laughter and gentleness has left the world a better place than he found it. Eternal rest grant into him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.

DIOCESE OF WREXHAM

Published by authority of the Bishop of Wrexham

WREXHAM

Foreword

Every year has its moments of Hail and Farewell, taking the Liturgical year as the beginning of 2025 i.e. the First Sunday of Advent it began with the sad death of Deacon James Lee of Abergele Parish and whose obituary can be found at the end of the Wrexham section of the Yearbook. Other departures during the year have been the well deserved retirement of Canon Francis Doyle from the parish of Buckley and more recently the transfer of Father Leo Philomin, OMI from the Anglesey Mission to the Oblate's House in Dublin. During the year we have also been pleased to welcome Father Michael Madu and Father Savi Menachery, CMI to be parochial administrators in parishes of Dolgellau and Bangor respectively. However the Diocese ended the year still with minus three priests meaning that many weekend Masses have had to be celebrated by supply priests, to whom we are most grateful for their generous service. The position though indicates there are to be further reduction of Masses and even churches in parts of the Diocese. One of the urgent needs I have to address is a new Pastoral Plan that takes account of the ever changing population picture across much of Wales, especially the rural north and also mid and the south west. Though most of mid and south west Wales is not our direct concern it does influence us as evidenced in the creation and promulgation of the new Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia at the beginning of 2025. The Province now returning to be just two dioceses, affectively North Wales and South Wales. We commit our continued support and prayer for Metropolitan Archbishop Mark O'Toole as he leads the Catholic Church in Wales.

Part of the blue print and structure of that new Pastoral Plan must be the Final Document of the XVI ordinary general Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission and its implementation. It is against that document that future ad limina reports and visit by bishops and the life of the church throughout the world will be oriented. Here there is much work to be done by us all in the Diocese, Parishes and our own lives. In his final greeting to the Synod, P. Francis reiterated his task of protecting and promoting harmony 'the dissemination of the Spirit in God's church' ... 'despite all the efforts, tensions and divisions that mark its journey toward the full manifestation of the Kingdom of God, which the prophet Isaiah asks us to imagine as a banquet God will prepare for all people.' (P.Francis 26th October 2024) This is a task that falls to us all and for it we have been strengthened through the observance of the Jubilee Year opened two months later.

The 29th December 2024 marked the opening of the Jubilee Year for the churches across the world. A jubilee year given the theme of Pilgrims of Hope by Pope Francis which he opening in Rome just days earlier. Quoting S. Paul writing to the Romans , P. Francis said 'Hope does not disappoint' (Romans 5:5); by that we are to live our lives and to bring the new life that hope gives to the worlds of which we are part.

Part of the fresh hope given to the Diocese was the coming of Fr. Savi Menachery, CMI and Fr. Michael Madu of the Nigerian diocese of Ahiara in the early summer; and of the ordination to the Diaconate of David Tarbrook as well to as the Final Profession (Solemn Vows) of Sr. Katherine, OCD at Dolgellau Carmel. To all four we repeat our thanks for the blessing they are to the diocese and renew our prayer for them in their ministry and fulfilment of their vocation, as well as to pray for further vocations to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

During the course of the Jubilee Year we had the annual Diocesan celebrations for Altar Servers, the Sick, Marriage Jubilarians and Family Life (Marriage Mass), the International Community that now forms a large part of many of the Parishes, those who serve in any way the justice system (Legal Mass) of our country, the visitors who come to Wales for the International and then national Eisteddfods, carers of the sick and infirm (Healthcarers/Medical Mass) in hospitals, hospices, institutions and in their own homes, our Young People. Added to those were the Pilgrim Masses at the Shrine of S.Winefride and her Well for the Year Six pupils of our Catholic primary schools, and for the National pilgrimage. Also the celebration of S. Richard Gwyn at the Cathedral, and S.John Roberts in Dolgellau. While not as grand or numerous as the celebrations in Rome each of these occasions had the celebration of Jubilee at their heart and the reminder that we are 'Pilgrims of Hope' in the diversity of our daily lives in the culture and society in which we live our faith.

For so many the joy of Easter was tinged with the sorrow of the death of P. Francis, but then enlivened again with fresh hope with the election of P. Leo XIV who during the following months has been to set out the direction of his pontificate, building on the very word itself from the Latin, 'pont' meaning 'bridge' and 'facere' meaning 'make' giving 'bridge-builder'. From his homilies, and addresses he has focused on peace, justice, social equality, brought about through reconciliation and the recognition of human dignity. He has also spoken strongly about environmental stewardship, and Christian community.

2025 began with the hope that the necessary repairs to the fabric of S. Mary's Cathedral would with the help of grant funding get underway. It is many years now that the need to replace the floor of the Cathedral and to deal with a number of other associated repair and maintenance issues had been identified. Some grant funding had been allocated, but with more needed and not forthcoming the project has again had to be postponed. This is a huge disappointment, that despite the great of Fr Nicholas and the Cathedral team the work cannot proceed until more commitments to give substantial grants can be attracted. Across the country this is seen as an almost unrealistic challenge as more places of worship are recognised as having significant historical, architectural and environmental importance and interest as evidenced by their being declared 'Listed Buildings' by government and yet without any parallel commitment to assist with their upkeep. In 2025 a further seven of our churches across the Diocese have been given Listed Building status, the complete list can be seen near the beginning of this Year Book in the Province pages, 'Listed Churches.'

As ever I am most grateful to all who have contributed to the compilation of this year's Directory and Yearbook. Particular thanks go to the Curial staff who strive tirelessly to serve the Diocese and maintain the usefulness of this Provincial publication in print as well as to those who populate and monitor the digital face of the Diocese. In conjunction with the Diocesan website which grows as a source of up-to-date information and inspiration by the day, together Yearbook, website and CLARION- become more and more an arm of the Diocese's commitment to evangelisation. No publication, no technology can do more than we ourselves in reading, re-reading and reading again the Gospels; living what we have learnt and sharing by proclamation with joy what we believe. Do please continue to use the God Who Speaks website (godwhospeaks.uk) where you will find an ever fresh and informative opening-up of the Bible for young and old alike.

Pope Francis in his Final Greeting to the members and participants at the 17th General Congregation of the Synod of the warned against rigidity. Quoting Madeleine Delbr  l, the mystic of the peripheries he said, ‘ ‘Above all, do not be rigid” – rigidity is a sin, a sin which sometime gets into the hearts of the clergy and of consecrated men and women.’ (26th October 2024). It could well be the watchword for us all in 2026 as we realistically face the challenges that will necessitate change and give greater life to the Diocese, or as S.John Henry Newman, recently declared Doctor of the Church wrote: “To live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often.” “Growth is the only evidence of life.” “Fear not that thy life shall come to an end, but rather that it shall never have a beginning.”

I continue to pray for you, your families and our communities that 2026 be a year of peace, joy and blessing and I look forward to seeing in your parishes and at all our Diocesan events to which you are of course entitled to attend without further invitation.

David Tarbrook Ordained to the Permanent Diaconate

On 14th June 2025, parishioners and clergy from across the Diocese of Wrexham and beyond gathered at St Mary's Cathedral, Wrexham, to celebrate the ordination of David Tarbrook to the permanent diaconate. The ordination Mass was celebrated by the Rt Rev Peter M. Brignall, Bishop of Wrexham, who welcomed David into this new ministry of service within the Church.

David's ordination is the fruit of four years of study and formation undertaken with the Northern Diaconal Formation Partnership and Loyola University. The liturgy was a joyful and prayerful occasion, marked by the presence of family, friends, clergy, and parishioners who came together to witness this important moment in the life of both David and the wider diocesan community.

Among those attending were David's mother, Janet, his four children — Tom, Sally, Lewis, and Louise — and his grandchildren, Darcie and Reggie, who joined the congregation in celebrating this milestone in his journey of faith.

David will now exercise his diaconal ministry in the parish of St Richard Gwyn, which serves the churches of Chirk, Llangollen, and Ruabon. He follows in the footsteps of his late father, Rev John Tarbrook, who was ordained a Permanent Deacon by Bishop Aloysius Ward at Ruabon in 1980.

In addition to his new ministry, David continues to serve the diocese as Communications Officer, a role in which many already know him. His ordination is not only a personal milestone, but also a moment of great joy for the whole diocese, as the permanent diaconate continues to grow and flourish in service of the Gospel.

The Diocese of Wrexham currently has three men in formation for the Permanent Diaconate. We keep them in our prayers, asking that more men may generously answer the Lord's call to serve His Church through the Priesthood, Permanent Diaconate, and Religious Life.

Eisteddfod Mass Celebrated at St Mary's Cathedral, Wrexham

On Thursday 7th August, the Diocese of Wrexham was proud to host the Eisteddfod Mass at St Mary's Cathedral, a celebration which drew parishioners and visitors from across the diocese and beyond. The cathedral was filled as people from every corner of Wales came together, reflecting the strong bond between faith, language, and culture that is at the heart of the Welsh Catholic community.

The Mass was a truly special occasion. Bishop Peter Brignall, Bishop of Wrexham, presided from the chair, while Bishop Emeritus Edwin Regan was principal celebrant, offering the Mass in the Welsh language. Their presence together highlighted the continuity and shared mission of the Catholic Church in Wales. The liturgy itself was rich in tradition, with the prayers, readings, and hymns offered in Welsh, allowing those gathered to pray and worship in the language of their heritage.

Adding to the sense of unity, ministers from other Christian denominations were present and took part in the celebration. Their attendance underlined the ecumenical spirit that continues to grow in Wales, where different communities of faith recognise the importance of celebrating together in moments of national and cultural significance.

The music and singing gave the Mass a particularly festive character, with traditional Welsh hymns resounding through the cathedral. Many remarked how moving it was to hear the language of Wales so beautifully woven into the liturgy, expressing both the faith and cultural identity of the people.

The Eisteddfod Mass stands as an annual reminder of the Church's deep connection with the Welsh language and culture. It was not only a celebration of the Holy Mass but also of the heritage, unity, and identity of the Catholic community in Wales.

As the congregation departed, there was a strong sense of joy and thanksgiving — that faith and culture, so deeply intertwined, had once again been honoured in such a fitting and prayerful way.

National Pilgrimage to St Winefride's Shrine, Holywell

On Sunday 22nd June, Bishop Peter Brignall led the annual National Pilgrimage to St Winefride's Shrine, Holywell, accompanied by clergy from across the Diocese of Wrexham. This centuries-old tradition once again drew hundreds of pilgrims from all parts of the diocese and beyond, united in prayer at one of the most significant places of Catholic devotion in Wales.

The pilgrimage opened with a solemn procession from the Catholic Church of St Winefride down to the historic shrine. At its heart was the relic of St Winefride, carried with great reverence, and accompanied by banners and a statue of the saint. As the pilgrims walked, they lifted their voices in praying the Holy Rosary, making their way together to the holy site — a place long cherished as a wellspring of prayer, healing, and renewal.

At the shrine, Bishop Peter was joined by clergy in celebrating Mass in honour of St Winefride, whose faith, courage, and witness continue to inspire devotion more than thirteen centuries after her martyrdom. Her story, of a young woman whose faith was tested through violence and suffering, yet who was raised up by God, continues to speak powerfully in every age.

Following the Mass, pilgrims joined in the traditional procession around St Winefride's Well, venerating the relic of the saint and seeking her intercession. Many took time for quiet prayer at the well, a site where countless pilgrims through the ages have found strength, consolation, and healing.

For centuries, the shrine at Holywell has been regarded as one of the oldest continually visited pilgrimage sites in Britain. Pilgrims have travelled here in times of joy and of need, leaving behind tokens of their prayers and thanksgiving. In recent years, the shrine has also been recognised as a place of sanctuary for women fleeing sexual violence and abuse, drawing on St Winefride's own story as a source of strength and solidarity. In this way, the shrine remains not only a place of historical devotion, but also of living pastoral care, where the wounded find welcome and the vulnerable discover hope.

The pilgrimage once again highlighted the enduring significance of St Winefride as a figure of faith for the people of Wales, and the shrine at Holywell as a place of grace, sanctuary, and encounter with God.

Saint David's Church and Divine Retreat Centre, Pantasaph, Holywell, Flintshire

I welcome this opportunity to tell you a little about Saint David's parish church and the Divine Retreat Centre at Pantasaph, near Holywell. We hope it will inspire you to make a visit to this place of worship and pilgrimage, joining in with our regular programme throughout the year. We are open to people from all backgrounds and denominations. Beyond being a collection of historical buildings and grounds, this is a special place of hospitality, a place of prayer, and a place of worship.

Divine UK Ministries is a mission of the Vincentian Congregation, inspired by the spiritual vision of Saint Vincent de Paul. As well as being a parish of the Wrexham diocese, we hold monthly residential retreats over the weekend, healing services, spiritual renewal, intercession and media evangelization (for details, please visit our YouTube channel @DivineUKOfficial or @pantasaph; visit our website www.pantasaph.org or Facebook divineretreatcentrepantasaph).

Every first Saturday of each month, we hold a one-day healing convention at Pantasaph (from 10.00 a.m. until 3.00 p.m.).

The Divine Retreat Centre at Pantasaph is one of 76 retreat centres around the world, run by the Vincentian priests. The Divine Retreat Centre in Kerala, India, is recognized as the largest Catholic retreat centre in the world, having attracted several millions people to a deep spiritual renewal. The Divine Retreat Centre at Pantasaph is an integral part of this worldwide community.

Saint David's church is a Grade II* listed church, completed in 1852 and is the only church in Wales designed with significant involvement of A.W.N. Pugin. In addition to being the National Shrine for Saint Padre Pio, the extensive and peaceful grounds feature Our Lady's Grotto and the hillside Calvary Way, featuring the Stations of the Cross. A special indulgence is granted to all who devoutly visit this Calvary Way Stations of the Cross.

Walkers on the North Wales Pilgrim's Way, a 135 - mile marked walking route between Basingwerk Abbey (near Holywell) in the east and Bardsey Island (off the Llyn peninsula) in the west, call here.

In the past few months, we have had significant events at the centre. During the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in August, we held a candlelit Holy Mass celebration and a solemn Rosary Adoration at Our Lady's Grotto. This was the first time we held a Marian night. A significant number of people, just over 300 attended the service, reflecting on the Mother's place in our discipleship journey.

In September 2025, a full day Deliverance Convention for the Feast Days of Saints Padre Pio and Vincent de Paul was held, attracting approximately 1,250 visitors for the one-day service. Coaches came from great distances including Swindon, London, Leicester, Leeds and Manchester.

The grounds of the centre attract a lot of visitors who come to soak in the calming ambiance of the place. They might not necessarily be churchgoers but they are drawn to the spirituality soothing presence in the place.

People feel united to the life and beauty of the gardens and the green spaces. The language of the Lord is spoken through delicate beauty and diversity. God is the ultimate source of all beauty which touches our hearts and minds.

The gardens are a work in progress but offers an ambiance of prayer and quietness.

Marriage and Family Life Commission

Mission:

"To serve, support and affirm Family Life in the Catholic Diocese of Wrexham through prayer, action and celebration.

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mother of God and St Joseph may the Lord God establish our families firmly in his grace."

Advent Family Day

On the first Sunday of Advent we gather for a free fun event which includes family craft activities eg creating an advent wreath to take home. We conclude with a joyful Family Friendly Service. Booking is essential.

Celebration of Marriage Mass

Every year in February around Marriage week we meet together to celebrate Marriage. Bishop Peter leads us to renew our marriage vows and we acknowledge special anniversaries 1st, 10th, 25th, 40th, 50th and 60th plus. Light refreshments including our anniversary cake are served after mass. Everyone is welcome.

Marriage Preparation

Please, let us know if you are getting married as we can advise you on local marriage preparation courses, available face to face or online.

Grandparents Day

A fun day to explore grandparenting and get to know each other, concluding with Mass led by Bishop Peter. Light refreshments are available. Booking is essential.

Volunteering

If you would like to support us in any way in this important work please get in touch.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

The Church recognises the personal dignity and rights of children and vulnerable adults to whom it has a special responsibility and a duty of care. The Church, and individual members of it, undertake to do all in their power to create a safe environment for children and to prevent their physical, sexual or emotional abuse'.
Recommendation 4 - A Programme for Action.

DIOCESAN SAFEGUARDING TRUSTEE SUB-COMMITTEE

Chair – Mrs Josey Snowdon

c/o Bishops House, Sontley Road, Wrexham LL13 7EW T: 01978 262726

The Diocese of Wrexham Safeguarding arrangements are governed by the National policies for the Dioceses of England and Wales.

The Diocesan Safeguarding Trustee Sub-Committee oversees the work in the Diocese.

The Bishop has appointed a Safeguarding Coordinator to support parishes in implementing safe arrangements to protect children and vulnerable adults. She is Mrs Mary Rowlands who can be contacted on 01978 262726 or by email safeguarding@rcdwxm.org.uk. Karen Lewis is the Diocesan Safeguarding

Administrator who can be contacted at curia.admin@rcdwxm.org.uk

In each of the parishes of the Diocese at least one person is identified as the Parish Safeguarding Representative. Their names and contact details are displayed on Church premises.

To learn more about the Church's Policies to safeguard children and vulnerable adults, visit the Diocesan website on www.rcdwxm.org.uk and click on Safeguarding

OBITUARY

Information for the Obituary of Deacon Stuart James Ian Lee

He was always called James, and known as Deacon James at the Parish of St Therese, Abergele

Born in Portsmouth 08.03.1941    Died in Abergele 06. 12. 2024

James was educated at Kelly Colledge, Tavistock, Devon
He gained a degree in Physics at Bristol University

He worked first for the BBC as a sound engineer in Bristol until he joined Philips Medical Systems in Eindhoven, The Netherlands in 1969. He worked in the development and marketing of X-ray, CT scanners, MRI units and other diagnostic equipment, and also travelled all over Europe visiting, hospitals and clinicians, to discuss the use and development of this diagnostic equipment. With over 40 years experience, James was often asked for advice by people coming new into the field – he was known by many in Philips in the latter years as Opa James – Grandpa James.

James spoke English, Dutch German and French fluently, and had a working knowledge of Spanish, Italian and Latin. When he wasn't working he very much enjoyed wandering around the towns and cities of Europe, visiting the Cathedrals, museums, restaurants and junk shops and also taking walking and cycling holidays for peace and rest. His son's wedding in Hong Kong was special, as was his 65th birthday in Jerusalem.

In 1990, while living in Oisterwijk, The Netherlands, James joined the course for men interested in the Diaconate at the St Jan's Seminarie in S'Hertogenbosch. He was ordained on 30th September 1995 at the Kathedrale Basiliek van Sint Jan, S'Hertogenbosch. He would have celebrated 30 years as a Deacon on September 30th 2025, but sadly did not quite make it. He worked in several parishes: H. Joannes Parochie, Oisterwijk, NL; H. Petrus Parochie Oisterwijk NL; H Maria Alacoque Tilburg NL; and finally spent 13 years assisting Father Bernard at St Therese and Christ the King, Abergele, UK. Though he was happy in all his parishes, he said that the last years with Fr Bernard were the happiest. Over the years he baptised, buried, married, taught, preached, visited the sick, undertook various sorts of administration, and at St Therese, was responsible for maintenance of the building, including the complex task of renewing the Sanctuary of St Therese – which is ongoing.

James died peacefully at home, dearly loved always by his wife, Bryony, Son, Francis, daughter-in-law, Moime, and Grandchildren Natasha and Matthew.
May he rest in peace.

ORDER OF CONSECRATED VIRGINS

This was revived at Vatican II for women outside of a monastic cloister and not belonging, either, to an Apostolic Congregation. They came directly under the Bishop of the Diocese and are completely dedicated to a life of perpetual Virginity. Pope John Paul II writes of the ancient Order of Virgins, known to Christian Communities ever since Apostolic times. These women acquire a particular link with the Church, which they are committed to serve.' Canon 604 of the new Canon Law states 'Through their pledge to follow Christ more closely, virgins are consecrated to God, mystically espoused to Christ and dedicated to the service of the Church when the Diocesan Bishop consecrates them according to the approved liturgical Rite.'

Sr Judith Harvey, Wrexham

Sr. Jennifer McGlade, Llandudno

SECULAR INSTITUTES

It was the Papal Document 'Provide Mater' which opened up the possibility of this form of Consecrated life in the second half of the 20th Century. It is designed to develop a specific type of apostolic presence in modern society. Men and women who belong to these Institutes are dedicated by vow or promise whilst living normal, secular lives. Their commitment is sometimes quite hidden. Their charism is their consecrated secularity.

CANONICAL HERMITS

These come under Canon 603 of the new Canon Law. These individuals, men or women, are vowed to follow a fully eremitical way of life when they are approved of and blessed by the Bishop. They are dedicated to complete solitude, asceticism and continual prayer. Fasting, celibacy, poverty, silence and work are an integral part of this radical form of Hermit life.

INTRODUCTION

The Cardiff-Menevia and Wrexham Calendar combines the Universal Calendar of the Latin Rite with the Welsh National Calendar as it appears in the 2011 edition of the Roman Missal, together with certain celebrations peculiar to each diocese, e.g. the dedication of the Cathedral Church. In addition, regional adjustments have been made for the county of Herefordshire in accord with the Proper Calendar for England incorporated in the same edition of the Roman Missal.

COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS ON THE ORDER WILL BE GRATEFULLY RECEIVED BY THE EDITORS:

THE 2024 LECTIONARY FOR MASS

Since Advent 2024, a new Lectionary for Mass has been in force. Volume I contains material for all Sundays and Holy Days, including Feasts of the Lord set out with two readings for use when they fall on Sundays. Volume II contains all weekday material needed from the start of Advent until Pentecost. Volume III contains all weekday material from the resumption of Ordinary Time after Pentecost until the Saturday before Advent begins. Volume IV contains the lections for special occasions: material for Infant Baptisms, which is not clearly indicated in the front index, can be found at pages 85 onwards; material for Confirmation starts at page 119.

DEDICATIONS AND TITULAR FEASTS OF CHURCHES

This Order does not contain any indication of the Anniversary of Dedication or of the Titular Feast of individual churches. (The Dedication applies only to consecrated Churches.) Parish priests are therefore advised to annotate their own copies of the Order concerning these feasts at the start of the year.

Note that where the church is known to have been consecrated but the date is not recorded, the Dedication Festival may be kept on 25 October or on the Sunday before All Saints' Day (i.e. the Sunday which falls on 23-29 October, allowing for the occasional transfer of All Saints' Day to Sunday 31 October.) The choice of date should be made once and fixed permanently for its parish community.

Both the Dedication and the Titular feast are celebrated as solemnities, i.e. with Evening Prayer I, Gloria, Creed, and Te Deum. They are celebrated on the normal days unless these happen to fall in Holy Week or Easter Week, or on Ash Wednesday, Ascension Day or Pentecost Sunday, Sundays of Advent, Lent or Eastertide, or on any other solemnity. In such cases they may be transferred to the next free day (or to the previous Saturday if the clash occurs on a Sunday). If it is considered pastorally beneficial, the Mass of the Dedication or Titular may be used at all public Masses on the following Sunday, but only during the period of Ordinary Time. If the Titular of a particular Church no longer exists in the Roman Calendar, the same date may be observed as hitherto.

HOLYDAYS OF OBLIGATION

The Holydays of Obligation for England and Wales are: every Sunday, Christmas Day, the Epiphany of the Lord (6 January), the Ascension of the Lord, St Peter & St Paul (29 June), the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (15 August), and All Saints (1 November). With the exception of Christmas Day, any Holyday of Obligation falling on either a Saturday or a Monday is transferred to the Sunday. Since Advent 2006, one Solemnity has been permanently transferred to Sunday, namely, that of the Body and Blood of the Lord (Corpus Christi).

THE TE DEUM

The Te Deum is sung or said at the Office of Readings on Sundays outside of Lent, during the Octaves of Easter and Christmas, and on Solemnities and Feasts.

ALTERNATIVE CALENDARS

Where Mass is celebrated in the Extraordinary Form according to the provisions of Summorum Pontificum, a different calendar applies: the universal Ordo for this may be found on the website of the Latin Mass Society of England and Wales. See: lms.org.uk/fiuvordo

The Bishops' Conference of England and Wales submitted a dubium to the Pontifical Commission Ecclesia Dei which confirmed that in the Roman Rite, whichever Form of the liturgy is being celebrated, the Holydays of Obligation are held in common, on the date prescribed for the Ordinary Form. Where the obligation has been removed and the Holyday transferred to the Sunday, this is to be followed in both Ordinary and Extraordinary celebrations of Mass. A further dubium submitted by the Latin Mass Society (N107/97 20 October 2008) clarified that where the Extraordinary Form is being followed, it is proper to also celebrate the Mass and Divine Office of these solemnities on the traditional dates indicated in the 1962 calendar, though there would be no obligation on the faithful to attend Mass on such days.

Celebrations proper to the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham – the canonical structure under which former Anglicans can worship as Catholics while retaining their distinctive patrimony – follow the Calendar and Ordo available via their website at: www.ordinariate.org.uk/our-prayer-and-liturgy

Members of Religious Orders, or of Eastern Rite Churches, should consult their local superiors or clergy concerning their proper calendars.

PROPER MATERIAL FOR WALES

In 1974, the Roman Missal and Divine Office published in that year reflected the Calendar for Wales issued by the Bishops of Wales in 1973. In 1981, the Proper for Wales was published with the Imprimatur of Archbishop Murphy and the authority of the Holy See, Protocol CD 607/77 for the Divine Office Proper and CD 984/80 for the Mass Proper.

The new English Translation of the Roman Missal published in 2011 was granted recognitio by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, for the dioceses of England and Wales (Prot. N. 915/06/L) on 28 March 2010. The proper calendar, texts, and adaptations for the dioceses of England and Wales were confirmed by the Apostolic See by decrees of the same Congregation on 7 January 2011 (Prot. N. 915/06/L), 9 January 2011, (Prot. N. 1035/10/L), and 11 January 2011 (Prot. N. 1036/10/L).

Blessed John Henry Newman was subsequently added to the Calendar for Wales (Prot. n. 342/12/L, 8 June 2012), and his observance in England & Wales was raised to the rank of a Feast in 2019 following his canonization. St John Paul II was added to the Calendars for Wales and England prior to his inclusion in the Universal Calendar. The current official Calendar for Wales is therefore given by the prescriptions of the 2011 Missal, with subsequent additions, and can be found on the Liturgy Office website:

All the Proper Material for Mass will now be found in the 2011 edition of the Roman Missal and 2024 Lectionary, except for subsequent additions; national celebrations are included in the Proper of Saints as part of the natural sequence of dates.

The Proper Material for the Divine Office in Wales (1981 edition) may be obtained on request by email from Rev. Dr Gareth Leyshon (leyshon.gareth@cardiffmenevia.org). Note that the liturgical books for the Divine Office currently in print may indicate that some days in the Calendar for Wales are Obligatory Memorials when in fact they are now all optional.

Older books also indicate that 4 May is the Feast of the Beatified Martyrs of England and Wales. In the current calendar for England, the Feast of the Forty Martyrs on 25 October has been suppressed in favour of a combined celebration of the English Martyrs on 4 May, chosen because it marks the first Reformation martyrdom (three Carthusians at Tyburn in 1535). In Wales, however, 25 October remains the Feast of the "Six Welsh Martyrs and Their Companions"; omission of 4 May from the calendar for Wales in the 2011 Missal indicates that this date is no longer a Feast or even a Memorial of the Beatified Martyrs. If a votive celebration is to be offered in honour of the Beatified Martyrs, proper material can be found at Daily Prayer 319* & Divine Office Volume II 204.

Among the 85 martyrs beatified in 1987, the following have connections with Wales and Herefordshire:

- Nicholas Wheeler, a seminary priest from Herefordshire, was executed at Tyburn 21 January 1586, aged 36.
- Richard Flower (or Lloyd), a Welsh layman, aged 22, was executed at Tyburn, 30 August 1588.
- Humphrey Pritchard, a Welsh serving man, was arrested with Blessed Thomas Belson in Oxford, and executed there on 5 July 1589.
- William Davies (born in North Wales, probably Croes yn Eirias, Denbighshire, date uncertain; executed at Beaumaris Castle, 27 July 1593) was a Welsh Roman Catholic priest. There is a chapel in Anglesey built as a memorial to him.
- Charles Mahoney (Mahony; alias Meehan) born after 1639, executed at Ruthin, Denbighshire, 12 August 1679, was an Irish Franciscan.
- Roger Cadwallador, born at Stretton Sugwas, near Hereford, in 1568, executed at Leominster, 27 August 1610, was an English Roman Catholic priest.

In addition, Blessed Philip Powell, a native of Breconshire, was martyred at Tyburn 30 June 1646; he was beatified by Pope Pius XI in 1929.

A number of earlier saints associated with Wales or Herefordshire also appear in the Roman Martyrology. Votive celebrations may be legitimately carried out for the martyrs listed above and also:

13 April: St Caradoc, a hermit in South Wales who died in 1124;

27 April: St Mauganus, a sixth-century bishop in Anglesey;

5 May: St Brioc, a 5th Century Welsh Bishop who became abbot of a monastery in Brittany;

6 May: Blessed Edward Jones, a priest and convert from the Church of England, born in the diocese of St Asaph, who was martyred today at Fleet Street in 1590;

4 June: St Petroc "of Wales" who ministered and died in Cornwall;

21 June: St Méen, a 6th Century Welsh monk who became abbot of a monastery in Brittany;

28 July: St Samson, a pupil of St Illtyd who became Abbot of Dol in Brittany;

30 July: Blessed Edward Powell, a priest born in Wales, who was martyred today at Smithfield in 1540;

22 August: St John Kemble was martyred today in Hereford in 1679;

25 August: St Thomas Cantelupe, Bishop of Hereford, who died in 1282;

21 September: St Cadoc, the 6th Century Abbot of Llanancarfan;

15 November: St Malo, a 6th Century bishop from Wales who became abbot of a monastery in Brittany.

THE ROMAN MARTYROLOGY

Optional memorials and votive celebrations of saints may be kept on the weekdays of Ordinary Time, on weekdays of Advent before December 17th, on weekdays of the Christmas season from January 2nd onwards, and weekdays of the Easter season. On such days, even when there is an optional Memorial, a priest may celebrate either the Mass of the weekday or that of any Saint inscribed that day in the Roman Martyrology (cf. General Instruction of the Roman Missal 316b,c). The same holds, analogously, for the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours (cf. General Instruction of the Liturgy of the Hours, 244). It is perfectly legitimate, therefore, in such circumstances, to celebrate in honour of a Saint found in neither the General Calendar nor in a proper calendar. Obviously, such cases call for the exercise of pastoral good sense on the part of the celebrant. Mention is made above of a selection of saints and beati local to Wales or Herefordshire who are listed in the 2004 edition of the Roman Martyrology.

NUPTIAL MASSES

Whenever marriage is celebrated within Mass, the Ritual Mass for Marriage is used, along with white vestments. If, however, such a Mass is celebrated on a Sunday or Solemnity, the Mass of the day is used with its own proper readings, plus the nuptial blessing and if appropriate, the final blessing of the wedding Mass. (On Sundays during Ordinary Time, the Ritual Mass for Marriage may nevertheless be used, if the timing does not coincide with a scheduled Mass for the parish community.) Since the Liturgy of the Word is of great importance in the celebration of marriage, in cases where the Ritual Mass for Marriage is not used, one of the readings may be taken from among those provided for the celebration of marriage. If marriage is celebrated on a day of penitential character, especially within Lent, the parish priest should advise that account be taken of that character. The celebration of marriage on Good Friday or on the following day, Holy Saturday, is absolutely forbidden.

MASSES FOR THE DEAD

First place among Masses for the Dead is held by the funeral Mass, which may be celebrated on any day except on Holydays of Obligation, on Maundy Thursday, during the Paschal Triduum, or on the Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide. It is appropriate that the paschal candle be placed, lit, near the place where the coffin will rest.

If the Mass is combined directly with the other funeral rites, once the prayer after communion has been said, omitting the concluding rites of Mass, the rite of final commendation and farewell is carried out. This is not to be done unless the body is actually present.

On reception of news of a death, on the occasion of a final burial, or on the first anniversary, a Mass for the Dead may be used even on days within the Christmas Octave, and on an obligatory memorial, or on other weekdays, other than on Ash Wednesday or within Holy Week. Daily Masses of the Dead, unless some real need of the faithful dictates otherwise, are permitted only on weekdays in Ordinary Time, and on optional memorials or days when the weekday Office is used, provided too that the Mass is actually said for the dead.

MASS FOR THE PEOPLE (MISSA PRO POPULO)

A parish priest is bound on each Sunday and on each Holyday of Obligation to offer one Mass for the people entrusted to him. If he is lawfully impeded in this, he should have someone else celebrate Mass for the people on these days or else celebrate it himself on other days.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYERS

The choice among the Eucharistic Prayers found in the Order of Mass is suitably guided by the following norms:

Eucharistic Prayer I, that is, the Roman Canon, which may always be used, is especially suited to be sung or said on days when there is a proper text for the Communicantes (In union with the whole Church) or in Masses endowed with a proper form of the Hanc igitur (Father, accept this offering) and also in the celebrations of the Apostles and of the Saints mentioned in the Prayer itself; it is likewise especially appropriate for Sundays, unless for pastoral considerations Eucharistic Prayer III is preferred.

Eucharistic Prayer II, on account of its particular features, is more appropriately used on weekdays or in special circumstances. Although it has been provided with its own Preface, it may also be used with other Prefaces, especially those that summarize the mystery of salvation, such as the common Prefaces. When Mass is celebrated for a particular dead person, the special formula may be inserted in the place indicated.

Eucharistic Prayer III may be said with any Preface. Its use is preferred on Sundays and feast days. If, however, this Eucharistic Prayer is used in Masses for the Dead, the special formula for the dead may be used, to be included at the proper place.

Eucharistic Prayer IV has an invariable Preface and gives a fuller summary of salvation history. It may be used when a Mass has no Preface of its own and is particularly appropriate for Sundays in Ordinary Time. Because of its structure, no special formula for the dead may be inserted into this prayer.

On 1 May 2013, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments decreed that the name of St Joseph should be inserted into Eucharistic Prayers II, III & IV. For further information and for a “bookmark” containing the amended passages, see: tinyurl.com/JoeTexts

The four forms of the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions may be used only with the formularies of the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, which do not have their own proper preface. Each of the four formulations has its own integral preface, and may not be used with any other preface. These Eucharistic Prayers are ideally suited for use in the Cycle of Prayer, outlined below.

The two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation each contain their own preface, but it is permitted to use these prayers with any other preface which speaks of penance or reconciliation. These prayers may therefore be used at any time during Lent with suitable Lenten Prefaces, and also, with their integral prefaces, during the weekdays of the first four weeks of Lent; they may also be used on penitential occasions at other times of year.

There also exist three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children, which may only be used at Masses when children constitute a significant proportion of the assembly, and a Eucharistic Prayer for Deaf People which may only be used by a celebrant who can sign, and when a significant number of Deaf people are present.

MASS AND COMMUNION

It is highly appropriate that the faithful receive the Body of the Lord by means of hosts consecrated at that same Mass and that on the occasions laid down they also communicate from the chalice, so that through such signs Holy Communion may more clearly be seen to be a sharing in the sacrifice being celebrated. The faithful who have already received the Blessed Eucharist once, may also receive it again on the same day, that is to say for no more than a second time on that same day, in the course of a further Eucharistic celebration in which they take part (cf. Code of Canon Law 917 and the authoritative interpretation of the same promulgated on 26 June 1984). In Wales and in England, broad permission was extended in 1985 for communion under both kinds (Briefing, 1985, volume 15, page 190). The provisions of the 2004 instruction Redemptionis Sacramentum should be noted.

EASTER DUTY

Once admitted to the blessed Eucharist, each of the faithful is obliged to receive Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept must be fulfilled during paschal time (i.e. between Palm Sunday and Pentecost Sunday), unless for a good reason it is fulfilled at another time during the year.

EUCCHARISTIC FAST

A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine. A priest who celebrates the Most Holy Eucharist two or three times on the same day can take something before the second or third celebration even if there is less than one hour between them. The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour; the former discipline of requiring a quarter-hour fast no longer applies. (Code of Canon Law 919)

CYCLE OF PRAYER

In 1996, the Bishops of England and Wales set out a Cycle of Prayer, allocating particular intentions to each of six divisions of the year. Each individual intention might be remembered frequently – by individuals, parishes, and other groups – throughout its allocated season, but also has its particular focal point, i.e. a particular Day of Prayer ordered by the Holy See or by the Bishops of England & Wales. Over time, additional intentions, such as ‘Victims of Human Trafficking’ and ‘Survivors of Abuse’, have been added to the established cycle.

The Cycle is based on a division of the year into six periods, three of these being the principal liturgical seasons of Advent-with-Christmas, Lent, and Easter. The other three periods are divisions of Ordinary Time, namely Winter, Summer and Autumn. On the Day of Special Prayer itself, and especially on Sundays, it is appropriate to announce the Day of Special Prayer in the opening remarks at the beginning of Mass, and to make special mention in the Prayer of the Faithful. Care should be taken that the remaining petitions of the Prayer of the Faithful should be formulated in accordance with the norms given in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) 69-71. When a Day of Prayer or other observance falls on a Sunday, the Mass and Lectionary texts of the Sunday are normally used.

On weekdays the use of suitable ‘Masses for Various Needs and Occasions’ or ‘Votive Masses’ should be considered to support the marking of the Day of Prayer (GIRM 373-378). The readings assigned for each day in the Lectionary for weekdays should not be omitted too frequently and without sufficient reason. It is often more fruitful to explore any special intentions through the readings assigned to the day, than to choose from the Common those which may appear at first sight more appropriate to the intention. ## GUIDE TO USING THE ORDER

In the calendar which follows: + indicates a HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION.

Entries under the rubric EVENING prescribe both the Liturgy of the Hours to be celebrated for Evening Prayer and Night Prayer, and also the Mass to be used if Mass is celebrated later than Evening Prayer.

It is assumed that the user is familiar with the main cycles in the liturgical books: Ordinary Sundays; Ordinary Weekdays; the Seasons of Advent, Christmastide, Lent and Eastertide; the Proper of Saints from January to December. Page numbers are given in this Order only when material is found outside these main cycles, such as the Solemnities of the Lord in Ordinary Time, or the National Propers for the Divine Office. This Order is meant to be used in conjunction with the liturgical books, and in general, rubrics printed clearly alongside the texts in the Roman Missal and Divine Office will not be duplicated here.

The Gloria is always said on weekdays designated FEAST; this is not explicitly mentioned in the calendar below, but every Sunday and Solemnity will be annotated with explicit mention of the Gloria (when required) and Creed.

Where page numbers are given, M&EP indicates Morning and Evening Prayer (not to be confused with the abridged Shorter Morning and Evening Prayer); DP indicates Daily Prayer (the volume which includes Prayer During the Day); and DO-I, DO-II and DO-III the three volume set of The Divine Office. Note that some volumes include three sequences of page numbering – one plain, another marked by an asterisk (*) and the third by square brackets [ ]. RM indicates the current edition of the Roman Missal, internally indicated as the 2010 edition though actually published in 2011. Reference is also made to the Book of Blessings: page numbers are in the USA edition, which has been authorized for use by the Bishops of England and Wales in the absence of our own national version.

PRAYING THE DIVINE OFFICE

On days which are not marked as FEASTS or SOLEMNITIES, psalms for the Divine Office (also known as the Prayer of the Church or the Liturgy of the Hours) are wholly or mostly taken from the repeating cycle of the 4-week psalter. The current week is always indicated in the Order below, at the entry for Saturday evening, since a new week normally begins with the First Evening Prayer of Sunday.

The psalms for Prayer During the Day are always those of the occurring weekday except where the Breviary or the Order explicitly indicates the contrary. Sometimes the “Complementary Psalms” will be specified: these can be found at DP [485], DO-I [592], DO-II [514] and DO-III [514]

CHOICE OF MASS AND OF PREFACE

Where more than one observance is offered, with the rubric “or”, the Celebrant may freely choose to celebrate the Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours corresponding to any of the options presented. On such days, and on Weekdays of Ordinary Time, of Advent up to 16 December, of Christmastide and of Eastertide, the Celebrant may also choose to celebrate a Votive Mass of any Saint listed in the Roman Martyrology, or any Blessed proper to the place, or (if applicable) their religious order, or a Mass for Various Needs and Occasions.

Whenever a Memorial is kept, all the proper material provided in the Roman Missal should be used. If there are no proper texts given for the Prayer over the Offerings and the Prayer After Communion, the prayer of the Season may be used, or an appropriate text from the Commons. Where a suggested reference is given to the Commons, it is permitted to choose other suitable material from the Commons, including mixing material from different Commons (for example, when a Martyr is also a Bishop or a Virgin); material from the Common of Holy Men and Women may always be used in such cases. During Advent, Christmastide and Eastertide, on days when Memorials may be celebrated, the celebrant may choose the Preface of the Season or the Preface appropriate to the Saint.

LITURGICAL COLOURS

These are given in full, except:

- “ROSE/P” indicates that on Laetare Sunday and Gaudete Sunday, rose or purple vestments may be used.
- “P/BLACK” indicates that on All Souls’ Day, purple or black vestments may be used.
- “W or G” indicates that on Votive Masses of Our Lady on Saturday, white or green vestments may be used.

REMEMBRANCE OF DECEASED CLERGY

This Order includes, in italics, the names of those who died as clergy of one of the dioceses of Wales and Herefordshire, on the dates of their death. Bishops and Deacons are explicitly identified as such; entries not otherwise identified are of presbyters (priests). Anniversaries of presbyters and deacons will not be included in the Order beyond 25 years from the date of death, but these dates will still be available in the diocesan listings present in the Yearbook. The entries for Bishops continue to be included in the text ad infinitum.

PENITENTIAL ACTS

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

All of Christ's faithful are obliged to do penance. The obligation arises in imitation of Christ himself and in response to his call. During his life on earth, not least at the beginning of his public ministry, Our Lord undertook voluntary penance. He invited his followers to do the same. The penance he invited would be a participation in his own suffering, an expression of inner conversion and a form of reparation for sin. It would be a personal sacrifice made out of love for God and our neighbour. It follows that if we are to be true, as Christians, to the spirit of Christ, we must practise some form of penance.

Every Friday is set aside as a special day of penitence, as it is the day of the suffering and death of the Lord. In 2011, the Bishops of England and Wales decided that abstinence from meat on Fridays should be reintroduced according to Canon 1251. Under that canon, abstinence from meat applies on all Fridays except those which are solemnities. Those who cannot, or choose not to, eat meat as part of their normal diet should abstain from some other food of which they regularly partake. This decision came into effect on 16 September 2011.

The Bishops of England and Wales believe it is important that all the faithful again be united in a common, identifiable act of Friday penance because they recognise that the virtue of penitence is best acquired as part of a common resolve and common witness. For this reason, all Catholics aged over 14 are to observe Friday penance by abstaining from meat and by uniting this to prayer. Those over 18 are bound by the law of fasting (which applies on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) until the beginning of their sixtieth year. Priests and parents are urged to foster the spirit and practice of penance among those too young to be the subjects of either law.

In a Q&A document published at the time of reintroduction, the General Secretary of the Bishops' Conference noted that:

- There is no requirement for us to eat fish instead of meat on a Friday. Our act of abstinence does not mean that we have to eat another particular type of food as the regular substitute for meat on a Friday.
- If we are invited out for a meal on a Friday, then we should make the most of an opportunity to witness to our Catholic faith. If our friends and colleagues value us they will not be offended or upset if we tell them, ahead of time, that we do not eat meat on Fridays.
- Our Bishops wish us to focus on the importance of observing penance as a regular and necessary part of our spiritual lives as a whole. If we make it our practice to do penance during the prescribed penitential days and seasons of the Church's year, then failure to abstain from meat on a particular Friday would not constitute a sin.

The relevant texts from the Code of Canon Law (1249-1253) are as follows:

Can. 1249 All Christ's faithful are obliged by divine law, each in his or her own way, to do penance. However, so that all may be joined together in a certain common practice of penance, days of penance are prescribed. On these days the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, and to deny themselves, by fulfilling their obligations more faithfully and especially by observing the fast and abstinence which the following canons prescribe.

Can. 1250 The days and times of penance for the universal Church are each Friday of the whole year and the season of Lent.

Can. 1251 Abstinence from meat, or from some other food as determined by the Episcopal Conference, is to be observed on all Fridays, unless a solemnity should fall on a Friday. Abstinence and fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Can. 1252 The law of abstinence binds those who have completed their fourteenth year. The law of fasting binds those who have attained their majority, until the beginning of their sixtieth year. Pastors of souls and parents are to ensure that even those who by reason of their age are not bound by the law of fasting and abstinence, are taught the true meaning of penance.

Can. 1253 The Episcopal Conference can determine more particular ways in which fasting and abstinence are to be observed. In place of abstinence or fasting it can substitute, in whole or in part, other forms of penance, especially works of charity and exercises of piety.

INDULGENCES

The Catholic Faith teaches that while sacramental confession restores us to friendship with God, we may still need to be purified, after death, of the consequences of our sinful choices. This purification may be accomplished, at least in part, while still on earth, by our own prayers, fasting, and works of charity. When the Church declares a particular spiritual exercise to be indulgenced, it adds the prayers of the Church at large to our own personal prayer. In some cases, a plenary indulgence is offered – a promise that if we fulfil the conditions set down perfectly, the prayers of the Church will achieve our total purification. Such prayers may be offered on behalf of the soul of a person who has already died, and (unless otherwise specified) may also be offered on their own behalf by the living person undertaking the indulgenced exercise.

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day, except when a person is in danger of death. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace: (i) have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin; (ii) have sacramentally confessed their sins; (iii) receive the Holy Eucharist on the day of the exercise (preferably at Mass, but to fulfil the conditions only Holy Communion is required); and (iv) pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. Prayer for the Pope's intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Pope's intentions are required for each plenary indulgence. A plenary indulgence may also be gained twice a year in parish churches: on the feast day of the Church's Titular, and on 2nd August (Portiuncula).

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope's intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be undertaken within about 20 days before or after the indulgenced act. In the year 2000 the Apostolic Penitentiary specified this window of about 20 days, in place of the earlier interpretation which allowed about 8 days before or following the indulgenced act (see Gift of the Indulgence, 5).

Although indulgences may always be applied to the dead, a plenary indulgence applicable only to the dead can be gained in all churches and public or semi-public oratories on 2nd November or on the following Sunday. The work prescribed, in addition to Confession and Holy Communion, is a visit to a church or oratory during which the Our Father and the Creed are said for the Pope's intentions. In addition, a plenary indulgence may also be gained on each day from 1st to 8th November, by visiting a cemetery and praying for the dead.

NOVEMBER 2025

The Pope's Intention: For the prevention of suicide. Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

ADVENT 2025

Advent has a twofold character: as a season to prepare for Christmas, when Christ's first coming to us is remembered: and as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ's coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation. The playing of the organ and other musical instruments, and the decoration of the altar with flowers, should be done in a moderate manner, as is consonant with the character of the season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord. The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of matrimony. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs or a Votive Mass be celebrated. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.

For the rite of blessing an Advent Wreath at Mass, Evening Prayer or a Liturgy of the Word, see page 573-582 of the Book of Blessings.

The Cycle of Prayer: During Advent and Christmastide, we are invited to pray for Migrants and Refugees, and for Expectant Mothers.

At Mass, proper readings are given for the weekdays from 17-24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third week of Advent. The Divine Office uses the Antiphons, and hymns for Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, and the Office of Readings, as prescribed for Advent II. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs be celebrated. Votive Masses and Daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited.

Memorials which occur on days between 17 and 31 December are optional; if kept, they are to be commemorated at Mass by using the collect of the saint in place of the collect of the Mass of the day. At the Office of Readings, the proper reading of a Commemoration, with its antiphon, is used following the Second Reading of the Season; at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Gospel Antiphon and Closing Prayer of the Commemoration are recited after the closing prayer of the day.

CHRISTMASTIDE

After the annual celebration of the Paschal Mystery, there is no more ancient feastday for the Church than the recalling of the memory of the Nativity of the Lord and of the mysteries of his first appearing. This is the purpose of Christmas Time. For the rite of blessing a Christmas Manger or Nativity Scene at Mass or during a carol service, see pages 583-591 of the Book of Blessings. The rite of blessing a Christmas Tree is on pages 593-600. The Cycle of Prayer: Christmastide continues the themes begun in Advent: Migrants and Refugees; Expectant Mothers.

EVENING:	+WHITE	THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (SOLEMNITY) - CHRISTMAS VIGIL Mass: The Vigil Mass of the Nativity has its own Proper Readings in the Lectionary. Gloria, Creed, and, if using Eucharistic Prayer I, special insertions for Christmas.

Note genuflection during the Creed when the Incarnation is mentioned.

Text for the Proclamation of the Birth of Christ from the Roman Martyrology is at tinyurl.com/BirthChant – this may be chanted as part of the Liturgy of the Hours on the evening of 24 December, or immediately before (not during) Midnight Mass.

Office: It is very appropriate to keep a solemn vigil by celebrating the Office of Readings before Midnight Mass. Night Prayer is not recited by those who attend the Office of Readings and Midnight Mass; otherwise, Night Prayer I of Sundays and Solemnities is celebrated.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

25 THURSDAY +WHITE THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (SOLEMNITY) - CHRISTMAS DAY

Mass: The Readings may be interchanged from the formulae provided for Mass at Midnight, at Dawn, and During the Day. Gloria, Creed, and Christmas inserts for Eucharistic Prayer I. Note genuflection during the Creed when the Incarnation is mentioned. All priests may celebrate three (stipended) Masses today on condition that they are celebrated at the proper times (Midnight, Dawn and Day).

Office: Night Prayer II of Sundays and Solemnities.
Denis Torney (Cardiff) 2007

ORDINARY TIME - WINTER

During Ordinary Time (from now until Ash Wednesday), Votive Masses and the Daily Mass for the Dead are again permitted. Eucharistic Prayer IV may be used on Sundays, unless they are Solemnities or Feasts of the Lord with their own Proper Prefaces. In Votive Masses, including Our Lady's Mass on Saturdays, vestments proper to the colour of the Votive Mass may be used, or the colour of the occurring day, or of the season. On ferial days of Ordinary Time, the Mass texts may be of the Liturgy of the Day (taken from one of the 34 sets found in the Missal) or of any saint whose name is inscribed in the Roman Martyrology on that day, or may be a Votive Mass or one of the Masses for various occasions or needs, as set out in the Missal and Lectionary. The Ferial Cycle of readings should, however, be maintained as far as possible.

Proper Readings are to be used on Solemnities, Feasts, and on those Memorials for which the Lectionary explicitly indicates that one or more readings are Proper. On Obligatory

Memorials, the proper prayers given in the Missal must be used. However, if only the Collect is proper, other prayers may be taken from the appropriate Common or from the Liturgy of the Day. The Cycle of Prayer: In the Winter Season of Ordinary Time, we are invited to pray for these intentions: Peace on Earth; Openness to the Word of God; Christian Unity; Victims of Human Trafficking and Those Who Work to Combat It; The Sick and Those Who Care for Them; The Unemployed.

LENT

The season of Lent is a preparation for the celebration of Easter. The liturgy prepares the catechumens for the celebration of the paschal mystery by the various stages of Christian initiation; it also prepares the faithful, who recall their baptism and do penance in preparation for Easter. The Lenten Alms Box should be placed in the Church.

The two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation may be appropriately used in Lent, with their Proper Prefaces up until the end of the fourth week of Lent, and with appropriate Lenten Prefaces at any time. Memorials which occur on a weekday may be commemorated, if wished, only by using the collect of the saint in place of the collect for the Mass of the Day. At the Office of Readings, the proper reading of a Commemoration, with its antiphon, is used following the Second Reading of the Season; at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Gospel Antiphon and Closing Prayer of the Commemoration are recited after the closing prayer of the day. Votive Masses and the Daily Mass for the Dead are not permitted. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs be celebrated.

The Alleluia is always omitted, both in the Liturgy of the Hours and in Mass. Gloria and Te Deum are omitted on Sundays, but retained for solemnities, feasts, and particular celebrations. It is not permitted to adorn the altar with flowers, and the organ and other instruments may only be played for the purpose of sustaining the singing. An exception is made for Laetare Sunday, and for solemnities and feasts. For the celebration of marriages, the parish priest should alert spouses to the need to take account of the particular penitential character of this season. The Nuptial Mass is allowed during Lent, but no weddings may be celebrated during the Sacred Triduum.

The Cycle of Prayer: During Lent, we are invited to pray for these intentions: Candidates for the Sacraments, (especially on the Sundays of Lent); Women; The Needy and Hungry of the World; Penitents and Wanderers.

18 WEDNESDAY PURPLE ASH WEDNESDAYA day of penance by fasting and abstinence from meat.Mass: The penitential act is omitted, in favour of the blessing and distribution of ashes which takes place after the homily. Lenten Preface IV is used.

The ashes are of branches of the olive tree or, according to custom, of the palm tree or other trees, which have been blessed the previous year. The blessing and distribution of ashes may take place outside Mass. It is opportune for this to occur in a Liturgy of the Word, as described in the Roman Missal, or on pages 621-628 of the Book of Blessings. In this case, the ashes are blessed and distributed after the homily and the celebration concludes with the Prayer of the Faithful.

Office: At Morning Prayer, the psalms and canticles of Friday Week 3 may be used. Otherwise from now until Saturday the psalmody is taken from PSALTER WEEK 4.*James Webb (Wrexham) 201319 Thursday Purple Thursday after Ash Wednesday*Mass: Preface I-IV of Lent.20 Friday Purple Friday after Ash Wednesday*Mass: Preface I-IV of Lent.21 Saturday Purple Saturday after Ash Wednesday; optionally, as a Commemoration, St Peter Damian, Bishop and Doctor of the Church*Mass: Preface I-IV of Lent.

Clocks go forward for the start of British Summer Time tonight.

In Holy Week the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of his earthly life, from his messianic entry into Jerusalem, until his blessed Passion and glorious Resurrection. The weekdays of this week are dedicated to the celebration of penance, abstaining from the celebration of the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, since these have their natural place in the Easter Vigil. Lent continues until Maundy Thursday.

The rites of Holy Week, that is to say the blessing and procession of palms, the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Solemn Celebration of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday and the Easter Vigil, may be celebrated in all churches and chapels. In churches other than parish churches, and in chapels, it is best that these rites be celebrated only if this can be done worthily – that is to say, with an appropriate number of ministers, with the possibility of singing at least some parts of the liturgy, and with a sufficiently large congregation of faithful. Otherwise, it is best that these liturgies be celebrated only in parish churches and in other more important churches. Pastors should take care to instruct the faithful on the meaning and structure of the rites enacted in these days, and so lead them to an active and fruitful participation.

PSALTER WEEK 2; SUNDAY READING CYCLE A

EVENING:	+RED	PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD Mass &amp; Office: see directions for tomorrow's liturgy.
29 Sunday	+Red	PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD Mass: The blessing of palms and Procession, Solemn Entrance or Simple Entrance replace the Penitential Act; Mass begins with the Collect. There should be only one Procession, to be celebrated before Mass on either the Saturday evening or on the Sunday itself; the Solemn Entrance, without procession, may be repeated at another Mass which is habitually celebrated with a large gathering of the people. For the spiritual good of the faithful it is appropriate that the narrative of the Passion be read in its entirety, without however omitting the other readings which precede it. After the reading of the Passion, there should be a homily, even if only a brief one. The Passion is read according to the rubrics in the Missal; at the end is said Verbum Domini ("The Gospel of the Lord"), but the book is not kissed. Creed. Proper Preface.

The liturgical books do not provide for the blessing of palm branches apart from the entrance rites of the Palm Sunday Mass.

On this day, the Church enters upon the mystery of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Lord, brings together the triumphal procession of Christ as King and the proclamation of his Passion. Both aspects of the paschal mystery should be explained in the catechesis of the day. Where it is not possible to celebrate Mass, there should be held a Liturgy of the Word about the Lord's messianic entry and his Passion, either on the Saturday evening or at a suitable time on the Sunday.

30 MONDAY	PURPLE	MONDAY OF HOLY WEEK Mass: Preface II of the Passion of the Lord.
31 TUESDAY	PURPLE	TUESDAY OF HOLY WEEK Mass: Preface II of the Passion of the Lord.

APRIL 2026

The Pope's Intention: For priests in crisis. Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

1 WEDNESDAY	PURPLE	WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK Mass: Preface II of the Passion of the Lord. Deacon John Abbot (Wrexham) 2016
2 THURSDAY	WHITE	THURSDAY OF HOLY WEEK (MAUNDY THURSDAY) Mass: In the morning: CHRISM MASS, with Gloria, Proper Preface. It is permissible to anticipate the blessing of the Holy Oils on another day, on condition that the day chosen is close to Easter and that the proper Mass is used. This Mass, which the bishop celebrates with his presbyterium, and at which the oils are blessed, manifests the unity and communion of the priests with their bishop. The faithful, too, should regularly take part and receive the Eucharist at this Mass. The readings bring out both Christ's messianic mission and its continuation in the Church by means of the sacraments. The newly blessed Oils should be borne with honour to the parish churches. The old Oils should be burned or poured into the Blessed Sacrament lamp. The reception of the sacred Oils may suitably take place before the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper or at another suitable moment. The faithful should, however, be instructed on the use of the sacred Oils and their efficaciousness in the Christian life.

Only the Chrism Mass and the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper may be celebrated today. The celebration of Funeral Masses and of Mass without a congregation are both prohibited today. Holy Communion may be distributed to the faithful only during Masses today, except for the sick, who may receive Communion at any hour.

THE SACRED TRIDUUM

Christ accomplished the work of redemption and the perfect glorification of God principally through his paschal mystery, in which dying he destroyed our death and rising restored our life. Hence the Sacred Triduum of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection shines forth as the culmination of the whole liturgical year. By the celebration of the death, burial and resurrection of her Spouse, the Church means to make present and to fulfil the mystery of the Passover, the passing over of the Lord from this world to the Father.

EVENING: WHITE

EVENING MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Mass: Gloria, during which bells are rung; bells then remain silent until the Easter Vigil. The mandatum (washing of feet) may be carried out. According to the revision promulgated by Pope Francis in 2016 (see tinyurl.com/Mandatum2016) if the ritual of foot-washing is carried out, those chosen should "represent the variety and the unity of each part of the people of God. Such small groups can be made up of men and women, and it is appropriate that they consist of people young and old, healthy and sick, clerics, consecrated men and women and laity."

In the procession bearing the gifts it is fitting that there be included gifts destined for the poor, especially gifts which have been collected during Lent as the fruits of penance.

While this happens, the hymn Ubi caritas ("Where charity and love...") is sung. Proper Preface, and special version of Eucharistic Prayer I as printed for today in the Missal.

From the end of Mass until midnight, the Blessed Sacrament may be reserved publicly; it is fitting that for this purpose, a chapel should be arranged in which prayer and meditation may be fostered, but marked by that austerity which is appropriate to these days. The procession and repose of the Blessed Sacrament only takes place if the Celebration of the Lord's Passion is to take place in the same building tomorrow. RM 345 gives detailed rubrics for the procession and stripping of the altar.

Office: For those who attend the Mass of the Lord's Supper, this takes the place of Evening Prayer.

3 FRIDAY

RED

GOOD FRIDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

A day of penance marked by fasting and abstinence from meat.

Solemn Liturgy: Celebration of the Lord's Passion in the afternoon, at around 3 pm, according to the prescriptions of the liturgical books. If, however, genuine pastoral reasons require it, the celebration may take place at a more suitable time, but not before noon and not after 9 pm. No one should introduce changes on private initiative. The altar should be completely bare: without cloths, cross and candlesticks.

After the celebration of the Lord's Passion, the Blessed Sacrament should be carried to a place outside the church, or, if circumstances so require, it is placed in the tabernacle. The altar should be stripped in private, leaving however the cross and candlesticks. It is fitting that a place be arranged (as, for example, the chapel used for reposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the previous evening), suitable for prayer and meditation, and that the cross be placed there to be adored by the faithful. A plenary indulgence is granted on the usual conditions for piously venerating the Cross during the Liturgy of the Passion.

Office: It is highly appropriate that the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer be celebrated in solemn fashion with the people. For those who attend the Solemn Liturgy of the Lord's Passion, this takes the place of Evening Prayer. Night Prayer II of Sundays is said, with the special antiphon for the Sacred Triduum.

According to a most ancient tradition, the Church does not celebrate the Eucharist on this day. Holy Communion is distributed to the faithful only during the Celebration of the Lord's Passion, but may be taken at any time to the sick who are unable to take part in this liturgy.

Of the seven Sacraments, only the Sacraments of Penance and of the Anointing of the Sick may be celebrated today. Funerals should be conducted without singing and without organ music or the ringing of bells.

4 SATURDAY

PURPLE

HOLY SATURDAY

Mass: The Church today abstains completely from the celebration of Mass. Holy Communion may only be given in the form of Viaticum.

For the rite of blessing food in readiness for the First Meal of Easter (a common custom in Eastern Europe), see pages 637-644 of the Book of Blessings.

Office: It is highly appropriate that the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer be celebrated in solemn fashion with the people. If it is not possible to celebrate the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer with the people's participation, there should be a celebration of the Word of God or some devotional exercise appropriate to today's mystery, especially one that honours the Blessed Virgin Mary for her sharing in the Passion of her Son. For those who celebrate the Easter Vigil, this takes the place of Night Prayer. For those who do not attend the Vigil, Night Prayer II of Sundays is said with the special antiphon for Holy Saturday.

Of the Seven Sacraments, only Penance and the Anointing of the Sick may be celebrated today. Holy Communion may only be given as Viaticum. An image of Christ crucified or laid in the tomb may be set up in the church for the veneration of the faithful, or else a portrayal of his descent into Hell, such as casts light upon the mystery commemorated by Holy Saturday, or else an image of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Paul Chidgey (Cardiff) 2011

EASTERTIDE

The Paschal candle should be placed near the ambo or altar, and kept there for the whole Easter season until the end of Pentecost Sunday. It should be lit for the more solemn liturgical celebrations during this time, that is, for Mass and Morning and Evening Prayer. Throughout the Easter season, the Angelus is replaced by Regina Coeli.

The Cycle of Prayer: During Eastertide we are asked to pray for these intentions: Survivors of Abuse; New Members of the Church; Vocations; The Right Use of the Media; the Church; Human Work.

PSALTER WEEK 1; SUNDAY READING CYCLE A

EVENING: +WHITE THE EASTER VIGIL

Mass: Proper Preface. Special insertions if Eucharistic Prayer I is used. Double Alleluia at the dismissal.

The whole celebration of the Easter Vigil should take place at night, so that it begins after night has fallen and concludes before daybreak. The celebration of a Mass without the rites of the Easter Vigil is not allowed; nor may a Mass be celebrated at the community's customary time for a Sunday Vigil Mass, unless this time is itself after nightfall. As regards the blessing of the fire, in so far as is possible a large fire should be prepared outside the church. The Easter candle, for effective symbolism, should be made of wax, of one piece, and of considerable size, and be renewed every year.

The Exsultet may be sung, in case of necessity, by a cantor who is not a deacon, but in this event the cantor does not receive a blessing from the celebrant, and the second part of the invitation is omitted (Quapropter ... or "Therefore, dearest friends ...") as is the greeting ("The Lord be with you..."). At least three readings are to be proclaimed from the Old Testament, and even in urgent circumstances at least two. The reading from the Book of Exodus is never to be omitted.

Gloria with bells. At the reading of the Gospel, incense may be used, but lights are not carried. The baptismal liturgy of the Easter Vigil reaches its fullest form when the baptism of adults, or at least children, is celebrated. However, even when the sacrament of Baptism is not celebrated, in parish churches the baptismal water should be blessed. In cases where there are neither baptisms nor blessing of the font, the sacrament of baptism should be recalled by the blessing of water, with which the faithful are then sprinkled after having renewed their baptismal promises.

5 SUNDAY	+WHITE	EASTER SUNDAY: THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD Mass: Gloria, Sequence, Creed or Renewal of Baptismal Promises, Proper Preface. Special insertions if Eucharistic Prayer I is used. Double Alleluia at the dismissal. It is desirable that at Masses with a congregation, baptismal promises should be renewed. If sprinkling with holy water has replaced the penitential rite, this is not repeated at the renewal of vows. At an evening Mass the Gospel may be Luke 24:13-35. Office: For those who have attended the Easter Vigil, this takes the place of today's Office of Readings. Today, and throughout the whole Octave, Sunday Night Prayer (as after either first or second vespers), with the antiphon Haec dies (This is the day) instead of the short responsory.
6 MONDAY	WHITE	MONDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions. Felix Connolly (Cardiff) 2004; Patrick Kerrisk (Cardiff) 2012
7 TUESDAY	WHITE	TUESDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions.
8 WEDNESDAY	WHITE	WEDNESDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions. John Donovan (Wrexham) 2009

9 THURSDAY	WHITE	THURSDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions.
10 FRIDAY	WHITE	FRIDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions. Since this Friday ranks as a Solemnity, abstinence from meat need not be observed.
11 SATURDAY	WHITE	SATURDAY OF THE OCTAVE OF EASTER Mass: Gloria (but no Creed), Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions.
PSALTER WEEK 2; SUNDAY READING CYCLE A
EVENING:	+WHITE	2ND SUNDAY OF EASTERTIDE Mass &amp; Office: see directions for tomorrow's liturgy.
12 SUNDAY	+WHITE	2ND SUNDAY OF EASTERTIDE, ALSO CALLED DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY Mass: Gloria. Creed. Preface I of Easter. Double Alleluia added to dismissal. Use of the Sequence is optional. If using Eucharistic Prayer I, note insertions. The Mass to be celebrated is that of the Second Sunday of Easter; no changes may be made, even for special Divine Mercy celebrations. The Book of Blessings specifies that an image of Our Lord for public veneration should not be blessed during Mass.  Throughout the Easter season, particular attention should be paid to the mystagogical formation of the newly baptised.  Bishop THOMAS JOSEPH BROWN, O.S.B. (1st Vicar Apostolic of the Welsh District, 1st Bishop of Newport and Menevia) 1880

In the year 2000, Pope John Paul II designated the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday; a plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from affection for sin, even venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!"). A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation.

Priests should inform the faithful in the most suitable way of this provision. They should promptly and generously be willing to hear their confessions. On Divine Mercy Sunday, after celebrating Mass or Evening Prayer, or during devotions in honour of Divine Mercy, with the dignity that is in accord with the rite, they should lead the recitation of the prayers that have been given above. Finally, when they instruct their people, priests should gently encourage the faithful to practise works of charity or mercy as often as they can, following the example of, and in obeying the commandment of, Our Lord Jesus Christ. When an optional memorial falls on a weekday of Easter time, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the saint who is inscribed for that day in the calendar or in the Martyrology. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs and Occasions, or Votive Mass, be celebrated. In the weekday Office, the Invitatory antiphon, the hymns for the Office of Readings, for Morning Prayer and for Evening Prayer, and the antiphon at the Middle Hour are taken from those prescribed for the season. To the antiphons is added Alleluia, unless this is already present, or unless it does not well accord with the sense of the words.

MAY 2026

The Pope's Intention: That everyone might have food. Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Since the month of May largely corresponds with the fifty days of Easter, the primary focus must be on the Resurrection of Christ rather than the Mother of God. Pious exercises practised at this time could emphasise Our Lady's participation in the Paschal mystery, and Pentecost: Our Lady journeys with the Church, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Eastertide is also a time for the celebration of the sacraments of Christian initiation and of the mystagogy. Pious exercises could easily highlight the earthly role played by the glorified Queen of Heaven, here and now, in the celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. (See Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy, 190.)

ORDINARY TIME - SUMMER

The Paschal Candle is no longer kept in the sanctuary, but moved to the baptistry, where it is kept with due honour and lit at baptisms. At funerals it may be placed near the coffin, and lit, to signify that Christian death is a true Passover. The recitation of the Angelus is resumed. Eucharistic Prayer IV may be again used on Sundays, unless they are Solemnities or Feasts of the Lord with their own Proper Prefaces.

The Readings of Ordinary Time continue from the 8th week of Cycle II.

The Cycle of Prayer: During Ordinary Time (Summer), i.e. up to September, we are asked to pray for these intentions: A Deeper Understanding between Christians and Jews; Those who Suffer Persecution, Oppression and Denial of Human Rights; Europe; Human Life; Seafarers.

On 2nd August the plenary indulgence traditionally called the Portiuncula indulgence may be acquired in minor basilicas, shrines and parish churches. Requirements: a devout visit to a church and the recitation there of the Lord's Prayer and the Creed in addition to a sacramental confession, Holy Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. This indulgence may be gained only once each year. The visit may be made from noon the previous day to midnight on the day itself.

OCTOBER 2026

During October, the Rosary should be recommended to the faithful, and its nature and importance explained. A plenary indulgence may be gained by reciting five decades of the Rosary in Church, as a family at home, as a religious community, or as a pious fraternity, or in general whenever several persons have gathered for a good purpose; in other circumstances a partial indulgence may be gained.

The Pope's Intention: For mental health ministry. Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

NOVEMBER 2026

The Pope's Intention: For the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

1 SUNDAY	+WHITE	ALL SAINTS (SOLEMNITY) Mass: Gloria. Creed. Office: At Prayer During the Day, antiphons for All Saints together with Complementary Psalms. Bishop DANIEL MULLINS (9th Bishop of Menevia) 2019
2 MONDAY	P/BLACK	THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED Mass: Each Priest may celebrate three masses, only one of which may carry a stipended intention. The second mass must be offered for all the Faithful Departed and the third for the Holy Father's intentions. For the rite of visiting a cemetery on All Souls' Day, see pages 649-655 of the Book of Blessings . Donal Gillespie (Cardiff) 2014; Michael Ronan (Cardiff) 2020

A plenary indulgence, applicable to all the souls in Purgatory, is granted to any of the faithful who (1) on one of the days from 1-8 November visit devoutly a cemetery or simply pray mentally for the dead; (2) on All Souls' Day visit a church or chapel with devotion and there recite the Our Father and the Creed. A partial indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, is granted to any of the faithful who (1) visit devoutly a cemetery or who simply pray mentally for the dead; (2) recite devoutly Morning Prayer or Evening Prayer of the Office of the Dead, or the invocation 'Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord...'

ADVENT 2026

Advent has a twofold character: as a season to prepare for Christmas, when Christ's first coming to us is remembered: and as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ's coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation. The playing of the organ and other musical instruments, and the decoration of the altar with flowers, should be done in a moderate manner, as is consonant with the character of the season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord. The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of matrimony. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs or a Votive Mass be celebrated. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.

For the rite of blessing an Advent Wreath at Mass, Evening Prayer or a Liturgy of the Word, see page 573-582 of the Book of Blessings.

The Cycle of Prayer: During Advent and Christmastide, we are invited to pray for Migrants and Refugees, and for Expectant Mothers.

EVENING:	+ROSE/P	3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (GAUDETE SUNDAY) Mass &amp; Office: see directions for tomorrow's liturgy.
13 SUNDAY	+ROSE/P	3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (GAUDETE SUNDAY) Mass: Creed. Advent Preface I. The Advent moderation in the use of organ, other musical instruments, and flowers, does not apply to Gaudete Sunday.

15 Tuesday	Purple	3rd Week of Advent Mass: Advent Preface I.
16 Wednesday	Purple	3rd Week of Advent Mass: Advent Preface I.

At Mass, proper readings are given for the weekdays from 17-24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third week of Advent.

The Divine Office uses the Antiphons, and hymns for Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, and the Office of Readings, as prescribed for Advent II. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for Various Needs be celebrated. Votive Masses and Daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited.

Memorials which occur on days between 17 and 31 December are optional; if kept, they are to be commemorated at Mass by using the collect of the saint in place of the collect of the Mass of the day. At the Office of Readings, the proper reading of a Commemoration, with its antiphon, is used following the Second Reading of the Season; at Morning and Evening Prayer, the Gospel Antiphon and Closing Prayer of the Commemoration are recited after the closing prayer of the day.

24 Thursday      Purple      4th Week of Advent*Mass: Proper Mass for Dec 24, with Advent Preface II.Office: 4th Week of Advent with material for Dec 24.*John Fahy (Cardiff) 2008CHRISTMASTIDE

After the annual celebration of the Paschal Mystery, there is no more ancient feastday for the Church than the recalling of the memory of the Nativity of the Lord and of the mysteries of his first appearing. This is the purpose of Christmas Time. For the rite of blessing a Christmas Manger or Nativity Scene at Mass or during a carol service, see pages 583-591 of the Book of Blessings. The rite of blessing a Christmas Tree is on pages 593-600.

The Cycle of Prayer: Christmastide continues the themes begun in Advent: Migrants and Refugees; Expectant Mothers.

EVENING:      +WHITE      THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (SOLEMNITY) - CHRISTMAS VIGIL

Mass: The Vigil Mass of the Nativity has its own Proper Readings in the Lectionary. Gloria, Creed, and, if using Eucharistic Prayer I, special insertions for Christmas. Note genuflection during the Creed when the Incarnation is mentioned. Text for the Proclamation of the Birth of Christ from the Roman Martyrology can be found at tinyurl.com/BirthChant – this may be chanted as part of the Liturgy of the Hours on the evening of 24 December, or immediately before (not during) Midnight Mass.

Office: It is very appropriate to keep a solemn vigil by celebrating the Office of Readings before Midnight Mass. Night Prayer is not recited by those who attend the Office of Readings and Midnight Mass; otherwise, Night Prayer I of Sundays and Solemnities is celebrated.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION*25 FRIDAY      +WHITE      THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (SOLEMNITY) - CHRISTMAS DAY

Mass: The Readings may be interchanged from the formulae provided for Mass at Midnight, at Dawn, and During the Day. Gloria, Creed, and Christmas inserts for Eucharistic Prayer I. Note genuflection during the Creed when the Incarnation is mentioned.

All priests may celebrate three (stipended) Masses today on condition that they are celebrated at the proper times (Midnight, Dawn and Day).

Office: Night Prayer II of Sundays and Solemnities is said.
